Socialists Riot in German Elections

ATTACK BY POLES IS LAUNCHED ON REDS NEAR KIEV

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

BERLIN, June 3.—The election campaign in the provinces continues with much violence. There is frequent fighting at the meetings of the various candidates. At Darmstadt a Peoples' party meeting had just commenced when Independent Socialist supporters dropped chairs from the gallery on the people below and turned the hose on those in the hall, bringing the meeting to a abrupt end. Similar demonstrations occurred at a meeting in Bremen.

WARSAW, June 3. — The Poles have launched a counter-attack south of Kiev, where the Reds have concentrated in an endeavor to drive the Poles northwest to compel the Poles to evacuate Kiev.

The Bolshevik forces captured Kiev proper, but the official communique today announces that they have been driven back, and several villages recovered. The fighting continues. The Bolsheviki infantry, led by a flotilla, was attacked by Polish aviators, who used machine guns and bombs. One Red boat was sunk.

BUDAPEST, June 3.—With twelve officers in hospitals in consequence of having been pricked by poison needles, and a number dead, it is believed that Bolsheviki are attempting to create new disorders during the period of uneasiness attendant upon the signing of the peace treaty.

The city is filled with terror at these outrages, which are committed at night when officers are going about on duty, and particularly when they are in the crowds. There are few people about the streets now, the cautious ones staying within doors.

Order is being kept by mounted police and squads of soldiers armed with hand grenades, pistols and rifles with fixed bayonets.

Rowdies attacked people with sharpened iron canes at the English park and in cafes Wednesday night, but most of them were promptly arrested.

MUST QUIT SHANTUNG.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

TOKIO, June 3.—The Chinese delegation made a sudden change of front in its answer to the most recent note of Japan asking for negotiations for the return of Shantung.

Instead of refusing the terms of negotiations as drastic and demands the immediate withdrawal of the Japanese military forces from Tsing-Tau and the control of the Shantung railway, the delegation has produced a favorable impression all over China. Even Chinese newspapers have approved the government's action, while a few are skeptical and suspect double dealing by Japanese controlled Chinese officials.

The Japanese reply now is under consideration by the elder Japanese statesmen. Meanwhile Japanese merchants in China, whose business has been ruined by the Chinese boycott, are urging moderation. The Chinese student organizations in Peking and Shanghai have sent a delegation to Tokio for discussion with Japanese students and radicals. They believe that Japan has become more reasonable in her international policy since the close of the present financial crisis and depression in Japan. The Japanese business men and manufacturing persons now are urging that the official conference be held in Peking instead of liberal Chinese leaders with Japanese leaders of similar profession for a general discussion of the differences between the two countries and the formation of a new policy to end the deadlock. They point to the good result of the recent unofficial conferences between the Americans and the Japanese as an example of what can be done to clear up the Chinese situation.

The Chinese in their recent note refusing direct negotiations opened the way for the proposed unofficial conference.

A remarkable indication of the growth of liberalism in Japan in the last few weeks is the policy of Tokio toward Semenoff, the Siberian Cossack chieftain.

The latest news from Vladivostok asserts that for the last two weeks the air there has been filled with rumors of a planned monarchical coup. The provisional Siberian government at Vladivostok inquired of the Japanese leaders there as to their policy and learned that Japan had decided to take a disinterested position. The Vladivostok government then immediately seized the Semenoff agents and completely upset his plans for a restoration to power.

Semenoff's star seems definitely to have set.

An extraordinary session of the Vladivostok Municipal Council and other public organizations unanimously recognized the provisional government.

LATE MORNING NEWS

L. A. Crook Trio.

FRESNO, June 3.—Roy Hayes, Fred Burnham and Fred Schaefer, all of Los Angeles, were captured shortly after they robbed the Jewelry Store here this morning. The trio smashed the show window and took rings and watches valued at $1385. A valley search was instituted and the men were caught two hours later at Tulare. Twenty bullets were necessary to stop the fleeing burglars. The men have all confessed to the robbery and admitted having stolen the automobile they escaped in from a Los Angeles automobile dealer recently, according to the police.

Quit Strike.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Unionized bookbinders formerly employed in the shipyards of the San Francisco district, who have been on strike since last October for higher pay, voted to return to work Monday, at a mass meeting held tonight. The men agreed to accept the offer of the employers to pay $6.40 for an eight-hour day. Several thousand men are affected by the decision, union officials say.

Vilera Goes West.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish republic, today gave up his apartments in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel and departed for the West. For the first time since he made his headquarters at the hotel a year ago, arrangements have been made for his return.

De Valera plans to be in Chicago at the eve of the Republican National Convention. Some of his friends here reported that after leaving Chicago he planned to go to San Francisco, meet Archbishop Mannix of Australia there and return with him to Rome.

Prof. Hyslop Ill.

NEW YORK, June 3. — Prof. James H. Hyslop, advocate of spiritual healing and recognized leader in America in the research of the supernatural, has suffered a hemorrhage of the brain which has affected his speech, it became known today. His illness, which has kept him under the care of specialists for several months, prevented him from appearing as a witness today in a legal action.

Affidavits produced in court stated that Prof. Hyslop has been unable to sit up since the attack and that there are some words he cannot speak at all. To examine him now, his physicians said, would prove fatal.

Major is Held Up.

Held a prisoner at the point of a revolver by two highwaymen who had robbed him and a friend, Maj. Sampson of 1723 Wilcox avenue, Hollywood, was forced to take the bandits from Vine street and Sunset Boulevard, the scene of the hold-up, to Vermont avenue and Exposition Boulevard, where he ran out of gasoline. The bandits then fled. The major drove back to Hollywood where he rejoined his friend, George Richelire of 6280 Sunset Boulevard. Then they reported to the Hollywood police station that Mr. Richelire had lost $27 and Maj. Sampson $10, when they were robbed.

Bandits Get Whisky.

Whisky bandits broke into the cellar at the home of S. A. McKee, 4166 South Main street, early this morning, loaded thirty cases of bonded goods on a truck and escaped. Mr. McKee is a well-known cafe man. He and his family were all downtown at the time of the burglary. He values the stolen liquor at $10,000. It was partially insured.

VERA CRUZ IS ISOLATED

Close Guard Kept by Troop Cordon.

Three Deaths From Bubonic Plague Reported; Twelve Cases Discovered.

America's Offer of Help is Accepted by the Mexican State Authorities.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

MEXICO CITY, June 3. — Twelve cases of bubonic plague have thus far been discovered in Vera Cruz, according to El Democrata today.

A cordon of troops has been thrown around the city and is preventing the entry or departure of anyone.

VERA CRUZ, June 3.—Three persons who were taken to the isolation hospital here following attacks of the bubonic plague have died and three others are in a serious condition.

MEXICO CITY, June 3. — State authorities at Vera Cruz have accepted the offer of the United States government to send a sanitary detachment and supplies to that city for the purpose of combatting the spread of bubonic plague, says a dispatch from that city to the newspaper Universal. Rigid quarantine regulations are being enforced.

One-third of the houses of Vera Cruz will be burned because of the bubonic plague infection, it has been decided by the citizens of that city, according to the Excelsior today.

SAN FRANCISCO READY TO GREET DEMOCRATS.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION ARE PRACTICALLY COMPLETED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Inhabitants of the Golden Gate city have manicured the glad hand and are ready to extend it to all visitors to the Democratic National Convention. The task of preparation has been little short of Herculean. San Francisco does not entertain as many conventions as does Chicago, which is practically prepared at any time to take care of incoming thousands on a moment's notice. For this reason much work had to be done here, but it is practically completed and the promoters are simply polishing off the rough edges.

Committees have canvassed all the hotels and boarding-houses and private residences, and give assurance that there will be plenty of room for all who come. There will also be plenty to eat and—say it in whispers, please — California produces a most excellent quality of wine and brandy, and there is no indication that San Francisco will permit any guest to perish of thirst, or suffer for the lack of some "medicine."

The exposition auditorium is a stone building occupying an entire block in the civic center of the city. It will comfortably seat 10,000 persons and while this is 2000 under the seating capacity of the convention halls in St. Louis and Baltimore, the ample side halls available as committee rooms more than make up the difference.

One-half the ushers at the convention will be students from the University of California and Stanford University. A separate squad of fifty women ushers will be on duty to take care of the women delegates.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN INTERVIEW WITH WOOD

CHICAGO, June 3.—Virgil G. Hinshaw, chairman of the Prohibition party's national committee, who today announced his intention of obtaining from every Republican candidate for the Presidency a statement concerning what stand the party should take on prohibition, tonight said that he had discussed the subject with Maj.-Gen. Wood.

"Gen. Wood told me that prohibition had done more for the army than any other one thing, but seemed inclined to leave the matter to the platform committee," said Mr. Hinshaw.

Mr. Hinshaw said he also desired from each candidate a statement as to his interpretations of the Volstead Act.

HOOVER NOT TO ATTEND REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Herbert Hoover will not be in Chicago during the period of the Republican National Convention.

This statement was issued today by the Hoover headquarters here in answer to a great many inquiries on the subject. He will be the only one of the principal candidates to be absent from the convention city.

The hope was expressed some time ago by numerous friends of Mr. Hoover in the West that he would attend, so that they might meet him. His coming here, however, has never been seriously considered, and while there has been some discussion recently, owing to the fact that so many of the candidates are to come to Chicago, the leaders of the Hoover National Republican Club have not thought it necessary to take up the proposal seriously.

The whole campaign to bring about the nomination of Mr. Hoover has been in the hands of his own friends, and he has not participated actively, largely because he is so busy with other affairs.

His numerous activities have engaged his time so fully that the Hoover leaders now in Chicago feel that it would be quite useless to urge him to come here even if they deemed it advisable that he do so.

The "get-gether" luncheon in the Pine Room of the Stratford Hotel today of the Hoover campaign managers, both local and national, was largely attended. Plans looking to rallying of the Hoover enthusiasm for a great burst of speed before the nomination were discussed.

Announcements were made about the new headquarters, and hospitality and entertainment committees in general were named. F. K. Copeland, chairman of the Illinois Hoover Republican Club, presided. After Mr. Copeland had outlined the work done by the Illinois committee, he called upon Capt. J. F. Lucey, who told of the activities of the national committee.

Commander George Barr Baker then recited instances that fell under his observation in the work with Mr. Hoover abroad—how he built from the ground up; built for everybody within reach, and gave a share to everybody.

"Hoover would work for all the people as President of the United States, so that all could share in the upbuilding, and our glory as a nation would grow brighter."

RALPH ELY SPEAKS.

Following Commander Baker, Mr. Ralph C. Ely of Los Angeles traced the history of the Republican party briefly, showing that the evolution of a great question of conscience brought it into existence, and that questions of conscience had always been dominant in its councils and never money.

"And a fair count" was part of the party's slogan in one of its greatest fights, said Mr. Ely. "And it can show a record of practical idealism throughout its entire history. It read the 'corrupt practices' act into the law of every State. It was responsible for the introduction of the Australian ballot, and it is to the Republican party that the United States is looking for practical idealism; and so when the statement is made that Herbert Hoover is not a practical politician; that he has old-fashioned ideals; that there would be no patronage distributed during his administration; the speaker indicates that he does not understand his own party, for the paramount thing in its practical idealism and Mr. Hoover is peculiarly representative of that idealism, a great leader and a great builder.

Furthermore, Mr. Hoover is so much of an organizer that he realizes that a man cannot win alone. He believes in delegating work to others under him. He, therefore, is a strong party man."

The next speaker at the luncheon was Anthony Czarnecki, who wrought up a great deal of enthusiasm by telling how the celebration of the Poles last Sunday turned out to be a Hoover demonstration.

"The line of people six abreast in the procession that afternoon took an hour and a half to pass a given point and a conservative estimates placed the number of those at the celebration in Humboldt Park at 300,000. So tremendous was the enthusiasm when the Hoover resolution was read that several politicians of other faiths who happened to be present commented that he beyond any doubt 'Hoover has the people. This has turned out to be a Hoover demonstration.'"

Mrs. James M. Horrison was called upon to tell of the plans of the hospitality committee of the woman's campaign committee for convention week. She announced a program for the entertainment of the Republican women delegates at the "Hoover house," as the Robert B. Gregory house has come to be called. There will be a special luncheon Monday, June 7, for the women delegates, and a luncheon every day at 50 cents a plate will be served.

A committee of the men to look after the entertainment plans of the Hoover delegates during convention week was appointed by M. Robert Stevenson, Jr.

HITCHCOCK GENERALISSIMO.

Assumes Responsibility for Wood's Campaign; Hopes to Weaken Lowden.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Frank H. Hitchcock, former Postmaster-General, this morning assumed the responsibility for handling the Wood forces in the national convention.

This procedure was definitely determined at a general conference of the Wood men, in charge of State delegations, held at the Chicago Club.

For convention purposes, Mr. Hitchcock will have his headquarters in the same rooms in the Congress Hotel from which he handled the Presidential candidacies of other years in which he has been interested.

The openly expressed judgment of recognized leaders in the Wood campaign was that Mr. Hitchcock's first tactical result was the victory in the national committee in the Florida contest, whereby George W. Bean is certain of re-election as national committeeman and Wood is to get six of the Florida votes to two for Lowden.

SHOWDOWN PREDICTED.

"This is now a showdown between Wood and Lowden, and that is all there is to it," was the comment of one of the Wood men who sat in the Chicago Club conference. "Take the instance of my own State. I went out to make a fight for Wood instructions and got them. It is essential to me politically and to me in other States who led the Wood primary campaign, that he be nominated. But we put the case in the hands of Mr. Hitchcock. That was the practical politics of the situation as it now stands."

Real Presidential politics did not begin to boil until after the Florida contest had been determined, and the political managers had secured a line on what is likely to happen in Georgia.

The undercurrent of opinion began to reach the surface early tonight. If the judgment of the national committeemen and the advance guard of delegates is correct today and tomorrow and Sunday will be a hand-to-hand contest between Lowden and Wood. The preliminary bout between these two may be an elimination heat, where the chance exists for each to eliminate the other. All of the preparatory stuff along "Presidential Row" last night strongly indicated that it is a Wood-Lowden matter, at least until Sunday, when the main body of delegates and State leaders will be on the ground.

HOPE FOR ELIMINATION.

The undisguised hope of every other candidate along the row is that the situation indicated above is really the case. The most substantial indication of this came in a statement from the Poindexter campaign given out by William A. Orr, former superintendent of prisons of New York, and eastern manager for Poindexter. Mr. Orr's shot was aimed directly at Gov. Lowden, and reflected in many respects the inside feeling in the headquarters of candidates who are hopeful that there will be a protracted deadlock.

LOUISIANA DEMOCRATS ARE UNINSTRUCTED.

BATON ROUGE, June 3.—The Louisiana delegation to the Democratic National Convention will go uninstructed as to modification of the Volstead Act, to permit the sale of light wines and beers and on woman suffrage and will vote as the members desire for a Presidential nominee, it was decided today at a caucus preliminary to the State convention.

KEEP LIBERTY BONDS, URGED BY CREDIT MEN.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 3.—Resolutions urging the public to retain the Liberty Bonds they now own and to buy more, and approving the establishment of Federal budget system, were adopted by the National Association of Credit Men in annual convention here today.

Federal taxation was discussed at a conference tonight.

ADRIATIC IN NEW PLAN.

Wilson Proposal is a Basis.

Italy's Latest Way Out of Contest Puts Fiume Under the League.

America May be Unofficially Represented at Conference With Germans.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, June 3.—Premier Nitti has made to Jugo-Slavia new compromise proposals intended to solve the vexed Adriatic question, says a dispatch to the Matin.

President Wilson's stipulations relative to the eastern boundary of Julian Venetia has been followed, with a few slight modifications. Abbasia, just west of Fiume, would be under Italian sovereignty. The harbor, however, would be placed under the administration of the League of Nations and the suburb of Sussak would be given to the Jugo-Slavs.

With the exception of Lussin and Cherso, situated in the Gulf of Quarnero, southwest of Fiume, all the islands along the coast would go to Jugo-Slavia, which country would also receive all of Dalmatia except the port of Zara, for which an autonomous government is planned.

PARIS, June 3.—The United States is likely to be unofficially represented in the coming conference with the Germans at Spa, through the presence of the reparations commission, of which Roland W. Boyden of Boston, formerly connected with Herbert Hoover's organization, is an unofficial member.

COBLENZ, June 2.—Gen. Henry T. Allen has appointed David L. Stone, former chief of staff of the Third Division, to act as representative of the American Army of Occupation at the session of the Allied Rhineland Commission."

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The United States will be represented unofficially at the forthcoming conference at London, between Gregory Krassin, Bolshevik Minister of Trade and Commerce, and representatives of the Supreme Economic Council, it was said today by officials here.

Consul-General Skinner at London, it is understood, will be the American representative. Should Great Britain or other European countries decide to resume commercial relations with the Bolsheviki, the United States, it was said, will block any sale of rolling stock to foreign governments for resale to Russia.

While this country possesses the most desirable goods for exchange, officials observed, Russia contains nothing exportable with the possible exception of wheat. With no means of transportation, promised trade advantages are therefore regarded here with skepticism.

The presence of an unofficial American observer at the conference, it was stated, would not mean that the United States had changed its position with regard to resumption of trade with Bolshevik Russia or that any change was in contemplation.

Officials explained that the purpose was to only keep in immediate touch with the negotiations and with the views of other nations on the question.

LLOYD GEORGE'S POSITION.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, June 3.—Trade negotiations between the Allies and Gregory Krassin, Russian soviet Minister of Trade and Commerce, have not yet begun, Premier Lloyd George said in the House of Commons today.

Replying to a flood of insistent queries, the Premier said there were certain questions Great Britain wanted cleared before it would undertake negotiations at all. Russia must guarantee that there will be no attacks on British interests in the East while negotiations are proceeding, Mr. Lloyd George declared, and must guarantee to release all British prisoners.

The Premier was asked whether the negotiations had been sanctioned by France and Italy. The question of M. Krassin's credentials and whom he represents also was raised.

The Premier replied that the decision of the Supreme Council to promote trade with Russia already had been made public. At San Remo, the Supreme Council decided to authorize Allied representatives to meet M. Krassin and a Russian trade delegation in London as soon as possible with a view to beginning immediately trade relations between Russia and other countries, through the Russian co-operative movement and otherwise.

IS A SOVIET MAN.

The Premier said M. Krassin was head of the delegation representing the Russian co-operative organization but he was also Minister of the soviet government and as such, no doubt, was acting in the name and under the authority of the soviet government.

One of the members asked whether Krassin was not originally a Ger-

NOTED DRY LEADER PASSES AWAY IN A REDLANDS HOSPITAL

Dr. D. M. Gandier, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, died at the Loma Linda Sanatorium, near Redlands, at midnight last night, of cancer of the stomach. He had been ill for over a year and some months ago was reported at death's door. He went to the sanatorium ten days ago, but at that time little hope was held for him. He was operated on for cancer of the stomach when he returned from an extended trip through the Orient in the interests of prohibition last fall. He had been State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League since 1908. From 1906 to 1908 he was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of San Bernardino.

The son and grandson of Presbyterian ministers, Dr. Gandier, who was born April 27, 1868, near Toronto, Can., early determined to follow in their footsteps. Finding himself unable to take a college course he entered the British Columbia woods as a logger and studied theological works in his off hours. He was chosen in 1903 by the Anti-Saloon League to be superintendent of a district comprising Riverside and San Bernardino counties. Soon after this he was appointed assistant State superintendent, later serving as legislative superintendent at Sacramento. His next appointment was that of superintendent for Northern California, and in 1924 he was made superintendent of the whole State, succeeding the Rev. Ervin S. Chapman.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon the prohibition worker by the University of Southern California in June, 1915.

During his career as superintendent Dr. Gandier directed two campaigns for State-wide prohibition, also many "dry" battles in localities all over the State. Prominent among these was the Los Angeles local option election of 1919, in which an ordinance was adopted closing all saloons in the city, and limiting cafes and wholesale liquor houses to the sale of light wines and beer. This measure, known as the "Gandier" ordinance, became effective April 1, 1918, and remained so until it was superseded by the Federal prohibition enactments.

Dr. Gandier assisted in the drafting of the Volstead Act providing enforcement of the Eighteenth prohibition amendment. The distinction was claimed for him of having been the first to suggest ½ of 1 per cent as the limit of alcoholic content in beverages.

Dr. Gandier married Miss Heleen Burdette in Canada about twenty years ago. She and a daughter, Miss Gene Gandier, survive him.

FIND COAL GOUGERS GUILTY.

Cincinnati Jobbers Convicted on Thirteen Counts Under Lever Act.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CINCINNATI, June 3.—A verdict of guilty as to thirteen of twenty-three counts of an indictment charging violation of the Lever Act was returned last night against the Matthew Addy Company, Cincinnati coal jobbers.

The specific charges are that coal was sold at a profit of 25 cents a ton in violation of the law and the President's profit limitation of 25 cents.

NEW YORK, June 3.—A motion to quash indictments against the American Woolen Company of New York, the American Woolen Company of Massachusetts, and William M. Wood, president of both companies, charging them with profiteering in sales of wool cloth, was argued before Judge Julius W. Mack, in United States District Court here yesterday. No decision was rendered.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Steps retail drygoods merchants of the country are taking to force a return of normal economic conditions were outlined at the second and concluding session here today of the Pacific Coast convention of the National Retail Drygoods Association.

SEATTLE, June 3.—Japanese centrifugal sugar, a crystallized sugar product, can be laid down in Seattle for approximately $17 per hundred pounds, according to information received from Kobe and made public today. The information said between 50,000 and 60,000 tons of the Japanese product are now available for export. An importing firm announced 45,000 tons of Japanese, Formosa, and Javanese sugar would be shipped to New York and about 5000 tons to San Francisco.

AN ECONOMY MOVE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—A resolution pledging the shoe merchants' representatives to display and advertise only the moderately priced shoes, on and after June 15, was adopted at a meeting of the merchants and the San Francisco Housewives League here today. Executives of the league announced merchants in other lines would be asked to take like steps.

The shoe dealers pledged themselves to instruct employees to recommend only durable, moderately priced shoes to their customers.

NIP REVOLT OF OSUNA.

JUAREZ (Mex.) June 3.—Gen. Carlos Osuna, backed by an "army" numbering, according to various estimates, from 2000 men down to five, is the latest military problem for the revolutionists who have just come into power in Mexico.

Osuna, according to Col. Claudio Fox, commander of the garrison here, rebelled against the revolution, while on a drinking joust at Gomez Palacio, when he waxed loudly sympathetic over the fate of President Carranza. He then put his rebellion into effect, it was said, by starting toward Ango with his "army" to join the Arietta brothers, who were reported holding out against the new government.

It was officially announced here the Arrietta brothers, in consideration of 100,000 pesos cash and the promise of amnesty, had joined the De la Huerta government. It was announced that 10,000 men are being sent to effect the capture of Francisco Villa and Osuna.

EL PASO, June 3.—Gen. Carlos Osuna, who revolted, has been overtaken and defeated at Villa de Allendo by forces under Gens. J. Gonzalo Escobar and Ignacio Enriquez, according to advices received at Liberal-Constitutionalist headquarters in El Paso today.

ATTACK ON PARRAL.

Parral, Chihuahua, a city of about 15,000 population, was attacked by the bandit forces of Francisco Villa yesterday, according to unofficial advices received here today. Parral is the center of a large mining district in which numerous large American and other foreign-owned companies are operating.

No details were received of the attack other than that it was unsuccessful.

CITY IS ISOLATED.

Parral is isolated from rail communication and telegraph service is intermittent. The railroad between Jimenez and Parral has been cut and at least five bridges were burned by Villistas, it was said. Tracks were torn up.

The reported attack on Parral would indicate, it was said by officials here, that Villa has a much larger force under his command than recent estimates. The de facto officials of Mexico had announced a garrison of several hundred men being maintained at Parral to protect the foreign-owned interests there and that a "ring of steel" composed of 10,000 men was being put around Villa and his followers.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Reduction of the Mexican army has been started at the suggestion of Gen. Obregon, according to advices received in Washington today from the de facto government. Gen. Obregon is quoted as saying that the army would be reorganized and reduced to half its present size.

The organization of a force of rurales to police the outlying parts of the country also has begun, the advices state.

Negotiations were opened with Francisco Villa, the rebel leader, to head the new rurales, but Villa is reported to have refused.

GRAPES EXPECTED TO BRING RECORD PRICE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—California grapes will bring a record price this year, according to R. E. Nougaret, head of the office of viticulture of the State Department of Agriculture. While the crop will be lighter than last year, due to the lack of rain and the early frosts, Nougaret says the growers will be more than compensated for this loss by the higher prices.

Nougaret declares offers of from $50 to $70 per ton for fresh wine grapes and 10 cents a pound for the dried product, already have been made to growers.

Bidding on table grapes is awaiting the action of the growers' exchange in fixing the minimum price its members will accept.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN PLAN TO DEMAND MORE POWER

Doubling of the National Committee in Size, With Woman Vice-Chairman, Among Requests Forming.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Plans for a demand that the Republican National Committee be increased from forty-eight to ninety-six members, and that a woman vice-chairman be appointed, were announced today by Mrs. Mary Garret Hay of New York, chairman of the Republican Woman's National Executive Committee.

Miss Hay discussed the plans with many women Republicans, following the failure of the subcommittee of the national committee to reach any definite conclusions today to take up the question of women's representation. Miss Hay's plan will be presented at a caucus of women Sunday and if approved will be placed before the subcommittee Monday.

"The personnel of the committee should be increased from 48 to 96," said Miss Hay, "because the electorate has been doubled. I do not mean there should be a man and a woman from every State. It is up to the States to elect anyone they want. Also, there should be a woman vice-chairman and an assistant secretary and either the secretary or the assistant should be a woman."

FAIR PLAY FOR BLACKS.

Besides settling the delegation contests from Florida by splitting the decision, the Republican National Committee today took what many members construed to be one of the most important actions of years respecting the party's vote in Southern States.

Aroused by the number of delegate contests in which evidence was brought that district conventions had been held in places where negroes were excluded by custom or practice, the committee by unanimous resolution gave notice that conventions for the selection of delegates in 1924 must be held in places where race was no barrier to participation.

A resolution to that effect offered by Charles B. Warren, national committeeman from Michigan, aroused lively discussion and hot retorts from Southern committee members, because in its language it originally referred to the Southern States specifically. When amended to refer to all States it found no opposition, and the southern committeemen voted for it.

The decision in the Florida case was a Wood victory, in the sense that it keeps six votes for the general on the roll when his candidacy was threatened with the loss of all votes from the State.

Out of a mass of legal technicalities, the committee decided that in a strict legal sense neither the delegates-at-large of the so-called Gerow faction, headed by National Committeeman Bean, which are counted in the Wood column, nor the delegates-at-large headed by H. L. Anderson of Jacksonville, which are counted for Senator Johnson, ought to be seated.

JOHNSON LOSES.

It was confronted, however, with practically abolishing the Republican party in Florida if it declined to seat somebody. The contest against the four Gerow district delegates collapsed at the last moment and they were ordered seated.

The result gave National Committeeman Bean six votes out of eight on the State delegation and seemed to forecast his re-election to the national committee.

WHITES WIN.

The North Carolina contest, which was black and white issue, resulted in the seating of the white delegation led by John M. Morehead of Charlotte, N. C., national committeeman. In the contest from the Sixth District of Tennessee one delegate counted in the Wood column was seated. In the Second Oklahoma district, two regularly reported delegates, uninstructed, were seated, and the contest was dismissed. The contest in the Fifth Oklahoma district involved the organization of National Committeeman McGraw. His delegations prevailed and four were seated with a half vote each.

The day's work disposed of thirty votes and still left 75 in contest.

The line-up of delegates in the various columns stood at the close:

Wood, 117; Johnson, 113; Lowden, 66; Harding, 39; Poindexter, 14; Sproul, 76; Sutherland, 16; Pritchard, 23; remaining in contest 75; uninstructed, 445—total 982.

Senator Harding of Ohio who was expected to arrive in Chicago tonight, telegraphed his headquarters here that he was detained in Washington by Senate business. The message said that he hoped to arrive Saturday or Sunday.

ROBERT TAFT FOR HOOVER.

Robert Taft, son of former President William Howard Taft, and a Hoover worker, was among the early arrivals today. Mr. Taft has been paying particular attention to the Ohio situation as it concerns the Hoover movement and reports that he finds all the delegates from that State, with one exception, in a favorable frame of mind toward Hoover after Wood and Harding have ceased to be contenders.

Another arrival was H. H. Motter, State chairman of the party in Kansas. Mr. Motter applauded yesterday's decision of the National Committee to oust all delegates from the Kansas City, Mo., district.

SACRED CONTRACT.

The Republican platform, Chairman Hays of the National Committee declared in a statement today, will be a "sacred contractual obligation between the party and the people."

Full opportunity for hearings before the resolutions committee, Mr. Hays said, will be accorded in all pertinent subjects.

"The platform will deal, of course, with the great fundamentals," said Mr. Hays.

Arrangements to hear representatives of women, labor and agricultural interests already have been made, and Mr. Hays is distributing voluminous information compiled by the Republican committee on platform and policies.

There will be five and possibly six seconding speeches following the placing of the name of Gen. Wood in nomination by Gov. Allen of Kansas, but none of them will last more than five or six minutes, according to the statement of Gen. Wood made at his daily conference with newspaper men today.

"Former Gov. Runyan of New Jersey will deliver a seconding speech," said Gen. Wood. "It is probable that men from Ohio, Colorado, North Dakota and the South will also second Gov. Allen's speech."

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington will arrive on the scene of the convention tomorrow, thus bringing the total number of announced candidates who will be here at that time up to five, Gov. Lowden and Gen. Wood having been in town several days and Senator Johnson and Senator Harding being due to arrive here today.

CALIFORNIANS DELAYED.

TRUCKEE, June 3.—When the convention special with California delegates aboard bound for the Republican National Convention left Truckee at 10:25 this morning it was sixteen hours late. The delay was caused by a fire in the Southern Pacific snowsheds east of Summit.

The convention special will arrive in Chicago after 11 o'clock Saturday night providing there is no further delay, it was said. A monster demonstration had been arranged for Saturday by the Johnson forces as a greeting to the California delegation.

FOR BUTLER BOOM.

NEW YORK, June 3.—John R. Davies, campaign manager for Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination, left late today to take command of Butler headquarters in the convention city. He was accompanied by other members of the Butler committee. Dr. Butler, himself a delegate, will leave tomorrow.

SEATTLE, June 3.—State of Washington Republicans planning to attend the Chicago convention leave here in a special car tomorrow.

JOHNSON TO COMBAT LEAGUE AT CHICAGO.

ARRIVES AND ANNOUNCES HE WILL FIGHT FOR STAND AGAINST COVENANT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3. — Senator Johnson of California marked his arrival on the Republican convention battleground here today with a prompt, emphatic declaration that he would demand an unequivocal plank in the Republican platform against the League of Nations.

Met by several thousand enthusiasts, Senator Johnson announced his intention to center his platfrom fight on the League question. He spoke from the hotel balcony of his headquarters to a large crowd and also defined his position in formal statements to the press.

"My paramount purpose," said Senator Johnson, "is to have the Republican party fearlessly and frankly take its stand on the all important question of the League of Nations and against the present covenant. I want the Republican party in 1920 to be the party for the protection of American independence, just as in 1860 it was the party for the protection and independence of human freedom.

"There is a disposition in some quarters to eliminate from the Republican party just common folks," said he. "This must not be tolerated. The Republican party must not be dehumanized. I deny the right or the power, or the authority of any newspaper of self-constituted leaders to read out of the party those in whom Lincoln's spirit ever abided—the plain people of the land."

Senator Johnson said he had not yet decided whether he would conduct a fight on the League covenant from the convention floor. If the fight becomes acute, he said, or there is a tendency to dodge the issue, he may take the floor. The Senator said he had not decided on any particular declaration and added:

"I want a declaration in the platform that requires neither explanation nor reservation. I want the League question settled as the majority decides it should be settled. I shall insist that the convention take a manly, courageous stand."

REPUBLICAN VOTES ARE INCREASING IN SOUTH.

STRONG ECONOMIC PLANK THIS YEAR WILL WIN MORE SUPPORT, IS CLAIM.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—If the Republican party platform is built upon sound economic and business principles, pledged to reduce the high cost of living, the Southern States, particularly the border commonwealths, will show a strong Republican vote this fall, according to a number of national committeemen and delegates attending the preliminaries to the Republican National Convention.

"It is unwise to say that the Republican party will carry any Southern States this fall, because it won't, to speak plainly," said Congressman C. B. Slemp, Virginia's national committeeman.

"Since the Civil War only one district has changed its politics in Virginia, that being the Ninth, the one I represent. There are only two such Congressional districts in Tennessee, and a similar condition in several other Southern States. However, the wise politicians of the party in the South are working toward strength in the future.

"Republican strength in the South, enough strength to talk about carrying the States, is not so far distant as some people may believe. The intelligent class of white men and negroes, doctors, lawyers, merchants, professional men of all kinds, are gradually coming to the Republican fold.

"Six of our fifteen delegates are instructed for Lowden; Wood has three, and the rest are uninstructed. I believe they will support the Illinois Governor.

"Tennessee and Kentucky are more Republican than they ever were before, while further east the border vote is going to surprise the nation this fall."

Wilson Indorsed in New Mexico.

ROSWELL (N. M.) June 3.—The Wilson administration, the League of Nations and the policies of the Democratic party were indorsed in the keynote address at the State Democratic convention today. The address was delivered by Senator A. A. Jones, temporary chairman of the convention.

WET PLATFORM VERY SLIPPERY.

Edwards, Moist Democrat, Having Hard Traveling.

Both Parties Seem Determined to Shun Subject.

Enforcement of Dry Law Plank Urged by Drys.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

WASHINGTON, June 3. — Gov. Edwards of New Jersey, the wet candidate for the Democratic Presidential nomination, now finds himself between two enemies, and has determined to make a stand at the San Francisco convention with guns loaded in each hand.

With the administration forces determined to make short work of Mr. Bryan's efforts to force a dry enforcement plank in the platform, they must, to be consistent, turn their guns also on Gov. Edwards, who will be on the field blazing away for a plank which will give the American citizen the right to determine whether he should have light wines and beer.

At least that would be the effect of the personal liberty campaign Gov. Edwards is making.

Having read that the President and Cabinet, together with party leaders of administration persuasion, insist that the liquor issue be let entirely alone in the platform, Gov. Edwards has buckled his armor on tighter, and is getting ready to lead the fight for the personal liberty plank and his own nomination in person.

COMING TO BAY CITY.

Gov. Edwards announced through his organization in Washington today that headquarters for his campaign are to be opened in the Palace Hotel at San Francisco early in June, and that he would go to San Francisco soon afterward as one of the big four delegates from New Jersey.

It is the task of the administration leaders to steer a course between Bryan and Edwards on the issue, and the only way they see to do it without landing on dangerous rocks is to keep all mention of the liquor issue out of the party platform.

Mr. Bryan is going to have the help of the prohibition forces at San Francisco, and Mr. Edwards will have an army of wet boosters behind him. Discussing the situation from the prohibition standpoint today Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon League, insisted that both parties should incorporate a dry enforcement plank.

"The wet plank is doomed," said Wheeler. "It is only a question whether any plank will be inserted. Now that prohibition is in the Constitution it would be proper, patriotic and courageous for both parties to indorse it.

COMPLETELY JUSTIFIED.

"Its results as evidenced by hundreds of closed jails and workhouses, and in the increased wealth, health and happiness of the people are a complete justification of the cause.

"To fail to make a strong declaration at least for law enforcement would be a great mistake. Gov. Coolidge proved the popularity and patriotism of that issue in Massachusetts.

"When any new policy of government is being established, there is more or less of unrest and lawlessness, but it will not be long before any recognition of the intoxicating liquor traffic by a national party platform will be as unpopular as an attempt to legalize slavery."

ABANDON BRYAN'S DRY PROPAGANDA PICTURE.

FILM TO DEPICT PROGRESS OF PROHIBITION LANGUISHES FOR LACK OF FUNDS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ST. LOUIS, June 3.—Preparations to film a Bryan prohibition and Democratic propaganda scenario, a picture to cost $159,000, were dropped today at the studio of the National Film Company when it was learned that the amount could not be raised by Edward F. Goltra, Democratic National Committeeman from Missouri.

Everything was ready and waiting word to start, according to officials of the film concern, and this they were expecting from Goltra, who was to finance the picture. With the announcement that $159,000 had been obtained, George R. Dalton, a promoter, got busy on his film idea and several conferences were held to work out the details.

The film was to be called "Throughout the Ages," and was to be a dramatization of the speeches made during the last few years by William J. Bryan. Bryan was to be shown speaking from time to time and his words were to be illustrated in lavish style. Oriental scenes of feasts; quotations from the Bible were to be illustrated, and scenes in France and distant parts of the world were to be shown.

That Bryan gave his consent to appear as the leading character in this scenario was the assertion made tonight here.

FOR KNOX ALUMNI.

A reunion of all Knox College alumni now residing in Los Angeles and Southern California will be held at Sycamore Grove tomorrow. All those attending are urged to bring basket picnic luncheons to be served at 6:30 p.m. Coffee will be served.

CHICAGO, June 3.—[By Associated Press—Night Wire.] The speech of Representative W. A. Rodenberg of Illinois by which the name of Gov. # CALIFORNIA BULL IS SOLD FOR $50,000.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) June 3.—Fifty thousand dollars was paid for a two months old bull, Ilcartra King Sylvia—at the opening of a three-day sale under the auspices of the Minnesota Holstein-Friesian Association here today. The animal was purchased by A. C. Hardy and A. B. Shaw of Roycroft Farms, Ontario, from A. A. Morris and Son, Woodland, Cal.

Eighty cattle were sold for a total of $223,000. Average price paid was $2787.50. The sale will continue tomorrow and Saturday.

SPANISH WAR PENSION BILL IS AGREED UPON.

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The House acceded today to Senate amendments to its bill to give veterans of the Spanish and Philippine wars suffering from disabilities not resulting from service, pensions of from $12 to $30 a month. All veterans of the two wars on reaching the age of 60 would be given the same pensions. The measure goes to the President.

SIX-GUN TOTER AT CONVENTION.

Delegate for Johnson at the Convention is Also Bad-Man Chaser.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Sheriff R. R. Veale of Contra Costa county, California, plans to mix a little pleasure into his visit to this city as a delegate for Hiram Johnson.

His business is to boost Hiram for the Presidency, but this may prove rather dreary and barren of results. He, therefore has an anchor to wind'ard. He proposes to get out into the slums of Chicago, and make a hunt for 'Gene Geary, notorious killer, who has thus far eluded the police. The Sheriff has his six-gun with him, and a reputation.

"Got up early this morning and thought I might scare him out of his hole," said Veale today. "Need my horse, though. Ridin' on street cars don't get a man nowhar.

"Didn't run acrost hide nor hair of him. Trail was too cold. Trackin' ain't as good here as it is in my country. I've gone out and got other men, just as bad as this Geary hombre."

"I allow to be here this week and next week, and I'll keep an eye out for your bad man."

House Passes Repeal of War-time Legislation.

Postal Pay Increase Bill Ready for Senate.

Expected to be Passed Before Adjournment.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—The resolution to end the present session of Congress Saturday, already approved by the House, was adopted in the Senate today after Democratic Senators had given assurance that President Wilson had no present intention of calling an extra session during the summer.

Republican and Democratic leaders joined forces in passing the resolution, but thirteen Republicans and seven Democrats made a vigorous fight for the reassembling after the national political conventions.

On the final roll call the vote was 44 to 24—twenty-four Democrats and twenty Republicans favoring, and nine Democrats and fifteen Republicans against.

Senator Underwood of Alabama, administration leader, said he had been authorized by Secretary Tumulty to say that Mr. Wilson would not call Congress back into session unless a grave emergency arose.

The amendment was contrary to the expectations of many Republican Senators.

Pleading with their party leaders for a recess instead of an adjournment, the twenty insurgent Republicans and Democrats declared Congress had no moral right to desert its posts for the fascinations of summer resorts or the lure of politics. The curbing of profiteers, legislation for a merchant marine, levy of new tax schedules and appropriation of funds to carry on river and harbor improvements were among the unfinished tasks for which special pleas were made.

AMENDMENTS DEFEATED.

An amendment by Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, providing that Congress should reassemble on July 12, was voted down, 47 to 20, and one by Senator Trameli, Democrat, Florida, to reconvene on August 3, was lost by the same count.

The leaders announced that sessions of the Senate would be held tonight and tomorrow night. The only appropriation bill likely to fail, they said, was the rivers and harbors budget, on which the conferees are deadlocked.

By a vote of 323 to 3 the House adopted and sent to the Senate a resolution repealing all war-time laws except the Lever Food Control Act and the Trading with the Enemy Act.

Though supporting the resolution Democrats protested against continuing in force the Lever Act and expressed doubt that the repeal bill as drafted covered all war legislation, particularly the Espionage Act.

Representative Walsh, Republican, of Massachusetts, in charge of the repeal resolution replying to the expressed doubts of the Democrats, said that all war laws, excepting the two specifically mentioned by the resolution and the Liberty and Victory Loan acts, would be repealed by the measure. Continuance of the Lever Act, Walsh declared, was necessary so that the government would have a law to punish profiteering.

Representative Igoe, Democrat, of Missouri, charged that the Republicans wished to continue the Lever Act because it is favored by certain interests as effective antistrike legislation.

COMPLAINS OF SCOPE.

Representatives Flood, Virginia; Connally, Texas, and Gard, Ohio, all Democrats, also complained of the limited scope of the repeal. Connally also said the Democrats were willing to over-ride the President if he vetoed the repeal, but he was confident that the resolution would be approved as soon as adopted by the Senate.

The only negative votes were cast by Representatives Garrett and Sims of Tennessee and Welling of Utah, all Democrats.

Approximately sixty laws, most of them conferring broad discretionary authority on the President as long as the technical state of war continues, would be removed from the statute books by the resolution.

Senate action on the resolution is expected before the adjournment of Congress Saturday. House Democrats predicted that President Wilson would approve the measure. Representative Connally asserting that the President was first to suggest the nullification of the war acts.

After less than a hour's consideration the Senate tonight passed without a record vote the bill providing increased pay for postal employees. Similar action was taken by the House earlier in the day and the measure goes to conference.

The bill would become effective July 1, and would add approximately $33,000,000 to the postal pay roll the first year. It now goes to the Senate where favorable action is expected before adjournment Saturday.

COLOMBIAN TREATY.

Recommendations that the long pending treaty with Colombia, growing out of the partitioning of Panama, be reported back to the Senate for final action were made to the Foreign Relations Committee today by the subcommittee appointed to draft an amendment designed to protect American oil and mining interests from operation of the Presidential decree, regarded by some Senators as confiscatory.

The subcommittee of which Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, is chairman, said an amendment was unnecessary because the Supreme Court of Colombia had declared invalid not only the Presidential decree, but legislation along similar lines, which had been presented to the Colombian Congress. It called attention that this decree was similar to that issued in Mexico, against which the United States has protested, but expressed full confidence that the people and government of Colombia were sincere in their expressions of desire to protect American rights and interests within the republic.

The subcommittee's report was approved by the full committee late today and the treaty will be placed on the Senate calendar probably tomorrow. Senators said there was little probability of it being acted upon until the next session of the Senate, which begins in December.

RECORDS OF DEPARTMENT.

The subcommittee, in its report today, said the records of the State Department did not show that Colombia had given its approval.

The committee added that the Colombian Minister in Washington had undertaken to obtain from his government assurance that treaty as now drafted would be accepted.

Before the Colombian Supreme Court had passed on the Presidential decree, the subcommittee reported drafted an amendment, the chief of which was communicated to the Colombian government through Minister Philip at Bogota. Commenting on this, the subcommittee said:

"Unfortunately it would appear that instead of this matter being left to the Colombian Minister (in Washington) to take up with his own government, Minister Philip, upon being advised of such suggestion himself communicated the same to the Colombian government, and at the same time notified the State Department that by the action of the Senate and the action of the Department in pursuing its course of operation with the Senate and its actions in discussing the matter with the Colombian Minister in this country, his position was rendered to some extent untenable, as he suggested the tender of his resignation."

DISCUSSED WITH MINISTER.

The report explained that a representative of the subcommittee had discussed the matter with the Colombian Minister in the presence of a representative of the State Department and added:

"Of course this action of Minister Philip and the impression which it seemed to entertain in the entire matter, in the judgment of the subcommittee, would have rendered practically futile further negotiations with Colombia along the suggested lines if conducted through Mr. Philip."

At the State Department it was stated that nothing was known of the offer of Philip to tender his resignation. He still is the American Minister at Bogota.

The Senate resolution directing to grant President Wilson's request for authority to accept a mandate over Armenia, was ordered reported by the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Chairman Porter said he did not expect House action until tomorrow.

The merchant marine bill was ordered back to conference today by the House, Speaker Gillett ruling that the conferees had exceeded their authority in making certain changes in the measure.

Five thousand clerical employees of the War Department will be dropped out by July 1, because of reductions by Congress in department appropriations. Since May 1, 1500 men and women have been dropped from the force, which now stand, after July 1, at 7000, approximately the number provided for in the current appropriations.

RHODE ISLAND GOVERNOR SAYS SENATORS RUNNING CONVENTION

CHICAGO, June 3.—Gov. Beekman of Rhode Island, one of the first Governors to arrive for the convention, today gave out a statement deploring prominence given in the press to views and desires of United States Senators on convention affairs.

"From reading the papers," said Gov. Beekman, who is a Rhode Island delegate-at-large, "I was not quite sure whether I was going to a Republican convention or a Senatorial caucus.

Members of the House were hardly mentioned. I want nothing for myself, but I think members of the House and Governors and others should at least be consulted.

Gov. Beekman said he approved the selection of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts for temporary chairman, but said the permanent chairmanship, platform planks and other affairs seemed, from press reports, to be matters exclusively for settlement by Senators.

"I hope those selected will be by the convention, and not by any autocratic body. I have great hopes that this convention will be run by the convention—not by one man or any body of men," he added.

B. H. Dyas Tells How Saving Built His Success

MY Savings Account started with one dollar from the $5.00 pay envelope I received for my first week as delivery boy for Hoegee Company, where I began work at fourteen. Gail B. Johnson, then Vice-President of the German-American Bank, Second and Main Sts., opened the account himself.

Today I cherish that old bank book as one of my prized possessions, because the first deposit recorded there marked the beginning of my success. I have never let a pay day go by without depositing a definite part of my earnings. No matter how little I was making, my Savings Account got its share of every pay envelope before any of the money was spent. Even now I adhere strictly to this principle of saving a certain part of all my earnings.

Saving my first thousand dollars was hard work, but it brought big results. My Savings Account established my credit when I went into business for myself on my twenty-first birthday. With that as collateral I bought my first stock of goods.

B. H. DYAS, President of the B. H. Dyas Company and Ville de Paris, is one of Los Angeles' most successful young business men. Mr. Dyas' story of success is a story of regular saving. It shows how a steadily growing bank balance frequently enables a man to get credit needed to take advantage of opportunity.

SOCIAL EVENTS FOR DELEGATES.

Many Theater and Yachting Parties at Chicago.

Republican Visitors to be Entertained Lavishly.

Every Candidate Touted as a Model Husband.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3. — Chicago hostesses are making elaborate plans to outdo all former efforts to make the visits of delegates and convention visitors pleasant.

An unusual number of entertainments have been arranged, including auto parties through the parks and along the beautiful residence roads; several dinner and dancing parties at the Casino and on the municipal pier, yachting parties and theater parties.

Several luncheons have also been arranged at the Saddle and Cycle Club, and at other outlying clubhouses. Most of these affairs are nonpartisan, and the guests will include Democrats and Republicans from all camps.

Women who will take an active part in the convention at San Francisco are here gathering pointers from the Republican meeting. It may be said confidentially that they are being surreptitiously supplied with ammunition by some of the Republicans, who are anxious that "a pleasant time shall be had by all" at the meeting on the Coast.

It is the same song at all the headquarters, and this is the way one is greeted by the women boosters: "He's perfectly lovely. As a political husband he is a jewel."

All one has to do is to insert the name of Wood or Lowden or Johnson or Harding. The same recommendation goes for all of them.

WOMEN LOBBYISTS.

The women are to have a lobbying committee, members of which will be chosen for their logic and ability to present it. They will be on duty Sunday and on through the days of the convention at the hotels. They will use their vocal blandishments upon delegates and try to swing them to their particular candidate. Perfectly gowned, perfectly poised, armed with a glad smile and a convincing line of talk, they present a formidable element to be considered.

What the soldiers think of Gen. Wood will be told Thursday next by Georgene Faulkner, the "story lady," and later called the aunty of the A.E.F., who will appear at a luncheon given in the Stratford for the women of the Wood campaign forces.

Mrs. Helen D. Roseblom of Clarksdale, Miss., is so far the only woman who has arrived from Mississippi to attend the convention. She is a strong backer of Gov. Lowden and is working energetically in his behalf. "Officially Mississippi is Democratic," she said, "but at heart the State is Republican.

"We want Lowden for President. His record as Governor of Illinois has aroused our admiration, and we believe in him completely."

Mrs. George Bass, leader of Democratic women, left yesterday for California, accompanied by a few trusty lieutenants. Mrs. Howard T. Willson left today for the San Francisco convention.

Dr. Ida Joe Brooks has been nominated by the Republicans of Arkansas for State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the first woman ever named in that State for a State office.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS.

Negro Preacher from Mississippi is only Delegate Wearing Silk Hat—Nine-year-old Boy to Conduct Band. Oklahoma Sideburns.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—The only silk lid showing so far among convention visitors is worn by the Rev. A. J. Brown, colored delegate, who comes from Vicksburg, Miss., and is pastor of the Missionary Baptist Church there.

Rev. Mr. Brown says Roosevelt would not have bolted the convention in 1912 had the delegates taken his advice, which was for southern delegates to vote for Roosevelt instead of Taft.

John Hand III, 9 years of age, will direct the band at the opening of the convention, using a baton presented to his father by Theodore Roosevelt, and made from rare wood the colonel brought from South America. The number to be directed by the boy is "The Republican," a march composed by his father, Armin Hand.

On the strength of the news that Gov. Lowden is laid by the heels with a severe cold the Wood headquarters gave out the information that the general had gained fourteen pounds since he began his intensive campaigning work, the information being that if he is chosen there will be no sick man in the White House.

Six convention visitors from the Philippine Islands arrived today under the guidance of Col. M. B. McCoy.

Just as Hiram W. was leading his roaring hosts through the streets today word came that the big delegation of his California boosters would be delayed fourteen hours because of a railroad tie-up near Sacramento.

Hoover headquarters have been chased from the second floor of the Congress Hotel, but now have the entire ninth floor of the Auditorium.

"Iowa is 100 per cent Lowden," and he will get the twenty-six votes all the way, according to Harry C. Weaver, chairman of the delegation

McAlester, Okla., sent the most interesting exhibit of hirsute regalia. J. A. Whitcomb, a delegate, who say Gen. Wood will be the next President. Mr. Whitcomb wears sideburns, a goatee and a neck fringe. No man should be a razor slave, he says.

"I'm wearing out my old clothes," reads a placard, posted conspicuously on the person of W. H. Bounds, delegate from Collins, Miss. Mr. Bounds's costume today consisted of a black felt fedora, a Palm Beach sack coat of creamy hue, and threeply woolen trousers.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Women attending the Republican National Convention are asked by Mrs. Raymond Robins to wear plain small hats and to take them off as soon as they are seated in the convention hall.

Mrs. Robins is the wife of the chairman of the last Progressive party convention and a prominent worker for the betterment of women's industrial conditions.

W. M. Bounds, a delegate to the Republican National Convention from Collins, Miss., appeared today adorned with a placard announcing: "I am wearing out my old clothes."

AMPLIFY SOUND AT CONVENTION.

Long-Distance Oratory Possible Through Use of Electric Devices.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Electrical sound amplifying devices, which will enable speakers at the Republican convention here next week and at the Democratic convention in San Francisco later in the month, to be heard in every part of the halls, will be installed, it was announced here tonight.

A huge transmitter will be placed above the speakers' platform, and wires will run to all parts of the hall, connecting with small receivers, which in reality will act as transmitters, and will carry the speaker's voice all over the building.

All mechanical apparatus will be covered with flags and will appear to be part of the decorations, according to the plans.

A similar device was used by the navy during the war to improve communications between different parts of large ships.

PRESIDENT BARROWS OF U. OF C. REVEALS HAPPENING AT TERM'S END.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

BERKELEY, June 3.—Characterizing as "scandalous behavior" a fraternity house party, President David P. Barrows of the University of California today issued a statement in which he asserted the unwillingness of the university to readmit the persons involved.

The name of the fraternity house and the names of the students implicated in the affair were not given. The official statement says:

"On one of the last nights of the term, scandalous behavior occurred at one of the fraternity houses which had been closed for the summer.

"Two members of the fraternity were particularly offensive. President Barrows thoroughly investigated the matter. The parents of the students involved were notified of the fact, and of the unwillingness of the university to readmit the persons involved.

"The future of the house is being made the subject of consultation with the national fraternity."

ARIZONA GOVERNOR IS OFF FOR CONVENTION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, June 3.—Gov. Campbell left this afternoon for Chicago, where the Governor will join in preconvention sessions of the committee on platform, of which he is a member. He is interested especially in a plank favoring national construction of reclamation works.

This he would especially apply to the damming of the Colorado River for irrigation and power needs, in this being backed by the League of the Southwest, of which he is president.

CAMPAIGN FUND QUIZ MAY GROW

Senator Pomerene Would Extend Its Boundaries.

Wants General Election Expenses Checked Up.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, June 3.—Senate committee investigation of pre-convention Presidential campaign activities had approached a new phase, if not a virtual conclusion tonight, future developments being in doubt, pending action in the Senate on Senator Pomarene's proposal to change radically the scope and purpose of the inquiry and carry it beyond the November election.

Action on the resolution, which would bring Congressional as well as Presidential campaigns within the committee's jurisdiction, was delayed at the request of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader. It will come up tomorrow, and the committee, pending any alteration of its charter powers, began winding up the hearing of witnesses already summoned.

The sessions were considerably interrupted by Senate votes on adjournment, which drew members to the floor. Three witnesses were heard, two throwing additional light on the financing of Gen. Leonard Wood's campaign for the Republican nomination, while the third brought additional information as to the activities for Senator Harding and Gov. Lowden in Missouri.

From C. H. Duell of New York formerly connected with the Wood financial arrangements, the committee got the statement that Gen. Wood was present at a discussion at the home of Ambrose E. Monell, in New York last fall where ways and means of financing his campaign were discussed.

A formal meeting attended by Duell, Monell and Robert Cassatt of Philadelphia had been called, the witness said. At this meeting Monell proposed that a certain number of men be asked to "underwrite" the Wood campaign expenses to the extent of $500,000.

Cassatt finally declined to enter into the arrangement, Duell said, and his recollection was that Gen. Wood came in later, after the meeting. Discussion of the financial side of the campaign had continued, he added, but he could not recall anything that Gen Wood might have said in that connection.

CLAIMS WOOD KNEW.

Questions by Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, drew from the witness a statement that in view of the general nature of the conversation, Gen. Wood could not have failed to know its purport and the amounts being discussed.

W. L. Cole, Republican State chairman in Missouri and delegate-at-large from that State, appearing at his own request, presented a brief explanation of previous testimony which showed that he had received funds from both the Harding and Lowden interests for work in Missouri.

He denied that he had known that the check for $500 given him by E. L. Morse, manager of the Lowden campaign outside of St. Louis, was from Lowden funds, or that it was given him with any understanding it was to be used in the Illinois Governor's behalf. He had regarded the money as a personal contribution from Morse, he said, to aid in the Republican fight to fill a vacancy in the Third Missouri Congress District which Morse had insisted that Cole conduct.

As to $1250, which he said he had received from Harry M. Daugherty, manager for Senator Harding, Cole declared it was given him to use in trying to make the Senator the second choice of the Missouri delegation, and after he had told Daugherty that he believed Missouri was "sewed up" for Lowden.

The other witness was W. B. Burtt of Chicago, who described himself as "assistant and confidential man" for Monell, identified as connected with the International Nickel Company. Burtt brought with him contribution receipts of the Wood national fund, and also "requests for funds" covering disbursements. His testimony, he insisted, could add nothing to matter already furnished to the committee but he left some of the accounts with the committee to study.

STEBBINS IS LOCATED.

A Montreal message from Horace S. Stebbins, eastern treasurer of the Lincoln-Wood League, and vainly sought by subpoenas servers for some days, said he would appear tomorrow. Warren Gregory, connected with the Hoover campaign in California, telegraphed from Boston that he also was on his way. Stebbins said he had just learned that he was wanted as a witness.

The committee planned to call no other witnesses, but to hear those already summoned. Included among these was a Mr. Greenbaum, asked to bring books connected with the financing of Senator Johnson's campaign in California, but it was not known tonight whether he also planned to appear tomorrow when adjournment or at least a recess of the hearings over the convention period probably will be taken.

FRESNO, June 3.—Cooks and waiters in all but one or two of the larger restaurants and cafes here went out on strike at 5 o'clock this afternoon, following failure to settle demands made on the employers for increased wages and changed conditions. The places affected closed and locked their doors, making no attempt to put on nonunion help.

Restaurant owners, through Frank Mayo, president, said the union had refused to arbitrate the demands.

The SOHMER

Those Who Know the Sohmer Best Are Those Who Love It Most—

The old adage, "familiarity breeds contempt," is not applicable to the Sohmer Piano. In New York City, where the Sohmer is manufactured, its popularity is most pronounced. Those who know the most about the Sohmer are its most ardent admirers.

The Sohmer appeals particularly to the most exacting music lovers who are not satisfied with less than the best. Its soft richness of tone and its marvelous action leave nothing to be desired. We are pleased to announce that a shipment of Sohmers has just arrived. Very liberal monthly terms.

"I am not aware that there is great perturbation in France. The mere fact that some French newspapers are trying to foment trouble between two friendly and allied countries whose friendliness is essential in the interest of the world—that is no proof of French perturbation."

This was received with cheers.

TENNESSEE IS IN COMMISSION.

Superdreadnaught, Greatest Fighting Ship, on Waves.

Six-Minute Ceremony Marks Impressive Occasion.

Last Word in Naval Architecture Cost $20,000,000.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—The superdreadnaught Tennessee, biggest and most formidable fighting ship afloat, went into commission at the New York navy yard today in a six minute ceremony in which a ten-word order from the Bureau of Navigation "did the business."

Capt. R. H. Leigh took command with the battleship's crew at salute and a band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner."

Constructed here at a cost of $20,000,000, she represents the last word in battleship architecture. She is 625 feet long, has a beam of ninety-eight feet and a displacement of 32,500 tons.

She is the next thing to a pleasure yacht in the comfort of her appointments for officers and men and is the first battleship to recruit her entire personnel from the State from which it takes its name.

HER SPECIAL FEATURE.

The special feature which distinguishes the Tennessee from all other unites of the United States Navy is the highly organized "fighting brain," inclosed in a steel fort near the top of the forward mast. Here are concentrated devices for observing enemy ships, enabling the crew to quickly ascertain the position of enemy craft. Special devices enable the crew to quickly train the fourteen-inch guns on the enemy before the crew of any other battleship known could even sight the Tennessee. This new device consist of three decks and their fighting complement is twenty-five men.

By special signaling devices, reports from this fighting top can be flashed instantly to all parts of the ship. This "fighting brain" is filled with delicate instruments never before used on a battleship.

ELECTRICAL CONTROL.

Another important feature in the construction of the Tennessee is her electrical control of speed, enabling her to quickly change from her capacity speed of twenty-one knots to an almost imperceptible motion. The Tennessee is believed to have been built with more care for the comfort of her crew than any other battleship in the world. Her size makes possible spacious lockers, baths and recreation quarters. She has a handsomely furnished clubroom and library for enlisted men. She has a printing shop with a linotype machine and presses on which a daily newspaper will be printed. The Tennessee is the first battleship to be equipped with a motion-picture camera. She will not actually be put into service until August 1, when she will sail on a practice cruise to Guantanamo, Cuba. Her present crew of Tennesseans numbers 691.

ASK RULE REVISION FOR WIRE UTILITIES.

PETITION IS FILED WITH STATE COMMISSION BY THE TELEPHONE COMPANIES.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Modification of the rules whereby the State Railroad Commission regulates the wire utilities of the State was asked in a petition filed with the commission here today by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph and sixteen other telephone companies.

The rules which had obtained before the war, were reimposed when the utilities were returned to private ownership. The petition held that because of newly-created conditions and vital changes on old conditions the rules imposed terms and conditions that had a tendency to cripple the utilities.

No specific modifications were suggested, it being indicated that a general revision was necessary.

CENTRAL EUROPE TO RECEIVE AID.

Loans and Substantial Loans by Other Governments.

Austria and Hungary Included in List to be Helped.

America Aiding by Providing Commodity Credits.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

PARIS, June 3.—New and substantial credits for the relief and reconstruction of Central European countries, including Austria and Hungary, have been arranged by the governments of Great Britain, Denmark, Holland, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland, it was announced today by the International Committee for Relief Credits. Although the United States is not officially represented on the committee, it is helping in a large way, it is stated, by providing extensive commodity credits for Central Europe.

France, the committee's statement points out, is ready to ask the Chamber of Deputies for the necessary resources in order that she may participate in the relief plans. The Argentine government, the statement adds, has introduced a bill authorizing an advance of credits amounting to 25,000,000 francs, while the Italian government is contemplating a credit of 100,000,000 lire. Belgium, Canada and Spain have been approached but have not yet sent replies.

The credits will be available for Czecho-Slovakia, Jugo-Slavia, Russia, the Baltic states, Armenia, Georgia, Austria and Hungary. Each country extending credits, it is explained, is free to select the country it desires to benefit by its credits.

The definite amounts of the credits granted, so far as is known, are:

Denmark, 12,000,000 kroner; Norway, 17,000,000 kroner; Sweden, 10,000,000 kroner; Great Britain (1,000,000; ? Holland, 12,500,000 florins, and Switzerland, 15,000,000 Swiss francs.

The committee already has distributed large relief supplies. Austria is now about to receive from the United States 200,000 tons of wheat flour, the shipping of which was paid for from British credit consignments. Austria is also receiving out of the credit consignment of 3000 tons of frozen mutton and 1000 tons of bacon. Switzerland's credits, it is proposed, will provide immediately for Austria 20,000 cases of condensed milk and supplies of cheese and live stock.

Two hundred thousand tons of flour are in the course of delivery from the United States and 25,000 tons to Czecho-Slovakia. Hungary also is getting 15,000 tons from America and Armenia 42,000 tons. In addition the commission is arranging to provide industrial materials which may in turn be utilized for exchange in the world's markets for further raw materials or supplies, thus assisting in re-establishment of the cycle of trade.

WANT EQUALIZATION OF RAILROAD RATES.

FARMERS URGE THAT PASSENGER BUSINESS BEAR PART OF PROPOSED INCREASE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, June 3.—Equalization of the proposed increased freight rates between passenger and freight service was urged at today's session of the Executive Committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation. It was declared that the farmers pay from 60 to 65 per cent of the freight revenue received by the railroads and that the passenger service should bear an equal advance in rates. This opinion was expressed following a report by Attorney Clifford Thorne on the railroad hearing conducted by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A budget of $35,000 was set aside to establish a bureau of economics and statistics, and $1000 was appointed to complete the census of the number of stock and grain cars in the United States.

It was decided that the purpose of the educational department, which was established with the setting aside of a budget of $40,000 for its work, would be to get in closer touch with members of farm bureaus throughout the country, to ask the co-operation and moral support of city people in the campaign to better conditions during the readjustment period and to forestall the present tendency to beat down food prices.

DANIELS TALKS TO MIDSHIPMEN.

Gives Diplomas to Class of 289 at Annapolis.

Urges Casting Off of Slavery to Tradition.

Tells Class to Venture Into Things Untried.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

ANNAPOLIS, June 3.—Upon the spirit and will of its officers to cast off slavery of tradition and venture into the realm of things new and untried, depends the future strength and efficiency of the American Navy, Secretary Daniels told the graduating class of midshipmen at the Naval Academy here today in presenting diplomas to its 289 members.

"To some men tradition is a taskmaster, a hard rule, a beaten path," the Secretary declared. "To others it is a star in the firmament, a light to the pathway; wings on which to mount for clearer vision and wiser action, to win the goal, not by precedent or rule, but by an illumination that is spirit and not deed.

"No two wars were ever won by the same tactics and few by the same weapons. The military leader of the future may navigate his ships by radio and the day may even come when all his fighting craft may be 'airy navies battling in the central blue'."

"The American tradition of boldness and audacity," the speaker continued, "enforced by World War achievement, will save you from the danger of slavish adherence to tradition or precedent in method, while heartening you with the girding realization that the tradition of daring and audacity is bounded by no limits, or possibilities, or miracles."

The Secretary told the young officers they were to be congratulated upon the coming into the navy "in a day when it holds—and holds deservedly—higher place in the confidence of the American people than in any period of its history."

WOULD IMPROVE WAR INSURANCE

Republican Subcommittee on Policies Issues Report.

Would Merge Vocational Training and Insurance.

Criticises Service Rendered to Soldiers; Many Lapse.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—Combination of the work of the Vocational Training Board and the War Risk Insurance Bureau was recommended in a report made public today by a subcommittee on war risk insurance of the Republican National Committee's Advisory Committee on policies and platform. The report has been adopted by the executive committee of the advisory committee and will be submitted to the platform committee of the Republican convention to be held in Chicago.

The subcommittee of which Frederick Frelinghuysen of New Jersey is chairman, reviewed criticisms of the service rendered to soldiers by the War Risk Insurance Bureau and said that the bureau had not been equal to the task of keeping in touch with the soldiers after they were demobilized, with the result that 72 per cent of their insurance lapsed.

The committee recommended that work affecting the former service men should be co-ordinated and the responsibility placed under one active directing head; that former soldiers holding converted policies be permitted to name any beneficiary and use their insurance as collateral; that policies be issued promptly and branch offices established to collect premiums through local postoffices.

The committee reported that over 100,000 men had converted their insurance for over $400,000,000 and that many more must do so, but that no policies have yet been issued although policies were approved over one year ago and this had led to considerable friction.

The committee stated that the weakness in government insurance lay in the fact that insurance could not be successful without active solicitation and the government was in no position to do this.

SOME INSIDE STUFF ON MALE DRESSMAKERS, PRICE OF PIES, AND AFFRONTS TO CARPENTERS.

BY HARRY CARR.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—I met the most famous he-dressmaker in New York at one of the cinema studios today, and being in a confidential mood he slipped me the awful truth.

Parenthetically let me explain about this illustrious modiste. He doesn't make gowns; he composes them. He refuses to see the ordinary rough variety of millionaires at all. He will only personally design gowns for women who specially appeal to his artistic eye. He charges $100 for a consultation.

A young cinema star of my acquaintance, in need of something extra spiffy in the way of glad rags, went to see him the other day, paying the usual hundred for the privilege. She was wearing a mannish sort of walking suit and had a red handkerchief in her pocket.

Before she had a chance to say a word, he gave a shriek of mortal agony; bounded across the room; grabbed the offending red handkerchief out of her pocket, and, holding it between a thumb and forefinger, dropped it out of the window onto the sidewalk below.

"My Gawd," he said. "A red handkerchief."

He didn't say anything more. He just kept murmuring "a red handkerchief."

LONG ON ATMOSPHERE.

I didn't exactly meet the creature. I met his business manager, who confided in me that most of the gowns are really made by a 21-year-old college boy anyhow; and he himself does the business end. The big smoke supplies the temperament.

The modiste's man told me that prices are going up again next fall—higher than a kite. "If you need any clothes," he said, "you had better buy them now."

He explained that the present slump in prices is chiefly due to one big New York dry goods house being rather hard pressed for ready money. This store had to make a turnover, and cut the price of every article in the store 30 per cent. As this cut came in the middle of a long period when the public had been holding back from buying, it brought about a small avalanche of price cutting.

"But," insisted the manager, "the result will be a cleaning out of all the stocks that retailers have on hand. The situation will then be thrown back upon the manufacturers to supply fresh products—and they can't do it. There is an actual shortage both in raw material and manufactured articles, and this shortage will be acutely felt again, just as soon as this flurry of buying is over.

"Next fall I think most dress goods will go back higher than ever, especially if the freight congestion lasts."

He stated also that there has been no particular fall in prices of specially designed high-priced gowns. There has been a shortage of customers, however. Business has been very poor this spring—the poorest in several years for high-priced gowns.

PIES HIT ALTITUDE.

The most tragic feature of the price war has just happened in New York. Pies have gone up to 50 cents per pie. This is the wholesale price. The terrible result is that pies are now cut eight ways. Oh, them good old days when you got a fourth of a pie for a nickel are gone forever. The day of woe and the eight-cut pie is with us along with other afflictions.

The one cheap thing in New York now is the corner vacant lot. Houses were never so expensive and vacant lots were never so cheap as now. Lots are so much a drug on the market that the real estate interests are going to have an old-fashioned California auction of building sites in the exclusive Orienta Point section next week.

Even if one bought vacant lots, what on earth could you do with them? Nothing short of a government bond issue could meet the present price of building. It is not only the excessive cost of labor, but the uncertainty thereof.

WORKMEN INSULTED.

One of the big building corporations in Westchester county, where most of the beautiful country homes are located, threw up its hands and quit last week. The reason for the surrender was curious.

The workmen on the job refused to eat their noonday lunch anywhere but in a magnificent bedroom which was being decorated. They shoved their tool chests at night up against the fresh paint in this room.

Four times the contractor patiently went over the job and had the room repainted. Then he mildly remonstrated. Whereupon every man working on the job threatened to quit, because they said they had been insulted.

APPROVES SALE PLAN OF STATE HIGHWAY BONDS.

GOVERNOR AND STATE COMMITTEE TAKE ACTION FOR $3,000,000 ISSUE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, June 3.—The State deposit board, which consists of the Governor, State Controller and State Treasurer, approved today a plan for sale of $3,000,000 of 4½ per cent highway bonds to a bidder whose name was not disclosed.

As the State Constitution provides highway bonds may not be sold below par the block would have to be purchased at this figure from the State Treasurer by the Board of Control, then sold to the bidder, the difference being made up from Federal funds held for the account of the Highway Commission. The bid today was $195,000 below par for the $3,000,000 block.

Three million dollars would permit the State Highway Commission to proceed with work already under contract, N. D. Darlington, president of the commission said. Darlington explained that the Highway Commission for some time had followed a policy of letting no new contracts unless money was provided by the counties through purchase of bonds. He declared, however, a number of unfinished jobs existed where it would be a costly policy to abandon work entirely.

Name of the bidder and some other details were withheld today pending final closing of the deal.

OIL EXCITEMENT HAS REACHED VENEZUELA.

AMERICAN AND BRITISH COMPETING FOR CONCESSIONS AT CARACAS.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

CARACAS (Venezuela) June 3.—Much interest is being evinced here at present in petroleum concessions in Venezuela. Representatives of the Standard Oil Company, Gulf Refining Company, Sun Oil Company, Sinclair Oil and Refining Company, Maracaibo Fuel Company and the British Controlled Oil Fields, Ltd., Leonard Exploration and Trinidadian companies are now in Caracas. There is an active competition for new concessions and many of these are before Congress for consideration.

The government is seeking to forfeit the concessions of several British companies holding oil concessions on nearly 10,000,000 acres in the States of Zulia and Falcon, for which they are paying the government less than $600 annually. Suit has already been begun in the high Federal court against the Colon Development Company, Ltd., which holds a fifty-year concession on the entire Colon district of the State of Zulia, or about 5,000,000 acres.

The government is seeking annulment of the concession on the ground that but 3000 acres have been occupied in the thirteen years the concession has been in force, with nothing in operation. The government also alleges that the company has not complied with its contract obligation to pay the government 15 cents an acre on lands of the concession. The company is controlled by the Royal Dutch and Shell interests.

WOULD BAN PLEASURE CARS TO SAVE FUEL.

PORTLAND, June 3.—Elimination of pleasure cars from Portland streets and Oregon highways, in order to conserve gasoline, was recommended here today at a meeting of automobile men, road officials and official company heads. Gasoline must be conserved, it was declared, to provide for visitors expected here during the coming Shrine convention.

OLYMPIA, June 3.—Gov. Hart announced today he had arranged with oil companies to give preference to farmers in the distribution of gasoline during the present shortage. The farmers will be able to obtain the fuel for pumps and motors as well as for automobiles.

FEDERAL CHARTER FOR AMERICAN COMPANIES.

CINCINNATI, June 3.—Speaking before the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, Harry A. Wheeler, president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, urged that the government "place itself underneath business in a helpful way, especially in the export field, just as England and other countries have done."

Mr. Wheeler insisted, among other things that American concerns desiring to operate in foreign countries be given charters from the United States government instead of State charters, which he said mean practically nothing to prospective investors abroad.

Bad Complexions Peeled Off at Home

The girl with the poor complexion complains, "I have to touch up my cheeks. I am sallow and a sight, and only my makeup saves me."

Now, as a matter of fact, more women spoil their good looks than improve them with cosmetics. The practice certainly is unnecessary, now that the virtues of ordinary mercolised wax as a beautifier have become known. It has been found that the wax has wonderful absorbent powers. It causes the faded or discolored scarf skin to flake off in minute, almost imperceptible particles, so gently, gradually, as to cause no inconvenience at all. In this way the old complexion is actually removed—likewise all fine lines, freckles, pimples, blotches, moth patches and other surface defects. A new complexion appears—a clear, smooth, youthful, healthy-hued skin such as no rouge, powder or cream can produce. Mercolised wax, to be had at any drug store, in convenient size package, is applied like cold cream and allowed to remain on over night.—[Advertisement.

CONGRESS WILL END SATURDAY.

costing $10,000,000, for use by veterans of the World War, is authorized in a bill reported unanimously by the House Building Committee.

The measure specifies the location of the hospitals in each of the following districts: North Pacific Coast States; Rocky Mountain States, Southern Atlantic Coast States, and Great Lakes.

The House Agricultural Committee voted today to postpone action on legislation regulating the meat packing industry until the next session of Congress. Six committeemen opposed the delay.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The committee voted to make the legislation an order of unfinished business for the next session.

The House adopted the conference report on the army appropriation bill tonight by a vote of 127 to 11. The bill carries $295,000,000.

Prospects of final Senate action on the House tariff bill, affecting magnesite faded with the return of the Senate, by a vote of 45 to 10, to lay aside the unfinished business to take up the measure.

The committee action followed a report from a subcommittee of a bill providing for the Federal Trade Commission to supervise the packers, and other business in which they own any interest, also giving to the Interstate Commerce Commission supervision over stockyards and persons engaged in business within the yards. The subcommittee made no report on the regulation of refrigerator cars, submitting this question to the whole committee.

Under the subcommittee bill, it would be declared unlawful for any packer to engage in any unfair, unjustly discriminatory practice or device in commerce to control or manipulate prices, to create a monopoly or to any act in restraint of trade.

The Federal Trade Commission would be empowered to order packers, after a hearing, to cease any practice prohibited by the bill. Violation of such orders would be punishable in Federal courts by fines and imprisonment.

Representative Anderson, chairman of the subcommittee, said the bill was of such broad scope that its provisions would affect the packing business from the time live stock left the farm until the meat products reached the retailer.

DEFENDS SENATE.

Senator Wolcott, Democrat, Delaware, defended in the Senate tonight what he characterized as a "business agreement," between E. I. Dupont de Nemours & Co. of Wilmington, Del., and the Levinstein Company, Ltd., of Manchester, Eng., both manufacturers of dyestuffs, for the interchange of trade secrets.

The alleged agreement between the two companies was denounced a few weeks ago in the Senate by Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado, who asserted that the two concerns had combined in an illegal way to control the markets of the world in the production of dyestuffs.

Senator Wolcott said the arrangement had been entered into by the Dupont company to give to the American consumer all the advantages secured to the British consumer through the seizure of the German plants.

"The immediate effect of these negotiations," Senator Wolcott said, "was to secure for America the 'know how' so urgently needed in this country. If my view of this contract is correct, it cannot be fairly said that any monopolistic or otherwise improper motive underlies either negotiations or execution."

FARMERS MAY ORGANIZE.

Favorable report was ordered by the Senate Judiciary Committee today on the House bill authorizing producers of agricultural products to form associations for the marketing of their products.

The committee struck out House provisions to give the Secretary of Agriculture authority to institute proceedings against such associations if in his opinion they restrain trade or lessen competition and gave the Federal Trade Commission the same power. As passed by the House, the bill would affect farmers, planters, ranchmen, dairymen or fruit growers.

Senator Capper of Kansas announced tonight that owing to opposition of Secretary Houston, he would make no further effort to call up his resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to deposit $40,000,000 with Federal reserve banks for the purpose of rediscounting loans made on western cattle and other live stock.

Senator Capper said that the Secretary held the measure would be a dangerous precedent and, if enacted, would upset the whole financial program of the government.

MRS. ADAMS CONFIRMED.

The nomination of Mrs. Annette Abbott Adams of San Francisco to be Assistant Attorney-General was confirmed tonight by the Senate and she will be the first woman to hold that office.

Mrs. Adams now is United States Attorney for the Northern California district and will have charge of the enforcement of tax and customs laws, the war risk, pure food, quarantine and Adamson acts, and will have supervisory control over Federal prisons.

A bill providing for reduction of the salary of the President of the United States from $75,000 to $50,000 a year was introduced today by Senator Smith, Democrat, Georgia. Senator Smith also introduced a resolution proposing an amendment to the Constitution which would limit the President to one term of six years.

CHICAGO, June 3.—Dissatisfaction over the increase in pay provided in the bill passed by the House of Representatives was expressed here today by officials of postal employees organizations. The raise, they declared, would amount to but approximately $150 per year.

FILM STAR WEDS RAGTIME'S KING.

Constance Talmadge Secretly Marries Irving Berlin.

Accomplished Songster Does a New One on Wedlock.

Bride One of First Screen Beauties of America.

The king of ragtime has taken unto himself a wife.

Irving Berlin, the originator of syncopated music in America, is now the humble husband of Constance Talmadge, one of the most beautiful of the younger stars on the American screen. For almost a year they have been married and only last night, when guarded rumors of the marriage permeated the film atmosphere here, the secret let out of the bag.

Details of the wedding was received by the Times last night from New York, where Mr. and Mrs. Berlin are now keeping themselves secluded from the curious public.

For months rumors have been flying around the film and music worlds that Mr. Berlin and Miss Talmadge were engaged. Later the betrothal was denied. In New York, however, they have been seen constantly together at the theaters and cafes.

Even within the last few days Mr. Berlin has grasped the opportunity to commercialize his brief excursion in wedlock. He has written a song about married life, entitled "You Don't Want What You Get When You Get It."

It may be assumed that this copyright is his own experience. About six months ago, the engagement of Mr. Berlin and Miss Talmadge was announced in the eastern newspapers. Shortly afterward Miss Talmadge denied it and soon afterward stated that she was engaged to a wealthy tobacco manufacturer, who, according to reports, lavished costly jewels upon her. Then came the denial of the engagement to the swarthy Cuban, and he was never mentioned.

Irving Berlin was born in Russia, his father, Moses Baline, was a cantor in a synagogue. When Mr. Berlin came to America he changed his name from Baline to Berlin and started right in the music world, and was credited with starting the ragtime craze in America and in the world by composing "Alexander's Ragtime Band."

He also composed "Everybody's Doing It" and many other popular songs. He wrote the complete score for a musical comedy, "Watch Your Step," the subject of which, a marriage venture, he promptly disregarded. When war was declared Berlin entered the army and was stationed for months at Camp Upton, Long Island, where he composed one of his most popular war songs, "I Can't Get 'Em Up in the Morning." While in camp he also wrote the score for the soldier play, "Yip Yip Yaphank," played by a complete male company at the Century Theater, New York, in 1918. Berlin is a member of the Friars and Lambs Clubs.

Constance Talmadge.

Constance Talmadge is 20 years of age and was born in Brooklyn. She is a sister of Norma and Natalie Talmadge, both film stars, but despite her youth she is recognized as one of the pioneer film stars. She started her screen career with the Vitagraph company and has since starred for Selznick and the Select Pictures companies.

GETS ONE MORE CHANCE.

Young Girl Put on Probation Despite two Burglary Charges.

In spite of two charges of burglary against Dora Simmons, the girl was given another chance yesterday by Justice Brown. Both charges were taken from the court calendar and the girl was released to the custody of Mrs. Barton, a city probation officer, who said that the girl had already been convicted in Police Court of petty larceny and released to her custody. A representative of the State School at Whittier, where the girl once was held, urged that she be held to the Superior Court, but the court held that more good would come of giving her a chance.

TO AMEND TRAFFIC LAW.

City Attorney Burnell was yesterday instructed by the Council to prepare and present an amendment to the traffic ordinance prohibiting the left-hand turn at Seventh and Los Angeles streets.

WORLD TRADERS DEAL IN SPORT.

Fines Silence Serious Talk, Loose Joy at Banquet.

Two Hundred Guests Aboard Pioneer Cargo Steamer.

Dance Merrily in the Cause of Sea-Borne Commerce.

Commerce was robbed of all its cares and the cause of ocean shipping was boosted along with a joyous boot when the World Traders of Los Angeles met aboard the steamer West Montop at the harbor last night for the first of a series of semiannual banquets. Two or three knowing traders went on board carrying serious and helpful speeches in their hip pockets. But there the manuscripts stayed. Every banqueter who tried to talk was promptly fined. The result was merriment that filled the big ship to the rails and culminated in a frolic that looked suspiciously like dancing on the tables.

About 200 guests, members of the World Traders' organization, their wives and friends, participated in the fun. Marius de Brabant, vice-president of the Los Angeles Pacific Navigation Company, owners of the West Montop, made a graceful address of welcome. George C. Carpenter, president of the World Traders, responded and assumed the duties of chairman. And then fines ranging from $1 to $6 stopped the flow of oratory and opened the flood gates of gayety.

The dinner was served at two long tables on the steamer's main deck. Between was a platform, higher than the tables, where the guests danced.

The West Montop, an 8800-ton freighter, under the command of Capt. Charles Reiner and the flag of the Los Angeles Pacific Navigation Company, recently completed a five-month cruise to Japan, China, the Philippines, the Straits Settlements and the East Indies. She was the first Los Angeles-owned vessel to engage in such an enterprise and carried the city's trade flag into ocean lanes that had never seen it before.

Of her cargo 40 per cent was made-in-Los Angeles goods. During the pioneering trip, offices of the local company were established in half a dozen foreign lands.

The vessel was built here by the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company and her cruise to the Orient was her maiden voyage.

ASKS NEW TERMINAL SITE INVESTIGATION.

MUNICIPAL LEAGUE SEEKING STATE REPORT ON BANK OF RIVER LOCATION.

Acting on the basis of a report from its City Planning and Public Utilities committees, on the question of Los Angeles grade crossing and union passenger terminal problems, the Executive Committee of the Municipal League yesterday sent to the State Railroad Commission a letter asking that the merits and demerits of a projected terminal site at Sixth street and the east bank of the river be investigated. The site received a majority of preferential votes cast by the members of the two league committees.

The report of these committees is concerned specifically with the solution of terminal and crossing problems proposed by Chief Engineer Sachse of the Railroad Commission in a recently published and voluminous report to that body.

The Municipal League investigators, in briefly reviewing Mr. Sachse's conclusions, advocate immediate work to eliminate grade crossings along the river, independent of the other problems Mr. Sachse considered. They also declare that freight handling facilities in the city are inadequate and that "immediate action should be had." No recommendations are made by the committees as to improvement of interurban car service.

Of the joint passenger station plan, the report says: "This is desirable but not essential. The Railroad Commission's engineer's report is limited to certain locations suggested to them at the hearings. A revised and fuller study is needed on this entire problem."

"Other matters that require fuller study," the report lists as: General city planning, harbor development, electrification, subway and elevated railways for local and interurban cars, a comprehensive street plan, the extent and nature of the Terminal Holding Company, total cost, including necessary city planning and incidentals; financing and legal possibilities.

The league's committees therefore recommend that the city arrange for an investigation of these phases of the general problem and that the scope of the Railroad Commission's investigation be extended to include joint railroad operation in the entire Southern California district.

PAY LAST RESPECTS.

Prominent Citizens Attend Funeral of Tool Company Head.

The last rites for Edward Double, president of the Union Tool Company, who died following an operation in the East, were held yesterday in the chapel of Peck & Chase when a number of the most prominent men and women of the city attended the funeral. Burial was held in Rosedale.

Mr. Double's brother, Harry Double, brought the body from the East. Besides the brother, Mr. Double left a widow, Mrs. Alice Double, and a daughter, Miss Helen Double, as well as a father, Hamilton Double of Elsinore.

The active pallbearers were W. L. Stewart, W. A. Doble, W. E. B. Partridge, E. W. Gosser, C. E. Stratton and P. N. Boggs.

THROWS BABIES INTO THE SEA.

Japanese Mother Drowns Children, Tries Suicide After Home Trouble.

Mrs. K. Ito of 974 South Normandie avenue, Los Angeles, last night threw her two children into the sea at Santa Monica and then jumped in after them from the Municipal Pier. The children were drowned, but Mrs. Ito was rescued by two boys and the police and is now at Miss Martin's Sanatorium, Santa Monica. The nurses state that her condition is critical.

The Santa Monica police say they believe that family trouble drove Mrs. Ito to drown her children and seek to end her own life. The dead babies are Tofito Ito, a girl, 3 years of age, and Mafiti Ito, a boy of 5.

When Mrs. Ito found herself in the ocean after her leap from the pier, she screamed. Her cries attracted Joseph Farrier and Robert Kerr, boys of 18, who jumped into the sea and helped to save the woman and also recovered the bodies of the children.

HEARD STRIKER BOAST AS RED.

"DIDN'T GIVE DAMN WHO KNEW," SAYS WITNESS AT TRIAL OF "OUTLAW" CASE.

"I'm a Red, and I don't care a damn who knows it," was the statement imputed yesterday to R. W. Canaga, one of the indicted striking Santa Fe switchmen of Barstow, by James H. Leggett, a witness, in the trial of the so-called "outlaws" before a jury in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court, involving asserted violation of the Lever Act. This was the climax of testimony to connect Canaga, J. A. Crum and Ed Malone with striking activities at Barstow last April.

The testimony at the afternoon session of the court was confined to the Barstow situation and to the formation of the switchmen's association.

During the testimony, Asst. U. S. Atty. Palmer made the statement that the conspiracy culminating in the strike was in existence before the overt acts were committed, after they became history, and was still in existence.

The tactics of the defense appeared early in the morning session when it was sought to be established through the questioning of B. J. Emmons, attorney for the indicted men, that they had merely quit their employment at Bakersfield and Fresno, and that they did not strike. They, the switchmen, it was sought to show, were merely dissatisfied with their pay that had been $5.11 a day for the past three years.

WOULDN'T STAND FOR A FRIEND HUSBAND.

WIFE SAYS SHE REPUDIATED PLATONIC PROPOSITION; HE GETS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Jane Edwards married Charles Edwards and got a friend for a husband, she testified in divorce proceedings in Judge Craft's court yesterday. While they were on their way to San Diego immediately after the ceremony was performed, she said, he suggested they be only companions through life. The idea was repudiated by her and she threatened to return to Los Angeles. He persuaded her to keep on to San Diego.

Mrs. Edwards told the court: "We never lived together as husband and wife and were never really married."

The charge in the complaint, the court told Mrs. Edwards, did not constitute a ground for a divorce, but he said she could amend her complaint and ask for an annulment. She would not do this, and Mr. Edwards was granted a decree on his cross-complaint, on the ground of desertion.

ROBS BABY'S BANK.

Mean Thief Loots Repository of Wealthy Infant.

Police detectives are seeking the mean thief who broke into the home of Mrs. S. Silverman, at 107 South Benton Way, last night and robbed the baby's bank of $20 in silver. He also garnered $100 worth of jewelry while walking about the house munching the contents of a candy box, according to Detective Sergeant Gamash, who investigated.

Less luck was had by thieves who entered the home of G. W. Black, at 815 South Harvard Boulevard, and broke open a small safe. After they had knocked the bottom out of the strong box, they took its contents, two Columbian half-dollars. Nothing else was stolen.

AUDUBON BIRD PAGEANT.

A bird pageant will be given in Hollywood High School auditorium tonight under the auspices of the Audubon Society. It was previously stated that the pageant was written by Miss Anna C. Dowdall. This was an error. The author is Miss Ella S. Tadon. The pageant is given with her permission and will be directed by Miss Dowdall.

MARRIED A MONTH.

Charging that she was deserted Oct. 7, 1918, one month after her marriage, Fern Peggy Dawson asked for separate maintenance from Douglas Dawson, moving-picture director, yesterday. She claims her husband earns $300 a week.

WIFE TO HELP JEWELL FIGHT.

Jointly Plan Prompt Action Against Hargraves.

Latter's Revenge Declared to be Less Serious.

Denied That His Wife Has "Fled" From Home.

In his forthcoming action against Leonard Hargraves, who attempted to permanently mutilate him but, it now appears, fell short of his intention, George Jewell, Chino rancher, will have the support and co-operation of his wife, in spite of the revelations of the past week. Jewell, who is up and about, said yesterday that he will take definite action against Hargraves within three or four days. The nature of the action neither he nor his wife would specify.

That Hargraves's revenge upon Jewell for the latter's intimacy with Mrs. Hargraves was not the complete one he had planned was admitted by both sides yesterday.

At the Pomona home of Hargraves it was indignantly denied that Mrs. Hargraves has "vanished," or that her departure was unknown or unsanctioned by Hargraves and the children. Mrs. Hargraves, her relatives at the ranch said, is in a nearby city, with her eldest daughter, taking a rest from the strain of the past few days. She is in constant touch with her family. She has written them two letters and can be reached by them at any time.

"If Hargraves and his wife think we're through with them, they are mistaken," was the combined statement of Jewell and Mrs. Jewell. The latter, calm and collected, insists that Mrs. Hargraves "must pay" for her share in the unusual drama. She related the details of the other woman's visit to her home last Tuesday, denying that Mrs. Hargraves sought forgiveness.

Should the case take a civil action course, it was learned that the sensational letters Mrs. Jewell says she now has in her possession will be the crux of the case, and will disclose matters so far untouched in the publication of the facts surrounding it.

Friends of Hargraves yesterday expressed their belief that there will be no prosecution and no civil action in the case. Some way of adjusting the matter will be found, they thought, although just what Hargraves's plans for the future will be could not be learned.

"There are two sides to this affair, and the public has not heard all of the other side yet," Mrs. Jewell said yesterday. The Jewells have been receiving considerable mail, most of it containing what they construe as denunciations of Hargraves, and asking Jewell to take some sort of action.

HEART IS NEGLECTED BY MODERN EDUCATOR.

NOTED AUTHORITY DEPLORES IMPROVEMENT OF ONLY HAND AND HEAD.

"Smart Alecks, a slick and sleazy type of citizenship, rather than people who are sensitive to spiritual valuations are too representative of the trend in our modern education. I greatly deplore the tendency toward the overstressing of the so-called utilitarian rather than the development of the true trinity in education, the head, the hand and the heart. Just now we are stressing too much the hand and not giving the heart its proper position in the trinity."

These were the statements of Dr. Richard Burton, of the University of Minnesota, in an address on "Modern Educational Tendencies" before the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences of the University of Southern California yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Burton gave some interesting statistics regarding the present educational crisis and states that 140,000 schoolrooms are vacant. In the matter of faculty and students, Dr. Burton stated that the University of Southern California is one of the unique examples of high standards being maintained despite the universal unrest.

Dr. Rockwell D. Hunt, dean of the graduate school, presided and introduced the speaker, stating that the university has issued 776 high school certificates since the organization of the graduate department.

HONORED BY CORNELL.

Son of Los Angeles Man Made Chief Engineer of Summer Camp.

Although he is only 19 years of age, Francis W. Lake of Los Angeles, son of W. F. Lake of the New Mexico Petroleum Association of this city, has been elected as chief engineer of the Cornell University Summer Camp of Civil Engineers, to be held from the 14th inst., to July 17, at Sheldrake Point, Lake Cayuga, N. Y. This election is made jointly by the faculty and students, and is the highest honor which a sophomore can achieve in the engineering school at Cornell.

Mr. Lake, Jr., will visit Los Angeles for a short time late in July and will then spend the rest of the summer vacation period in charge of the road building in Yellowstone National Park.

GETS WEARY WELCOME.

Says Husband Prevented Sleep to Persuade Her to Leave.

In a suit for separate maintenance filed yesterday by Mrs. Beulah Smith against Herman C. Smith, she states that about the time of their separation last May she went to her home to take up her abode and was compelled to sit up all night by reason of "his efforts to compel her to leave." Mrs. Smith was married Jan. 23, 1915. They have one child. Mr. Smith earns $150 a week, she says. They own a house at 518 North Milton avenue, Whittier.

LEVEE BREAK IS HARMLESS.

Imperial Valley Crops Will Not be Damaged; Repair Foreman Killed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CALEXICO, June 3.—No damage to canals or other structures of the irrigation system or to growing crops or irrigated lands either above or below the Mexican border is anticipated as a result of the flood waters of the Colorado River breaking through the Ockerson levee late yesterday, according to an official statement issued today by the directors of the Imperial irrigation district.

Teh Saiz levee, the second line of defense from flood waters for the Imperial Valley, reported catching the slowly moving flood and throwing it to the south and southwest, whence it finds outlet to the Gulf of California through Volcano Lake, on the Mexican side of the line.

The original break in the Ockerson levee, 300 feet wide, eighteen miles south of the boundary line, was followed by two or three additional breaks today. Employees of the district, about 250 in number, who were marooned by the first break, were rescued. They were employed in laying a railroad track on the levee. A Southern Pacific rock train there was on high ground and not affected by the flood. The train crew was brought across the break today.

The statement issued by the Imperial irrigation district follows:

"Information was received by the board of directors this morning from F. N. Cronholm, river superintendent, that a break had occurred last night in the Ockerson levee on the Colorado River in Mexico, eighteen miles south of the international boundary line.

BRAKE IN FEBRUARY.

"This levee was breached in February of this year, when the Colorado River was discharging 150,000 cubic feet of water a second. This break was repaired by teams and scrapers as soon as the ground was sufficiently dry to permit of work, and operations were being actively carried on to lay a railway track on the levee, and rock-rivet it for greater protection, as the ground there does not stand up well under water pressure.

"The time proved too short, however, to complete this work before the high-water period of June.

"No damage resulted from the break in this levee last February, as the area flooded was unimproved land, and it is not anticipated any damage will result from the present break, either to canals or structures belonging to the district, or to irrigated lands in Mexico. The slowly moving waters flooding through the Ockerson levee are caught up by the Saiz levee and thrown to the south and southwest, whence they find outlet to the Gulf of California through Volcano Lake, which is safely protected by a massive rock-faced levee which prevents flood waters from finding their way northward into the irrigated section of the Imperial Valley.

"The owners of irrigated land in Mexico, under the Saiz levee, are somewhat apprehensive because of the unusual pressure thrown upon that levee, but are taking every precaution to reinforce and protect it.

"If the Saiz levee should fail at any point, it will cause great loss of crops to Mexican land owners, but would not reach nor affect any land in the United States.

"The Colorado River is in flood stage now and probably will remain in flood throughout June, but its rise has been gradual, and the district management believes no unusual difficulties will be encountered in handling the situation."

FOREMAN KILLED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

EL CENTRO, June 3.—The rock foreman at one of the quarries being worked to secure material for strengthened the Ockerson levee was killed last night when a carload of rock designed for use on the levee overturned and buried him and two other men. The foreman's companions were not seriously injured.

Two small additional breaks occurred today in the Ockerson levee which is allowing flood waters of the Colorado River to spread over a large area of uncultivated land. The original 300-foot break occurred at the five-mile post on the levee railroad track. The levee at this point was six feet high and twelve feet wide across the top. It is confidently believed that the flood cannot rise to the 175,000-foot-a-second stage, which it attained last February at the time that the levee was breached.

TO TAKE OLD JOB.

TO PICK PASTOR OF BIG CHURCH.

Many Possible Candidates to Succeed Dr. Locke.

Bishop to Appoint, Following Committee Conference.

First Methodist Charge is Largest in District.

Who is to be the new pastor of the First Methodist Church?

This charge, the largest and most important in the Southern California Methodist Conference, has been left vacant by the appointment at Des Moines of Dr. Charles Edward Locke, for more than twelve years its pastor, as a bishop of the church, and his assignment to the Philippines, whither he will go shortly after his return here from the East.

The appointment of his successor will be made by Bishop Leonard, but, following procedure and custom in the case of large churches, the appointment will be preceded by a conference between the bishop and the local church committee.

Scores of men have already been mentioned as possibilities. Dr. S. T. Westhafer, who is filling the pulpit temporarily, is not a candidate in spite of the fact that he has been urged by members of the congregation to consider the position. Dr. Westhafer says he does not feel physically able to assume the work and responsibility of the pastorate of so large a church.

The First Methodist Church, which has a membership of nearly 3000 and is one of the largest churches in the West, sold its property at Sixth and Hill streets last October and is temporarily quartered in Trinity Auditorium. The church owns a lot at Eighth and Hope streets and proposes to build a new home there. A portion of the amount necessary to build a large edifice is in the treasury and the building fund is growing rapidly. It is regarded as important that the new pastor shall be in thorough accord with the extensive program of expansion.

TO RESUME SERVICE ON MT. WASHINGTON LINE.

Within a few weeks, the cars will again be operating on the Mt. Washington Incline Railway after a shutdown of two years, says a report received yesterday by the Board of Public Utilities from Robert Marsh, representing the owners.

New cables are on the way from the East, Mr. Marsh informs the board, to take the places of those that had to be discarded two years ago when war needs made the matter of replacement out of the question.

OUR MYSTERIOUS SELVES

BY JANE DIXON.

Who should know better of the dwelling place of genius than Paul Bartlett, sculptor

It was Mr. Bartlett who called into being that splendid and inspiring likeness of Lafayette which today occupies a conspicuous position of honor in the very center of the Louvre, Paris, France.

JANE DIXON

The Lafayette statue is one of the finest, if not the finest, examples of equestrian art in existence. It appeals to the very best and highest of the human emotions. No one can gaze upon it and remain entirely unmoved. Crusty materialists have been known to approach its pedestal with the bored or even annoyed air of the heckled tourist. They have remained with lifted hats and hushed voices.

And what more fitting than that an American, a hardy product of the first New England fathers, should create this lasting memorial to that beloved soldier and freeman who fought with an oppressed people the winning battle for liberty?

How did it so happen?

By what strange gyration of Fate did the faraway New England lad claim the laurel art places on the brows of her favorite children?

I asked Mr. Bartlett to explain the wonder of it to me.

We were sitting in the high ceilinged, time-mellowed home of the sculptor, which is far enough on the edge of New York's Washington square district to escape circus Bohemia. It was raining outside, the long, straight downpour of spring. Rain patter offered an agreeable contrast to the coziness of an old-fashioned living-room.

"My father was a stonecutter," said Mr. Bartlett. "He was well along in the thirties when he decided to take up sculpturing. We went to Italy. I was a mere boy. Father had many commissions to execute. He thought he could do them without any trouble. Afterward, when he came to realize the magnitude of his task, he decided he knew little or nothing about sculpture.

"From earliest youth I showed a disposition to model. Animals were my particular joy. Everything and every one around the house had to pose for me—cats, dogs, horses, even chickens.

"At the age of eleven I made a bust of my grandmother. Even today, when my work has become something of a science, I know the bust was good. Poor grandmother, she was very indulgent and patient. She would pose for me when my less long-suffering animals absolutely refused to stay put.

"At 14 I exhibited in the Paris Salon and received honorable mention. Between the years of 19 and 21 I completed a group called 'The Bear Tamer.' It was my first considerable success and is today a part of the collection in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. 'The Bear Tamer' was awarded the medal of honor at the Paris Salon in 1889.

"The answer to this precocious success? Birthright. I was born in sculpture. The lure of it had complete possession of my father. His entire life was polarized with it. My mother reflected this interest. It was as much a part of our home and our life as the air we breathed. There was no escaping it."

"And your student days, what of them?" I asked. Previous encounters with genius had convinced me a gift without careful cultivation is fruitless.

Paul Bartlett smiled. It was a reminiscent smile, tinged, I am glad to say, with happiness.

"At the time I entered the Paris School of Fine Arts I had just attained my fifteenth birthday," was the reply. "I remained a year. When I reached 16 I decided I was a man and it was high time I went out and earned a living for myself. I left the school and sought employment in the various studios of Paris.

"Here, again, native ability stood me in good stead. My knowledge of animals proved valuable. I knew them and I could model them. There was always a sculptor in the contemporaneous crowd who was working out a group in which one or more animals played a part. My ability in this direction soon became known and I was kept busy 'animalising.'

"I formulated a plan whereby I worked half of my time for others and half for myself. This enabled me to earn a living, study the methods of the masters and create along the line of my own ideas. I made it a practice to do for myself the things I was not doing in the studios. This, I decided, would balance my art. In my own quarters I concentrated on figures, leaving the animals for outside endeavor.

"No school could offer the teachings of this hard grind of experience. I learned theory and the practice of theory. I came into contact with new ideas born of inspiration, watched them take form, saw them in their completed splendor. I was a cog in this wheel of creation.

"At one time or another my apprenticeship was carried to the studio of practically every sculptor of note in Paris.

"I met and worked with Master Rodin. He was good enough to take an interest in me, to believe in and encourage me. Never has a man been more fortunate than I in the unraveling of his fate. I could combine work and study under the most inspirational conditions. With birthright as a foundation, accomplishment was inevitable. 'The Bear Tamer' placed my feet firmly on the success route."

Paul Bartlett admits his statue of Lafayette is his own favorite of the works he has done up to the present. He spent eight years creating and completing it.

"A lifetime job in itself," is the way he speaks of this masterpiece.

"The great trouble with the young sculptors of today is they are not willing to give enough time to study, to building," he adds.

"They want to set out on their careers one year and arrive the next. The result is worthless mediocrity.

"Not long ago a young man sought me out at by Bronx studio He had with him a very ordinary piece of work which he offered for my approval. He was quite certain art had singled him out to be a great sculptor. I looked over his offering. 'By the way,' I asked 'how old are you?' 'Only 28,' answered the self-appointed artist. 'You've started at least eighteen years too late,' I advised him. 'Better put this model away and forget it.' Perhaps he accepted my advice, given in all kindness. I hope so for his sake. Otherwise his life is doomed to be one of deep disappointment."

The splendid American sculptor talked of one of the latest of his works, a figure called "Patriotism," executed for the city of Duluth, Minn., as a war memorial. It shows a Roman soldier with the jacket of armor, the flowing toga robe, the steel helmet, and the great sword of Caesar's battlefields. The heroic figure is carved from red granite, which mellows and enriches the lines of it.

One of the best known of Bartlett's works is the pediment at the Capitol, Washington. The central subject is "Peace Protecting Genius." On the other side is Industry—workman, the mill hand, the factory worker.

A group showing a Pilgrim mother with her child in her lap has just been completed for Provincetown, Mass., seat of one of America's most pretentious art colonies. And it will be Paul Bartlett, of New England, who will have much to say concerning the memorial New York City is to erect in honor of its brave in the World War, for it is this same eminent product of Pilgrimage who has been selected chairman of the Mayor's Committee on Art.

"Like life itself, genius cannot be produced in any laboratory of man," declares Sculptor Bartlett; "but once born, it can be brought to perfect fruition there."

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Question: To settle an argument will you please state where the deficit for the entire period of government operation of the railroads was as large as the estimated deficit for the first year of the return to private control? L. E. E.

Answer: Operations of all departments of the Railroad Administration during its control of the railroads were carried on at a net loss of $900,475,756.56, according to the report of the director of finance. The estimated deficit for the first year of private control as submitted to the Interstate Commerce Commission by the railway executives, is $1,017,776,995, not including provision for wage increases that may be made by the Railroad Labor Board.

Q.: What annuities are fixed in the new pension law for the retirement of superannuated government employees? G. I. T.

A.: The pensions provided range from a minimum of $180 annually to a maximum of $720.

Q.: What is the real name for June bugs? M. K.

A.: June bugs are more properly termed May-beetles. They belong to the genus Lachnosterne, of which there are more than sixty species.

Q.: Will X-rays penetrate steel? P. L. R.

A.: It has been found possible to penetrate three inches of steel, six inches of alloy and twelve inches of wood by X-rays. Lead is an effective resistant, and one-eighth of an inch of lead will furnish complete protection for an X-ray operator.

Q.: Why do strawberries require a rich soil? N. F.

A.: They require a rich soil chiefly because owing to the very short time between blossom and the ripe fruit, the plant-food must be immediately available.

Q.: Who said "to educate a woman and to give a monkey a sharp knife, is the same thing?" K. H. F.

A.: The quotation is from the Law of Manu, the Moses of India.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Agrees With Us.

ENSENADA (Lower California, Mex.) May 28.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial in this morning's Times entitled "An Illtimed Suggestion," which deals directly with a recent issue of the San Diego Sun, urging that the United States and the new government of Mexico should confer at once on a plan which would result in the purchase of Lower California (my native land) from Mexico, is the best thing I have read in your daily for many months, in speaking or dealing in my country's affairs.

The interpretation which you make of the Mexican people's feelings or sentiments when such a question is put up to them, as the San Diego Sun has done, is a true and genuine one. You have drawn a most conclusive sentence when you say that "Anyone, who suggests a peaceful purchase of the peninsula of Lower California is woefully ignorant of the psychology of the Mexican people."

You are also not deceived when you opine that "The soil of Mexico is just as dear to a Mexican as that of the United States to a genuine American and that the Mexicans of Lower California resent such proposals of purchase, and as deeply as the citizens of California would resent the suggestion that this State be sold to some other country."

Such class of publications tends only, as you rightly suggest, to make the Mexican people suspect that the Americans are actuated only by mercenary motives, and that you are not at all interested in establishing a better relationship and understanding between this country and Mexico, but that your offers of help have such a string attached.

DAVID ZARATE.

Cites History.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I would respectfully call Mr. Patrick Sherman's attention to the following, taken from "Mussey's American History." Page 436.

Moreover a large number of the seceding States remained loyal to the Union, especially the mountain districts of West Virginia and North Carolina and parts of Eastern Tennessee. Forty-eight counties in West Virginia broke away from the State and formed a loyal government, which was recognized by President Lincoln, and later recruited into the Union (1863) as the State of West Virginia.

This would seem to push a spraz into Mr. Sherman's argument about America, and a complete vote in Ireland. There are lots of fine Irish lasses in the north part of Ireland who would be insulted if you called them Colleens. LADDIE.

Enlist the Loafer.

LOS ANGELES, May 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I am a sojourner in your beautiful city, having come here from beyond the Mississippi and am now resting on my oars. I have just read John McGrotary's inspiring article in the Sunday Times Magazine and my optimism is at flood tide. I have also been reading Secretary Meredith's statement concerning the food outlook for 1920. The present condition of the situation ought to arrest the attention of every citizen. Meredith denounces, and justly the civil slacker who lives off other people's labor and enjoys the fat of the land without returning the slightest service to society. He also excoriates the fagn [illegible] changes his healthful work to open for a job in a city factory says that unless business men and retired farmers, now in the cities, respond to the appeal the farmers for harvesting will be a shortage of food, with unavoidable high prices.

LOS ANGELES, May 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I would say that I never saw or heard of more generous and Christian act than was witnessed today. We people owe them a warm hearty thanks, who were ready for the big hearted act.

MURDER ARREST FOLLOWS FIGHT.

Balboa Man Dies After Blow; Assailant on Bond.

Tales of Tragedies Causes Wife's Prostration.

Mother and Sister-in-Law Just Slain in Idaho.

Stricken with grief because of the mysterious murder of her brother, Frank D. Jennings, and his wife, in Idaho a week ago, and subjected to a second shock yesterday when her husband, W. C. Simmons, formerly of this city, was arrested at Balboa on a murder charge, Mrs. W. C. Simmons is prostrated at her home, the Balboa Palisades, and was unable to be here last night to meet the bodies of her slain relatives, upon their arrival from Idaho.

Her husband is at liberty on $10,000 bail which was furnished yesterday by his brother, Oscar A. Simmons, and J. W. Faubian, both of this city. The accused man is manager of the Balboa Hotel and the Palisades Tavern. His arrest is the result of the death on May 8 of Robert B. King of Balboa, a real estate and curio importer.

According to the complaint, Simmons gave King a beating because he refused to make good several "no funds" checks which the restaurateur says he cashed on various occasions. The altercation occurred in the restaurant, April 23. Afterward King went home and remained about town for several days, but while riding to Los Angeles on an interurban car, he lost consciousness three times, and was taken to the Receiving Hospital when the train arrived. Afterward he was removed to his home in Balboa, where he died of convulsions. The murder charge is an outgrowth of the coroner's jury verdict, filed with investigations made by the District Attorney of Orange county.

It is understood that Simmons based his defense upon the fact that several months ago, while riding in Los Angeles on an interurban car, King's head was severely injured when the car collided with a motor truck. King is said to have been in frail health and past middle age when the altercations took places. Oscar Simmons, brother of the accused man, says that so far as he has been able to learn, nothing but a resounding slap passed between the two men, and that King was not knocked down. Mrs. King is said to have made complaint somewhat reluctantly because of friendships existing between herself and Mrs. Simmons. Mrs. King is now residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, in the country near Idaho. The preliminary examination will be held at Santa Ana July 29.

TELLS HER TO CLEAN BROKEN CROCKERY FROM FLOOR; WOMAN IS FREED.

"What are you crying about?" James E. Brookman is said to have asked his wife, Hazel C. Brokman after he struck her with a coat hanger and smashed dishes and broke furniture, she declared in Judge Crail's court yesterday.

"Because I feel so bad," she replied.

He told her, she stated, she had nothing to feel bad about, and he ordered her to clean up the room. She testified he got $400 of her money and bought a taxicab. Then he wanted money to buy tires. His third demand was for $1000 to buy a better taxicab. She gave him the $1000, she said, and he bought a diamond ring with $500 of it, her evidence was. She remonstrated. She finally induced him to give her the ring and the remainder of the money. She was granted a divorce.

Shores with violation of the Mann White Slave Act in having brought Roberta Eason, a 19-year-old girl, to Los Angeles from El Paso, for an immoral purpose. Due to the absence of U. S. Commissioner Long from the city yesterday, Shores will be arraigned this morning.

Shores, a consumptive, was discharged from the army on that account, and can neither read nor write. He says the Eason woman, with others, haunted the camps of the soldiers during the great war, and that they were run out of Camp Jackson, where he was located. The girl says she met Shores while en route from San Antonio to Fort Worth; but they came to Los Angeles together, and stopped at the Rosslyn Hotel, afterward going to the Chandler Hotel, where they were arrested by the city police.

ASKS DAMAGES.

In a suit filed yesterday through Attorneys Fisher and Hatch, Miss Amelia Vialango Enrico complains that J. R. Grey attempted to assault her. She demands $25,000 damages. Mr. Grey, the attorneys say, called at the Enrico house on business and there met Miss Enrico.

PEACE TEMPLE PLANS LAUDED.

Move to Link the Americas Told at Mass Meeting.

Would Make Los Angeles Hub of Western Hemisphere.

"The greatest movement in modern times for the establishment of the harmony of nations" was discussed by Mayor Snyder, Ben McLandon and other speakers last night at a mass meeting in the auditorium of the Bible Institute, held in the interests of the Society of American Republics, that proposes to erect in this city a great Temple of Peace. The society represents an effort to link all the republics of the Western Hemisphere in a league of amity and mutual intercourse and understanding. The temple is to be the general headquarters and the meeting place for great Pan-American conventions.

The Mayor said in part:

"There is only one city in all the world that I consider as sufficiently blessed by Nature to be the permanent home of the Family of the Western Hemisphere, and that city is Los Angeles.

ADVANTAGES HERE.

"In Los Angeles we have the climate, the enthusiasm, and the love of our fellow men requisite for making happy the delegates to this great international shrine.

"Your accomplished and enthusiastic president, Mr. Edgar Temple, has stated that the great international shrine to be located in Los Angeles is to be a pledge of perpetual peace and amity among the peoples of the Western Hemisphere. I believe he is absolutely right; and I believe, also, that if we fail to avail ourselves of the chance to make the Society of American Republics an actual and effective fraternity of nations of the Western Hemisphere, we shall be spurning a great God-given opportunity.

"There is a very practical side, also, to the plan. We need to know each other better in order to exchange ideas and to work together for mutual benefits.

"Who can fail to see the great financial benefits so certain to accrue to us all when we meet in the great Temple of Peace to discuss each other's needs?

"Why, in the impetus to the development of our ports and in the stimulation of our commerce, even if no other aims were included in the formation of the Society of American Republics, the cost of our temple or headquarters would be justified and would return to us in a few years a hundred times the amount of our investment."

OTHERS SPEAK.

Besides the Mayor and Mr. McLandon, the speakers were: R. D. Mitchell, Edgar Lucien Larkin, Rabbi Magnin, Clara Shortridge Foltz, Antonio Orfila and Dr. Glen MacWilliams.

At the close of the meeting the audience adopted a resolution addressed to all the Presidents and Congresses of republics in this hemisphere and urging co-operation in carrying out the plans of the Society of American Repubublics.

According to present plans of the society, the expense of building the temple is to be borne by all the American republics, each contributing in proportion to its size and resources. The estimated cost is $20,000,000. Fort Moore Hill has been tentatively selected as a site.

POWLEY TELLS OF BIG PHONE GROWTH.

CAN'T GET NEEDED MATERIAL, TALK CHIEF SAYS; ASKS PATIENCE OF ALL.

N. R. Powley, commercial superintendent of the Southern California Telephone Company, conferred yesterday afternoon with the Board of Public Utilities relative to complaints received at the City Hall as to service rendered by the company.

"We try to have everyone treated by our organization with the greatest courtesy," said Mr. Powley, "and all complaints of discourteous treatment of subscribers, or the public in general will be thoroughly investigated and steps taken to see that there is no repetition of these acts. But we ask the public to be patient, especially in the matter of putting in new telephones or service changes.

"Like every other corporation, we are up against it for material. We put in 15,000 new telephones last year and the number this year already exceeds 20,000. We could use now enough wire to twice circle the globe, but we cannot get the wire. During the coming year we shall need 750,000,000 feet of copper wire, and we doubt if we are able to get 60,000,000 feet. It is the same with all other material we need. We are doing our best to give good service, but we are face to face with a problem that to solve we need the co-operation of the public."

BARRY IS COMMISSIONER.

David A. Barry was yesterday sworn in as Police Commissioner to succeed R. T. Burge. Should the courts hold that Mayor Snyder, ex-officio member of the Police Commission, is disqualified from sitting at the hearings of the charges against ten suspended patrolmen, then Commissioners Wilson and Barry will hear the cases.

IS GIVEN QUICK SENTENCE.

Declaring that he wanted to plead guilty and be sentenced at once, Frank Mann, a brother of Police Officer William Mann, was sentenced to San Quentin yesterday by Judge Craig. He pleaded guilty to two charges, receiving stolen property valued at $16,200 from the residence of Della McLean, 211 Trolley Way, Venice, and second-degree burglary of the residence of C. W. McKelvey, 918 West Eighth street. On the former charge he was sentenced to from one to ten years in San Quentin and for the latter for from one to five years in the same prison. This will mean that he has to serve at least two years before he can apply for parole.

The property Mann admitted receiving was said to have been stolen by Harold Faulkrod, who will appear in Judge Willis's court on June 10 for trial. Mann admitted that he and Faulkrod went to McKelvey's house, where loot valued at $300 was stolen, but that he waited outside. Mann's brother took care of the suit case containing the loot, but was exonerated of any blame for this act, as it was shown that he had no knowledge of the contents.

FOOTBALL TEAM-MATES WILL BE PALLBEARERS.

Funeral services for Maxwell Redwine, 15 years of age, 1618 Las Palmas avenue, who was crushed by an elevator in the W. P. Story Building last Tuesday, will be conducted at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the chapel of Gates & Crane in Hollywood by Rev. P. A. Easley, rector of St. Stephen's Church. The lad was a student at Hollywood High School and members of the football team on which he played, will be the pallbearers. An inquest will be conducted over the body at 9:30 a.m. at the funeral parlors. In this connection the name of an unidentified boy who was in the elevator at the time of the accident is being sought by Acting Coroner Williams and members of the Redwine family, who seek his presence as a witness.

INCOME TAX NOW DUE.

The second of the quarterly installments of the income tax is due and payable on or before Tuesday, June 15, and Internal Revenue Collector Carter is sending out the official notices. Nonpayment will subject the delinquent to the penalties prescribed by the law.

WIFE TAKES ALL BUT MACHINE.

Hubby Thought He Might as Well Have That; Is Jailed for "Stealing."

Asserting that his wife left him, taking all but the auto, and that he thought he might as well take that, M. Bernard Dooley, a motion-picture actor of Venice, felt it to be hard lines that he should be sent to the County Jail yesterday charged with stealing his mate's machine. He was arrested by Constable Barton on a complaint accusing him of felony. He was taken before Justice Rennie and committed to jail pending a hearing.

FOR ILLINOIS FOLKS.

The semiannual picnic of the former residents of Beardstown, Cass county, Illinois, will be held on the Exposition Park picnic grounds tomorrow.

Girls—Save Your Skin

Suppose a Scientific, Conscientious Specialist Said to You:

"I can absolutely remove those ugly, disfiguring freckles without the slightest risk, or pain, or inconvenience. I can positively make any dry old skin look years younger, and keep it young. I can keep away those first fine lines that become wrinkles. I can tell you how to protect the tenderest skin from sunburn, sea-burn, wind-burn."

Would you ask him his price? YOU WOULD!

If he told you the cost might be as low as 50c, and would in no case be more than a dollar or two, would you take a chance, Miss Freckleface? And you, Mrs. Careless Forty? And you, Young Outdoor Girl? YOU WOULD!

FRECKLE-OFF

is made after the formula of one of the world's most famous specialists. It means what it says—and more. There is nothing else in the world just like it. It is new, but already it has proved its marvelous properties to thousands whose freckles have simply faded away, whose dry old skins have gradually changed to youthful freshness; while other thousands have found new pleasure at the beach, in the mountains, motoring, golfing, fishing, by using FRECKLE-OFF as a sunburn preventive.

THE RENDEZVOUS.

William Jennings Bryan serves notice that he will meet any wet delegate on the floor of the San Francisco convention, but it would seem that Tia Juana is about the only place left to meet a wet delegate and have it amount to anything.

BURNING DAYLIGHT.

The Chicago Council will adopt a daylight saving ordinance, but it will not go into effect until after the Republican convention is over. There is no use trying to save either daylight or moonshine with ten thousand feverish politicians in town.

LEAGUE WORK.

The League of Nations seems to be a success, in spite of Hiram the Discontented. The Japanese and Rumanian tennis champions met in Paris and a lovely time was had by all present. There was some rowquet, but tea was subsequently poured. The world is beginning to look fine.

READ PROFITEERING.

A Federal court holds that a margin of 100 per cent is profiteering in its wildest form and a Utica department store was fined the limit for indulging to that extent. It was a corporation or else the judge would have sent the proprietors to prison. As it is, they were fined $55,000 for selling a $9 skirt for $18. Other skirts will please take notice.

INDUSTRIAL PEACE.

In one of the middle western cities that has hoisted the banner of the open shop and industrial freedom the citizens have engaged in a crusade for better conditions for all workers. As a result the average toiler is getting better wages and finds himself in a more comfortable environment than was possible under union domination. The employers make the co-operation of the worker profitable and they are assisted into a plan of home-owning that advances the whole community. The Chamber of Commerce and Merchants and Manufacturers' Association here should have their commissions of survey in all industries with the idea of schooling and encouraging the employers to furnish the best conditions and pay the highest wages possible. About all the unions can do is to demand more wages and less work. The open shop can supply something even better. It can establish a community of interest and a mutual understanding that means peace and progress.

AN AMERICAN VICTORY.

Finance has its victories as well as war. Standing out among the recent news items is an Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco which records a great success won by an American banker in the Far East. It tells us that Japan has entered the consortium to aid China and that its entry is made upon precisely the same terms as that of America, France and England. This was brought about through the efforts of Thomas W. Lamont of New York, a partner of J. P. Morgan & Co., the firm so often unjustly attacked by Hearst papers and sheets of similar character. Mr. Lamont states that this international group, which means so much to China, has been formed upon the formula proposed by the American government. This is a matter for congratulation, and Mr. Lament should receive praise for doing so much to bring it about. It is an open secret that before he went to the Far East the nations were deadlocked. Japan was suspicious of the other powers. Mr. Lamont was able to remove these suspicions and to achieve success where banking interests of Europe had failed.

HALTING EXPANSION.

When the automobile interests are calling for a stay in California's road-building program. At the present prices of labor and materials the State would not obtain half the mileage calculated by the engineers at the time the highway bonds were voted. Common sense suggests a fresh survey and look around. The roads we have must be kept up. This is even more important than fresh construction and the purse must be measured accordingly. The people of Illinois adopted a $60,000,000 road-building program and under its early expectations some 12,000 miles of highway would have been constructed this year, but the 200 miles of pioneer work last season showed conclusively that the plans could not be carried out on a rising market. On some jobs construction costs would have reached as high as $40,000 a mile. So the entire State program has been suspended for the time being and only emergency work or that which is absolutely essential will be undertaken. High labor costs have created a similar condition in many other States. Probably in all America half a billion dollars' worth of public improvements have been stayed by rising construction costs and a delay of two or three years may be necessary. If there is no lowering of prices in that time the people can take a new view and determine what they must have. This is unfortunate, but wisdom commands it.

The high cost of egg plant is no doubt due to the scarcity of hen teeth in the local market.

And Col. William Jennings Bryan is sitting up nights whetting his snickersee for the Wilson program to back up the peace treaty without reservations.

CHICAGO PROSPECTS.

As the delegates themselves begin to gather at Chicago and the historic wrangling over contested seats is renewed it is becoming apparent that the candidates who featured in the direct-primary campaigns have not the convention strength that has generally been accredited to them. Gen. Wood's primary vote, taken in the aggregate, is greater than that of any opponent. He has also a greater number of pledged primary delegates than any other competitor; but reports from Chicago indicate that he is losing rather than winning votes since the delegates have begun to assemble. Senator Johnson has not picked up any strength in the States where conventions were held and his string of 100 delegates stubbornly refuses to lengthen. Gov. Lowden continues to occupy a strategical rather than a commanding position; and he, too, is suffering from the hoodoo that seems to attach itself to direct primary candidates.

There is a growing impression that the final selection of the convention will be a dark horse; that the unpopularity attaching to all the candidates who participated prominently in the primaries, by reason of the vast amounts of money expended, may cause them to be rejected. As The Times has pointed out, the fault attaches to the primary system rather than to the candidates. The direct primary, by reason of its permitting the selection of delegates on a minority vote, generally results in thwarting the will of the people; and small attention is paid to primary results in the conventions. One has but to look over the records of past conventions to discover that the candidate having the greatest number of direct primary delegates has never received the nomination of either party. Clark led Wilson by more than three to one in the 1912 primaries; but some of the delegates so selected (notably those of Maryland) began to vote for Wilson on the first ballot.

Roosevelt had more primary delegates than Taft in the 1912 Republican convention; but his primary strength did not help him in the States where no primaries were held. Hughes went into the 1916 Republican convention without a single direct-primary delegate pledged to him; but his friends secured his nomination almost without effort. Lowden has been gaining strength through the winning of contested delegations in the South, and some of the correspondents are prophesying that he will lead all the candidates on the first ballot. But Lowden has not developed strength outside the Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes territory.

Wherever the dark horses are discussed four names always figure: Hoover, Coolidge, Knox and Butler. Harding seems to have been temporarily eliminated from the dark-horse brigade. Hoover is the popular choice of the States in which no direct primaries were held. New York correspondents say that he will have a large vote in the delegation from that State in case it becomes apparent that Butler cannot win. Coolidge seems to be the first choice in New England and Hoover second choice. Hoover's weakness is to be found in the fact that the professional politicians are arrayed solidly against him. Taft is not unfriendly to Hoover and his influence may help after a few ballots have been taken.

Just what strength Knox will have is still uncertain. He is not a popular hero, but he is a favorite with the group known as the elder statesmen; and he is assured the seventy-six votes from Pennsylvania if a situation arises in which they would do him any good. Coolidge of Massachusetts is better than a possibility when dark horses are considered. His integrity, character and uncompromising patriotism are virtues which appeal to the American people. The feeling that, if nominated, he would be a sure winner will be as strong in the convention as outside. Butler has been developing strength during the last two weeks. He, too, possesses the attributes of the great Republican Presidents of the past, and the academic charge is the only one raised against him.

If it becomes apparent after two or three ballots that none of the candidates who figured prominently in the direct-primary campaigns can win, the delegates will have plenty of good timber from which to make a selection. It is not impossible that Hughes will figure as a compromise candidate, and there is certain to be sentiment in the convention favoring Taft. Knox is perhaps the most objectionable of the dark-horse candidates we have mentioned, by reason of his anti-League of Nations attitude; but Knox would be preferable to any candidate appearing among the Democratic possibilities. As convention day approaches it is becoming apparent that no candidate with radical tendency or support will cut much of a figure in the actual balloting. When the combinations are made it will be a case of the field against Johnson. The tried, shrewd Republican leaders abominate him and will maneuver in every way to prevent his success.

JOHN BULL ON THE PACIFIC.

America, of course, is highly interested in knowing what policy Great Britain intends to pursue with regard to having a fleet on the Pacific. Will it revive the old naval station at Esquimalt and restore Hongkong to its ancient importance as headquarters of a large fleet? These are matters on which a decision must be publicly announced sooner or later; but at present the British Admiralty seems to be sidestepping. Commander Bellairs, who may be said to have taken the place in the House of Commons of the late Lord Charles Beresford as heckler-in-chief of the government on naval affairs, vainly sought to induce First Lord Long to "cough up" during the discussion on the naval estimates this week. The commander, who has attracted attention by his slashing attack on Viscount Jellicoe for timidity at the battle of Jutland, is strongly in favor of abandoning the policy of concentrating in home waters. Now that the German high seas fleet no longer exists as a menace to Britannia, the commander evidently thinks the British fleet should again spread out over the seven seas. He's strong, at any rate, for more naval representation for John Bull on the western ocean. To put it in his own words, he contends that "England must have an outlook on the Pacific." If it had kept that "outlook" before the war instead of confiding it to Japan, Von Spee might not have achieved that success over Cradock's weak squadron off the coast of Chile which gave victory to Germany in the first sea fight in the Pacific.

PERSONALITY AND THE NATION.

In his recent book on the "Economic Aspects of the Peace Treaty," which has been so widely read and discussed on both sides of the Atlantic, Mr. Keynes bluntly takes the economic side of the situation in his general treatment, practically ignoring the other moral and religious side, which recognizes retribution, self-sacrifice and a higher law as determining influences in the world situation. When a speaker deals with these terms he is, to Mr. Keynes, "theological" and not "intellectual," a preacher of sermons, not a final thinker or statesman proper. This is the verdict in his brilliant pen picture of President Wilson, whom his official duties on the British staff allowed him to see and inspect at close quarters. His analysis reveals a man little susceptible to new, subtle personal influences, and therefore tactless in his solitariness. The President played a lone hand and lost.

In singular contrast to the President's "honest, ingenuous and stiff mind" was the British Premier's trained tactfulness in turning other minds and other wills to suit his purposes. He is credited by Mr. Keynes with several senses not granted to ordinary mortals, by which he seems to fathom the intentions and make-up of the men with whom he has to deal; and the President was, for the most part, as wax in his hands. To quote from another able Englishman, Mr. A. G. Gardiner, in the current Contemporary Review: "While the President was thinking about the moral law and M. Clemenceau was thinking about vengeance, Mr. Lloyd George was thinking about turning events to political account at home. Gifted with an astonishing genius for political sleight-of-hand, innocent of any theory of life or philosophy of affairs, reveling in the sense of power which events had given him with the thoughtless delight of a child with a new engine, he tacked and turned with paralyzing rapidity."

Lloyd George came to the conference tied by pledges made at home to support the French call for vengeance, and "that determined old gentleman (M. Clemenceau) had only to remind him of his pledges at home to make him obedient." M. Clemenceau accordingly won. "He loved France and hated Germany, and that was the beginning and end of his creed. . . . His one purpose was to consummate the victory of the Allies—to use it to smash Germany economically, politically and forever." His devotion to his loved country carried the day; he was first and last a patriot, however narrowly so.

Neither of his other two colleagues had the legitimate interests of his nation properly in the forefront. In his famous fourteen points the President had made an impossible separation between peoples and their government, as if a people were not responsible for its government. Had Germany won out in the war the German people—who did not furnish a single martyr to the cause of peace even among the small minority who were unfavorable to the war—would have made a hero of the Kaiser. When war was declared early in August, 1914, the whole of Germany was in a blaze of enthusiasm, as if the wished-for thing had at last come. For the "people," then, in 1918 to repudiate their government and get off scot-free may please an economist of the type of Mr. Keynes, who forgets that a nation is a moral and religious unit, with national responsibilities.

And the President, in his enthusiasm for a new world order, made blunders at home of the same nature. His misguided intervention in a Congress election, resulting in defeat, and his ignoring of the constitutional claims of the Senate were mistakes in his conception of the term "nation" and the relation of ruler and ruled. So with the British Premier. With his wonderful tactfulness and his genius for compromise Lloyd George had lost the thread of a final policy which would have helped out the President in the difficult diplomatic task, for which he was unfitted, of solving the tangled situation in what may be termed a "superpatriotic" way. The duty of neighborliness is as much incumbent, in the final issue, on the nation as on the individual; if nations can only be made to see it that way. But the selfish-motived economist, who thinks of the nation only as a business combination, subject in the final issue to the laws of demand and supply, gives us the law of the jungle in place of the higher divine law of self-sacrifice.

Our national flag, representing a language that is dear to us, institutions that are dear to us, traditions that are dear to us, is sacred in a way that no economic considerations explain. And so it should be, and in the end will be, with other nations who are struggling for a national unity. But the nation must first develop an ideal personality, with moral qualities found in the "patriot" proper. So far from patriotism being incompatible with international good feeling and co-operation, something that is a hindrance even to such a desirable condition as a real League of Nations, it is the indispensable basis for such a development. For a man or a dreamer to seek to be something more than a good patriot, who thinks first and last of the honor and well-being of his country and flag, is dangerous and may even be vicious. There is an ideal personality in the nation that builds itself on justice, righteousness and brotherliness, if the national flag is properly conceived. The nation is a final psychological unit, involving all the moral and religious implications of the term; and that is why its flag is and ought to be sacred, whatever are its colors.

SILKS AND OVERSEAS.

Silk shirt makers are telling retailers that they can sell their wares abroad at even higher prices than at home and there can be no drop in first-class goods. The average man is not disposed to admit the truth of this assertion, but if it is the truth it is time for Europe to begin paying back the money she borrowed of us. But if the foreigners want to boost our prices and take our silks and satins away from us there is no need for worry. They are not absolutely essential. Even the American farmer can get along without a silk shirt if he has to and our Texas oil kings are learning to wear moleskin sweaters instead of shirts. However, the safety-first policy for the plain American when he is confronted by a rising price is simply to refrain from buying the article. He can get along without it and there is a downward tendency in something that will take its place. Establish a mental deadline for prices and pay no more.

A BOLSHEVIK FEINT.

From time to time during the past few months rumors have been received of Bolshevist threats against Persia. Now come reports that Red troops have landed in that country and have seized ports on the Caspian Sea. Coming so soon after the putting into effect of the Anglo-Persian treaty, this is taken by some observers to mean a distinct blow at the prestige of Great Britain in the Near East. Some even go so far as to say that it indicates an intention on the part of Russia to conquer the ancient kingdom of the Shah or at least regain the equality in spheres of influence which it shared with England before the war. There is not much evidence in sight to support this view. The Bolshevik blow at Persia undoubtedly is meant as a hit at Great Britain, but it by no means indicates an intention to pursue a considerable campaign.

The action of the Bolsheviki may really be taken as an effort to apply a little pressure on Lloyd George. It must not be forgotten that Minister Krassin, Lenine's envoy, is now in London negotiating for the reopening of trade relations with Russia. The soviet government avidently has argued that a little evidence of what it can do to make things unpleasant for the British in Persia may have a beneficial effect on the bargaining. If so, Lenine has added another mistake to his long list. John Bull puts his back up when threatened. It is conceivable that the descent of the Reds on Persia will hurt the Krassin mission rather than advance it. There is a considerable element in Great Britain which shares the view recently expressed by Lord Sydenham that the Allies should not make peace with "assassins and robbers" and who would deplore any decision to open trade with organizations under soviet control. Military excursions of the kind the Bolsheviki are now making in Persia will only serve to strengthen the abhorrence of this British element to any parleying with "the authors of the blackest of crimes."

CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

The Senate investigation of the campaign expenditures on behalf of the Presidential candidates is merely for the purpose of gathering material that may be used for or against a candidate—according to the attitude of the quizzer. A Senator who favors Gen. Wood, for instance, will delve with great particularity into the Lowden finances—and vice versa. Senator Reed made no attempt to find out anything about Herman Straussheimer, the Pennsylvania man who gave $27,000 to the Johnson campaign fund, but he wanted to know the birth, pedigree and business connections of every voter who contributed a nickel to advance the cause of Herbert Hoover, and if he could find a 2.75 trace of English blood in one of them he would exclaim: "Aha!" and look significantly at the press seats. It appeared, however, that outside of Thomas A. Edison and some representative American business men and publishers the subscribers to the Hoover fund were mainly those who were associated with him in war work here and in Europe and knew him best. No one gave any large sum. The Hoover list was really a roll of honor and the Missouri porcupine was unable to make anything else out of it after an hour of questioning.

LONG FLIGHTS.

Two Italian aviators flew the 12,000 miles between Rome and Tokio, arriving at the Japanese capital less than an hour apart. The flying time of each was less than ninety-five hours, or better than 120 miles an hour while in the air. This is said to be the longest aerial journey on record, but the Italians take readily to the air and may grab many records before aerial navigation is thoroughly established. It was Gabriele d'Annunzio who had planned this trip to the capital of the oriental Allies, but he has been too busy around Fiume to get away and these two compatriots flew in his stead. The poet is up in the air most of the time, even when his hind legs reach the ground, but he does not want to get too far from his base of operations.

NOT OVERSTATED.

Our idea of restraint in the use of language, a quality for which all good writers and speakers except possibly Hiram Johnson strive, is illustrated in perhaps its highest state of development by Mrs. Catherine Lynn Jackson's cautious and ultra-conservative assertion that rhubarb cannot be classed with the most valuable of fruits.—[Ohio State Journal.

OUR SUNNY FRIEND

The Sting of It.

In the gloaming of the glooming,
As the sun sinks in the sea,
There's a thought that comes a-zooming
Down the aisles of memory,
There's a voice that comes a-booming
Of the fool I used to be.

If I turn the years back twenty,
How could, fool as I was then,
Have the nerve to talk with women,
Have the nerve to walk with men?
(And the deeds I did a-plenty Lift themselves to shout, "Amen.")

With but fifteen years subtracted,
I still find results the same.
Oh, the way I thought and acted
Brings the rosy blush of shame,
Ten years back, or five years maybe,
Still I played a sorry game.

In the bright days of tomorrow
That with me time will endow,
Still (I'm sure) awaits this sorrow,
I shall ponder, wonder how Any mortal man could have been
Such a fool as I am now.

Billie Hale says sometimes a seeming misfortune turns out to be a real benefit in the most unexpected way, and there was Mrs. Ebenezer Hatton who used to drive around and sell patent medicine and she had a disposition that was pretty fierce, and poor old Eb had always had to drink quite a bit to make his life bearable.

Well, last winter the horse shied at something and she was thrown out on her head and was quite low for a month or so, and then she recovered all but her old disposition, and instead of being a holy terror, she is nice and good to everybody and it seems like a tempering of the wind to the shorn lamb that the philosophers love to tell about that, with booze no longer obtainable, the occasion for it should have been taken out of Eb's life and he who had such a stormy midday should be granted a peaceful sunset.

Ever Feel This Way?

Prof. Dink Beeson says a new boarder has come to his boarding-house and he eats fried potatoes with a knife and noodle soup with a fork and pie with a spoon, and drinks his morning coffee quite audibly from the tipped saucer.

The prof calls this new boarder his safety valve and says since making his acquaintance he finds he can be more lenient with the minor faults of others whom he meets, whether it be the men outside or the boys inside the schoolroom.

He says he can understand what a convenience Moses introduced into the ethical code of the Children of Israel when he gave them the scapegoat.

Clarence Gregg last Sunday asked one of the three girls he admired to become his wife and was accepted.

Clarence did not choose the most beautiful of the three, although he was ever an admirer of beauty.

Neither did he choose the cleverest, although he likewise admired cleverness.

Had fate made Clarence a prosperous plumber, brick mason or carpenter he would have chosen differently, but he was a college professor and chose the one who could housekeep and darn socks most perfectly.

Events That Should Have Happened.

When the father and his two sons returned from a stroll on the afternoon of April 1 he discovered that in the excitement of the day he had come away from the village and left his portmanteau at his broker's.

Being quite fatigued and not quite up to the task of making a second trip, he called the boys to the study and asked which of them would go to Milford and get it for him.

Neither of the boys had been to Milford until that day.

"Perhaps I had better go," said Rollo, "by persistent application at my studies I have learned to read and shall be able to decipher the signboard at the cross roads without difficulty."

"Very well," said the father, "a brisk two-hour walk will take you there and back."

When three hours had elapsed and brought no signs of Rollo the father called Henry to the study.

"I must have the portmanteau," he said, "since your brother has not returned I shall be compelled to send you."

When Henry came to the cross-roads, not being able to read, he was not led astray by the letterins of the signs which some wag had changed about in token of the day as Rollo had been, but walked briskly down the left-hand road, for he saw a brindle cat sitting on a gate-post a few paces down the road and recognized her for the one he had thrown a stone at on his previous visit.

He got the portmanteau and was back at the cross roads as Rollo, travel-stained and weary, hove in sight.

"I see," said Rollo, "that application and industry do not always reap their proper reward."

THREE FALL.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

COMFORTING THOUGHTS.

The wind is tempered to the sheep whose coat of wool is shorn; and there's a balm for those who weep, for those who sigh and mourn. I've never seen so dark a day, so full of grief and care, I couldn't find a little ray of comfort anywhere. Thus, when my aunt came here to spend six months or more with us, I thought my joy must have an end; like Job, I stooped to cuss. Then I recalled the solemn fact that seven aunts are mine; if they all to my wigwam tracked I well might shed the brine. But only one of them had come to linger in my lair, and it were folly to be glum and say that life's a snare. Whatever evil comes along, your passing days to curse, whatever ill, whatever wrong, be sure it might be worse. And if you bear that truth in mind, and paste it in your tile, 'twill ease the sad and painful grind and help you sing and smile.

WALT MASON.

SAVE IN REASON.

We hear folks rave that they would save each farthing and each penny; they will not spend, they will not lend, of waste there won't be any. Of course, it's good to save on food, economy we'll practice; but we don't mean one should be keen to feed on roots and cactus. Let us take care and never wear new hats in sloppy weather, but we must dress, some more, some less—none in the altogether. To save on rent we'll pitch a tent, but do not think it follows that we must creep, when we would sleep, in cavities and hollows. One maid we know just saves for show, her overalls look cunning; she saves on frocks, but for silk socks the merchant is still dunning. It gives us pain, those acts insane, and that's not too strong wording; but do not think we like the gink who just lives to be hoarding. Answer we all the present call to quit our useless spending; let thrifty folks look down on blokes who just keep on offending. Of too dear steak do not partake, instead have beef stew Spanish; never just buy because it's high—and soon high prices vanish. If you're a bloke who likes to smoke, don't order real Havana; yet don't stuff tripe into your pipe, nor peelings of banana. To save expense is just immense, prepare for rainy weather; but do it right and don't be tight—a skinflint altogether. Don't save the price of prunes and rice, while tenderloin you're carving; let limousine drink gasoline—while wife and kids are starving. We say again, perhaps in vain, to save is now in season; but do it wise, don't advertise—yes, do the thing in reason.—[Laguna Life.

This nation is sound fundamentally and the soundness will continue if people will give up their folly, will become diligent, will work as human beings should work during a time of stress and strain and thus bring about a gradual deflation of currency so that prices may steadily recede. The dance of industrial death should cease.

DR. HALE TO BE SPEAKER.

Famous Scientist Selected to Talk at Commencement.

Pasadena Student Soldiers to Go to Training Camp.

Mink Has Feast on Gold Fish; Banquet Cost $300.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

PASADENA, June 3.—The California Institute of Technology announced today that the speaker at its commencement, June 13, would be Dr. George E. Hale, director of the Mt. Wilson Solar Observatory and a trustee of the institute. Dr. Hale's subject is not yet announced, but it will undoubtedly be one of great general interest in connection with the recent developments of the institute along scientific lines, for which development Dr. Hale is very largely responsible.

In accordance with the practice of the last two or three years the commencement exercises proper and the Baccalaureate service will be combined in a single ceremonial to be held on the campus in front of the Gates Chemical Laboratory on Sunday afternoon. The class to be graduated will be the largest in the history of the institute.

LARGE QUOTA TO CAMP.

Pasadena High School's junior R.O.T.C. regiment will have the honor of sending three times as large a quota to the War Department's summer training camp for officers than last year, announced Col. P. A. Murphy, U.S.A., commandant of the local R.O.T.C., today. The Pasadena school will send forty cadets instead of twelve, as last year.

It became known at the same time that the War Department will give the special training to the student corps at Camp Kearny, near San Diego, this summer, instead of at the Presidio of San Francisco. The training camp will open June 17, but the Pasadena cadets have secured leave to report on June 21, as school does not close here until June 17.

HAS TAUGHT 32 YEARS.

Miss M. Ida Williams of the English department of Pasadena High school will next week tender her resignation and retire from active service on a pension, after thirty-two years of continuous school teaching. Under the Teachers' Pension Act she will receive a pension of $500 a year as long as she lives.

RATS $150 WORTH OF GOLDFISH

A vagrant mink, supposed to have escaped from a Los Angeles zoo, invaded one of the exclusive estates in South Grand avenue today and ate up $300 worth of imported goldfish which were swimming in the garden pool. After the $300 banquet the mink escaped, barely eluding capture, however, from a gardener who appeared on the scene at the close of the feast.

CRAVED ART OBJECTS.

When John Smith, a negro, was arrested by the Pasadena police today on a charge of grand larceny his home was searched and found to be furnished with priceless rugs, furniture and objects of art from all over the world. The place looked like a wealthy connoisseur's home.

The police say that Smith stole all these handsome furnishings and rare art from local art stores and private homes. One of the stolen objects recovered by the search was the "Sacred Dog of Nikko," an imported porcelain object from Japan which disappeared one night from its long sentinel duty in front of an exclusive local art and curio shop.

REWED TO GET WEDDING RING.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, June 3.—Unconsoled by the replacing of her lost wedding ring with a new one, Mrs. Nancy Lee Farrar, for two years last the bride of Walton T. Farrar of this city, refused to wear the golden circlet until another marriage ceremony should have been performed. Accordingly, the obliging husband accompanied Mrs. Farrar to the office of the County Clerk and applied for a marriage license.

"Divorced?" inquired Deputy Clerk Reimer, observing that both had the same name.

"No, married," replied Mr. Farrar.

"Then you don't require our services," responded the puzzled official.

But the reluctant license clerk was finally convinced that no harm would come from indulging the whims of the wife, who cherished so sacredly the golden band received at the first ceremony, and Rev. George Laughton, pastor of the First Congregational Church, obligingly, for the second time, performed the marriage ceremony.

QUICK ALARM STOPS SPREAD OF FLAMES.

AIR PATROL PROVES USEFULNESS IN PREVENTING FOREST FIRE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 3.—The first forest fire to be discovered by the forestry air patrol in Santa Barbara county was reported by wireless from an airplane at 11:45 this morning to the wireless station in Goleta.

The fire was spreading over the mountains above Gibraltar dam on the head waters of Santa Ynez River and threatening the watershed from which this city draws its domestic water supply.

While flying high over the forest of Ventura the aviator discovered smoke ascending in this county. Investigating, he found the mountain brush in flames. He wirelessed here. The rangers within the district were notified from the forestry office and in this way received their first news of the fire. Because of the dispatch with which the fire was discovered and reported the rangers were able to get on the scene early and confine the flames to an area of less than an acre.

STEEL FREIGHTER READY FOR CUBAN OWNERS—OTHER NEWS NOTES.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

LONG BEACH, June 3.—Built in a local yard for an Atlantic Coast concern, the steel freighter Domingo Nazabal, just completed at the plant of the Long Beach Shipbuilding Company for the Nazabal Sugar Company of Cuba, will leave San Francisco next week with a cargo of rice for Havana.

The Domingo Nazabal had her trial trip yesterday and today was pronounced ready and fit for her initial long sea voyage through the Panama Canal to the Atlantic Coast. The vessel will leave for the north this week to take on her cargo.

The ship will be placed in the sugar trade at Havana.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

Ralph Powell, former sergeant of the Long Beach police force, convicted March 15 on a charge of bribery, was today admitted to $7500 bail after spending three months in the County Jail. Powell is awaiting a decision of the State Court of Appeals as to whether or not he will be allowed a new trial. He was sentenced to from one to fourteen years following his conviction.

FLEES FROM BANDIT.

Nicholas Juran, 30 years old, is in the Seaside Hospital this afternoon with a broken ankle and fractured bones in the right knee. He was injured while escaping from a masked bandit who had attempted a hold-up. Instead of obeying the command to hold up his hands Juran forthwith held up his feet and used them to good advantage for all of a block. Turning to see how closely he was pursued by the highwayman, the sprinting pedestrian twisted his ankle and fell, fracturing his knee as well as his ankle. He was not too badly hurt to observe that the footpad was running also, but in the opposite direction. Juran says his injury will cost him twenty times the amount that the hold-up man would have secured if he had taken all his valuables.

MAY QUIT SERVICE.

Santa Barbara Street Railway in Bad Way Financially.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, June 3.—Santa Barbara may be without an electric street railway service because the Santa Barbara and Suburban Street Railway Company is losing money at the rate of $40,000 a year. The financial dilemma of the corporation has been laid before the State Railroad Commission.

Commissioner Martin held a conference with the city officials and railway officials at Santa Barbara on Wednesday, and will later set the formal hearing of the matter, when, it is expected, the company will be granted the right to charge a fare of 6 cents, which will increase the earnings $15,000 annually; duplication of car service will be eliminated, and the company will be relieved of the need for paying the city 2 per cent of its revenue, and also relieved of paving its right of way. Unless these concessions are granted, it was intimated at the conference, the company may abandon its franchise.

TAKE STAND OPPOSED TO ORGANIZED LABOR.

RIVERSIDE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN FAVOR OF OPEN SHOP.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, June 3.—A resolution favoring the open shop and pledging the organization to stand against any move on the part of labor bodies to close industrial concerns to laborers and artisans who are not affiliated with a labor union was adopted by the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce last night. Only one member opposed the move.

During the meeting Irwin Hayden of Redlands was elected to the position of managing secretary, which has remained vacant since the resignation of Dr. Harry L. Boardman.

Resolutions were adopted favoring the passage of legislation that would regulate transportation lines, and protesting against proposed freight rates on vegetables and fruits.

DOCTORS HOLD FROLIC.

REDLANDS, June 3.—The big barbecue and meeting of the medical men of San Bernardino and Riverside counties held at Glenn ranch in the mountains yesterday, was attended by almost two hundred. It was a great success. Dr. William Duffield of Los Angeles, Rev. George Laughton of Riverside and Dr. D. C. Strong of San Bernardino delivered addresses. Dr. Paul Simonds of Riverside and Dr. C. L. Curtiss of this city had charge of the program and barbecue.

RECOVER BOY'S BODY.

Yorba Linda Youth Drowns in Anaheim Reservoir.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SANTA ANA, June 3.—Seized with cramps or losing his balance on the steep bank and falling into the water, Chauncey Pickering, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Pickering of Yorba Linda, was drowned late yesterday afternoon in the Anaheim Union Water Company's reservoir at Yorba.

The boy told companions he was going for a swim immediately after school. At supper time he was missed, and a search disclosed his clothing and bicycle on the banks of the reservoir.

Amon Cole of the searching party waded into the reservoir last night and recovered the body in five feet of water. Funeral services will be held Saturday morning. The boy was the eldest of four Pickering children and the only son.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

Schlaegel of 699 East Alvarado street, at the corner of Columbia and San Antonio avenues, yesterday, Ben Swanson, residing on East San Bernardino avenue, suffered a severe fracture of the right leg and was otherwise badly cut and bruised.

Swanson and John Neilson were riding a motorcycle north on San Antonio avenue and were about to pass Schlaegel when, they say, he cut in front of them without giving a signal. Unable to stop, they crashed into the side of the machine, Swanson being pinned beneath the wreckage of the motorcycle while Neilson was thrown clear he suffered severe cuts and bruises. The auto was badly smashed.

RESOLUTE IS THE VICTOR.

NEWPORT (R. I.) June 3.—The Resolute defeated the Vanitie today in the first of the trial races to determine which yacht shall defend the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, Shamrock IV. The race was sailed over a twenty-eight-mile windward and leeward course in a moderate breeze, the Resolute crossing the finish line the victor by four minutes, seven seconds elapsed time, and five minutes, thirty-nine seconds, corrected time.

Both yachts had slight accidents during the race. The Vanitie's sheet bridled, which delayed her for a few seconds, while on the Resolute the jaws of the gaff jumped out of the mast as she was turning the outer mark. Both boats made repairs in the harbor tonight and will race again tomorrow.

The official time:

| | Start. | Finish. | Elapsed time. | Elapsed Corrected time. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Resolute (R. W. Emmons III) | 11:01:42 | 2:20:49 | 3:19:07 | 3:17:23 |
| Vanitie (C. Oliver Iselin) | 11:02:00 | 2:23:11 | 3:21:11 | 3:20:11 |

PITCHER JUNEY GETS A TEMPTING OFFER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PORTLAND (Or.) June 3.—Frank Juney, pitcher for the Portland club, of the Pacific Coast League, has received an offer of $500 a month to pitch for the Chowchilla team, it became known here today. It was said today at the office of the Portland club that Juney would likely refuse the offer because of a dislike for the heat of the San Joaquin Valley. It was not likely, it was said, that Portland would increase Juney's salary to the figure offered by Chowchilla.

GOWDY FINED FOR GETTING MARRIED.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON, June 3.—Hank Gowdy, star catcher of the Braves and the first major leaguer to enlist in the World War, was today fined $100 by Manager Stallings as a penalty for his recent dive into the matrimonial sea. Hank is sore. The fine was imposed because Hank took an extra day recently in order to give his home town sweetheart his name. He notified Stallings that he would like an extra day at that time. Today when Gowdy received his pay check he found the $100 deducted, the star receiver isn't saying much about the transaction but he admits its truth and makes no secret of his opinion that it is mighty "small potatoes."

Commodore Morrow is to witness the battle for honors aboard the Galliana, and has offered a trophy for the first boat to cross the finishing line.

VANGUARD OF ATHLETES HERE.

BY PAUL LOWRY.

The vanguard of the visiting athletes who will compete in the Olympic Games tryouts at Pasadena on June 26 arrived here yesterday in the person of Alma Richards, high jumper de luxe of Ogden, Utah.

Mr. Richards, who is a large person standing 6ft. 2¼in. in his bedroom slippers and weighing close to 200 pounds on the hoof, is on deck, to get an early start on all competitors. He is the party who established an Olympic record of 6ft., 4in. for the high jump at Stockholm, Sweden in 1912. He also holds the American collegiate record at 6ft. 5in.

At the time the broad shouldered Mormon startled the Swedish natives with his quaint leaping skill he was one of three high school lads who set the athletic world afire with their achievements at Stockholm. The other two were Fred "King" Kelly, with whose work Southern Californians are all familiar, and the famous Ted Meredith, world record holder in the quarter mile.

SOME STUNTS.

For Richards's accomplishments in later years we refer you to any Cornell alumnus. Here are a few of his marks: High jump, 6ft. 5in., at the Penn relays in 1915; shot put, 45ft. 11 3-4in., at Boston in 1916; broad jump, 23ft. 4 1-2in.; discus, 135ft. 10in., Paris in 1919 during a Paris University meet when he was a first lieutenant in the Eighth Cavalry; pole vault, 11ft. 8in.; indoor high jump, 6ft. 4in., an intercollegiate record; indoor broad jump, 6ft. 4in.

Richards has been jumping for eleven years, ever since 1909, when he leaped 6ft. 2 3-8in., his first season on the track. At no time has he done under 6ft. 2in.

A group of distinguished local citizens whisked Richards over to Pasadena to have a look at the track yesterday morning, and to offer suggestions on runways and jumping pit conditions. The latter was favorably impressed with the paths as laid out by Coach Ray Call of Throop, and believes they need little work to be in first-class condition. The soil is California adobe, which if worked up properly, will furnish the best take-off surface imaginable.

TRACK IN SHAPE.

The running track, which is to be finished by the end of next week, was pronounced satisfactory by the dirt experts in the crowd. Dean Cromwell of U.S.C., who hibernates in Salem and thaws out in California, expressed his enthusiasm in no uncertain terms, as did Bob Weaver, prexy of the local Olympic Games committee, and George Adair, chief timer. Formerly Mr. Adair was known as a head timer, but he considers this as a reflection on his intellectual qualities, hence a request for a change of title.

It has not been generally known, but the quarter-mile will be run around one curve at Pasadena, the track being arranged in the shape of a horseshoe for this race. The straightaway to the turn will be 140 yards, according to Ray Call, and about 260 yards on the final. Eliminating the sharp curves of the ordinary oval will insure the best of time, other conditions being equal.

Coincident with the arrival of Richards, Weaver received a telegram from A. L. G. Glassman, president of the Ogden Athletic Association, announcing that the rest of the athletes from that section of the country will leave Salt Lake tomorrow night and arrive here Sunday. They are Larson, another high jumper; Creed Haymond, sprinter, and Morton, a distance runner.

COLLEGE STUDENTS TO STAGE AIRPLANE RACE.

SPOKANE (Wash.) June 3.—An intercollegiate airplane race, said to be the first ever held in the northwest, was announced today for next Wednesday between Dave Matthews, representing the University of Idaho, and George Toser, a student at Washington State College.

The flyers will circle the two institutions, which are several miles apart, several times during the course of the race, a pursuit contest of fifty miles.

FIELD CRACKS TO MEET.

ANN ARBOR (Mich.) June 3.—More than four hundred athletes carrying the colors of a score of universities of the central and far western States will be seen in action here tomorrow and Saturday in the western intercollegiate conference championship meet.

Finals come on Saturday. Sixteen events are on the program.

Predictions as to the probable winner of the meet cover no fewer than five of the large colleges entered. Chicago and Illinois are said to be almost evenly balanced; California, Wisconsin and Michigan seemed to have almost equal chances in the opinion of followers of track and field events.

Michigan's chances received something of a setback in the announcement that Carl Johnson, all-round star, injured early in the season, will enter only the broad jump. It was in this event that Johnson last year established the conference record of 24ft. 1in. Opposing him Saturday will be Merchant of California, credited with being one of the best all-round athletes on the Pacific. He has a mark of 23ft. 11¾ins. in the broad jump.

FIVE CRAFT TO RACE ON SUNDAY

Yachts to Cover Twelve-Mile Panhandle Course.

Galliana is Being Picked by Wise Ones as Winner.

Named Smooth and Slippery by the "Chair" Bugs.

Yachting enthusiasts are at fever pitch over the race which is to be sailed Sunday afternoon over a twelve-mile panhandle course at San Pedro. Commodore Morrow of the South Coast Yacht Club has put up a cup for the winner, and he will be aboard the Galliana, one of the participants, as a guest in order to witness the contest for his trophy.

The Galliana is the speed burner that won the first race of the season—that at Catalina last Sunday—for the Catalina Island Cup, so the commodore seems to be in for a good look at the finish.

There will be five yachts in the test. Time allowances have been figured under the universal rule, and will be as follows: Galliana, scratch; Mischief II, 7m. 51s.; Mischief I, 11m. 56s.; Vita, 17m. 55s.; and Wasp, 23m. 52s.

Judged by its showing in the Catalina race last Sunday this Galliana craft is going to cause some of the other yacht owners considerable anguish. It was formerly the Genevieve, and owned by Capt. Barneson of the Corinthian Club of San Francisco, being purchased and now owned by Owen Churchill of the S.C.Y.C.

The "Old Wop Genevieve," as the old-timers familiarly know it, was renamed by Churchill in memory of a late Italian friend. It has already been nicknamed by some of the yachting fans and members of the "rocking chair" fleet the "Smooth and Slipper." Her work last week gave evidence that she has been well christened.

This is the way they finished at Catalina, with corrected times and skippers: Galliana, 42m. 7s., Clarence Heuner; Mischief I, 42m. 17s., A. G. Maddock; Ortona, 45m. 15s., Dan Laubersheimer; Mischief II, 45m. 47s., H. B. Hays; Vita was disqualified for leaving starting mark to starboard instead of to port. She went around the course and finished in 42m. 35s.

OLYMPIC TRYOUTS ARE SET FOR JUNE 26.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—The American Olympic Committee has arranged national tryouts for track and field athletes in four cities on Saturday, June 26. On that day, the eastern athletes will take part in a program of nineteen events, at Franklin Field, Philadelphia; southern aspirants will meet at the Tulane Stadium, New Orleans, Stagg Field, Chicago, will be the testing ground for the Central States and the new city stadium at Pasadena, Cal., will afford ample opportunity for the Pacific Coast candidates in every contest.

The program, which will be the same at each center, has been arranged as follows:

100 yards, 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, and one mile runs; 120-yard hurdle, 440-yard hurdle, 3000-meter walk; 5000-meter run; 10,000-meter run; pole vault for height; running high jump; running broad jump; running hop, step and jump, throwing the discus and javelin; throwing 56-pound weight; throwing 16-pound hammer; putting 16-pound shot.

AMERICANS BEGIN GOLF PRACTICE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

LONDON, June 3.—Walter Hagen and James Barnes, American golfers in England to compete in the British open championship tournament, began practice today. Hagen and A. C. McBooms played Barnes and J. Ross. The latter won 3 up and 2.

HARRY MANSELL IS AFTER BOUT HERE.

CRACK ENGLISH BANTAM MAY BE SEEN AT DOYLES AGAINST MARKS.

Local boxing fans have a treat in store for them in the near future in the form of Harry Mansell, the 118-pound English pugilist, who arrived in Los Angeles several days ago after a successful invasion of the Northwest, where he met a number of the best bantamweights on the Coast. Harry some years ago battled Jimmy Wilde for the bantam championship of Great Britain.

Mansell's last opponent was Danny Edwards, the little colored marvel, who has many times pleased Jack Doyle's big clientele. Harry and Danny fought upsticks all the way. He has also stood off Sammy Gordon, regarded by many as the best boy of his weight on the Coast.

Mansell has placed himself under the managerial wing of Pop Hanlon, who will look after the lad in his bouts here. It is expected that Mansell will hook up with some boy, probably Georgy Marks, at Doyle's very soon. He will go into training at once and will do his work at the Western Athletic Club.

TAHOE FISHERMEN HAVE GREAT LUCK.

Tahoe anglers who went out from Tallac on the opening day of the season, June 1, were rewarded by several fine five-pound trout. Old-timers on the lake predict that this year, June will be the best fishing month of the year as the water is comparatively low, and the fish show an eagerness to grab any kind of bait.

GOTCH-MILLER BATTLE NEXT.

War Twixt Greek and Pole to be Fought Out.

Former Signs up While the ex-Champ Vamooses.

Settling of Draw Assured at Athletic Club.

This Young Gotch feller is a starter if nothing else. Ever since that time when he and Walter Miller wrestled to an unsatisfactory draw at the Los Angeles Athletic Club he has been on the ex-champion's trail for a return battle, and yesterday he signed up for it and posted his forfeit. The date is Thursday night, June 24, in the L.A.A.C. gym. It is to be a one-fall match, limited to two and a half hours, at the end of which time a decision will be given if neither contestant scores a fall. Pat Higgins is tentatively named referee.

CAN'T FIND MILLER.

Miller didn't sign because he couldn't be found. The sweet-voiced bull specialist, who apparently would rather eat a live rattlesnake or play golf than tackle the Greek, dropped from sight when negotiations reached a businesslike stage, and is supposed to be at some hog spring boiling out. His managers are trying to find him. The bout is made certain, however, by the Athletic Club's announcement. It is well known that the management of the big institution, as well as the public, desires to see the draw settled. Miller was in no condition for the mat and Gotch wore a pair of shoes that acted like roller skates, anyway that's his alibi. It will be refreshing to see them both go at it alibiless.

LIKE A TORPEDO.

Young Gotch is in fine shape and as full of pep as a torpedo. On the strength of his draw with Miller he made a grappling tour South and East as far as Chicago and took on some pretty good men. He floored every one and came back with a roll. He flashed a thousand plunks of this at Miller as a side temptation, but got a chilly response, for the ex-champion didn't consider it a good investment, from all accounts.

Acorns Thwart Bill Essick's Strategy in Twelfth Canto.

TIGERS LOSE TO THE OAKS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3.—Some mighty deep strategy on the part of the champion Vernon Tigers was upset in the twelfth inning at Oakland today and the Oaks won the game 3 to 2. With the score knotted at 2-2, and one out in the last of the twelfth, Hack Miller clouted a liner to right center for three bases. With Jack Knight and Catcher Spellman, both hard hitters, coming up, Bill Essick ordered Bill Piercy to walk both hard hitters, filling the bases and making a fine set up for a double play.

Pop Arlett and Hamilton had been up in pinches before and failed, so Essick figured he could pull out by passing the hard hitters and taking a chance on the tail end of the batting ladder. The strategy worked fine on Pop Arlett for he expired on a pop fly. Piercy then went to work on Hamilton and got himself in a hole. He worked the count to two strikes and three balls and then Hamilton broke up the game with a single to center.

HITS WERE EVEN.

Although the hits were even. Buzz Arlett really outpitched Piercy, for he had a weaker team behind him and he was in more bad spots than Bill. An error by Cooper paved the way for the run the Tigers scored in the first inning for it was followed by Esther's two-base hit. The second one was earned, for a pass to Horton was followed by hits of Long and Alcock.

The Oaks had fine chances in the ninth and tenth but fizzled. Billy Hamilton, however, finally broke up the game in the twelfth just as the shades of night were falling fast. The score:

FACULTY BALL TEAM DEFEATS STUDENTS.

Revenge is sweet, if you can get it. Yesterday morning the annual ball game between the Big L. A. Society, composed of all men at the Los Angeles High School who have won a letter in any sport, and a team made up of members of the faculty, was won by said faculty team on the larger end of a 5 to 1 score. The game lasted four innings.

E. W. Oliver, vice-principal of the school, announced himself umpire, together with Charles (Chaplin) Guest, in a manner that is rivaled only by Charlie Murray. The two teams were appropriately termed Brains and Brawn (Brawn representing the faculty; the other is optional,) by the 2000 students who witnessed the game. Van Patten and Whittle were the batteries for the Brawns; Woodward and Becker for the Brains (?).

TOM SEATON JOINS LITTLE ROCK TEAM.

LITTLE ROCK (Ark.) June 3.—Pitcher Tom Seaton, formerly of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast League, who with Pitcher Casey Smith, formerly of the same club, has been barred from taking part in Southern League games by President John D. Martin, today joined the local club of the Southern Association.

SERAPHS AGAIN HARPOON SEALS.

his bewitched bounder dashed over Corhan's head for an excursion to left field. Crandall went out McQuaide to Koerner. Then Griggs plugged a screamer to left, scoring McAuley, and what does Sam Crawford do a moment later but blast one down the first base line that made Fitzgerald do everything but climb a telegraph pole to trap. Samuel easily landed at third as Griggs scored. Bassler foundered by Koerner unattached.

McQuaide then showed his gameness by pulling himself together and living up to his northern fame for the next two innings. It was then in the fourth that Red Killefer swung the Ulysses stuff and this spelled the ruination of the callow chucker. Suddenly, without a moment's warning, the Seraphs resorted to bunting. The little episode in the fourth inning listens something like the finesse of an expert chess player.

Crawford belted one to right center for a single. Bassler squibbed one down the third-base line which McQuaide handled as if he had his right mitt on a red hot stove. He pussy-footed, twiddled, and coyed the old pill for a few moments and by the time he had finally gotten a real clutch on it, Johnny had flirted over Phil Koerner's toes. Ellis poked another serpentine squib at the young twirler and again his fingers became twisted into a rheumatic snarl—then to make matters worse he did the one thing he should not have done—he tried to make good with a belated throw and the ball broke through Koerner's far extended mitts and scampered toward right field.

SAM SCORES.

Crawford scored and Bassler tore on to third. Niehoff elevated a mighty one to left center which Connolly muffed, allowing Bassler to tally. Came then Senator Keating who crossed the million-dollar Seal infield with one of the niftiest infield singles seen here this season. Gypsy Jordan here took up the mound burden for the visitors. Killefer rifled a hot one to Old Fitz who got in its way and then grabbed Rube at the plate by a darling throw to Agnew. McAuley blasted one right at Koerner who jumped five feet in the air or thereabouts and snuffed it out.

Senator Keating, who promises to be Killefer's projecting ace before many weeks more have elapsed, was on the knoll for the Celestials. Ray, while not at his best, put up a swell exhibition of the twirling art and after passing unscathed through a hectic crisis in the second inning, mentally smeared the old apple thereafter with a goodly portion of his medulla and was monarch of all he surveyed to the end.

CALL OF THE WILD.

When Gypsy Jordan went into heave near the end of the fourth inning the fortunes of the Seals were desperate. The call of the wild must have permeated the Gyp's veins at this juncture. Probably on the theory that might is paramount to right and that the taproot of Angelic efficiency was centered in McAuley and Sandow Griggs, he started in to Bluebeard these worthies and came within an ace of accomplishing the fell deed.

He poked McAuley just above the kidneys and Mac took to mother earth for a five minutes resuscitation. Then Griggs, artfully dodging a missile that would have shot his topknot into the middle of next week, allowed the pill to land on the top of his shoulder near the neck. The shock almost upset Art and we want to say right here that any blow whether from a bat, bare or gloved fist, or any other appulsive force in the world that will put Art's underpinning on the horizontal must indeed be a mighty one not even excepting one shot forth from Babe Ruth's shoulders. Jordan's strategy went asunder through lack of effectiveness as both Mac and Art soon recovered their spirits, and were in the game thereafter for fair.

BERT AND HEINE.

One of the scintillating stunts of the game was Bert Niehoff's enlightening effort to outrun Sam Agnew in the second inning. Sam was on second when Schick hit to Bert. Agnew came tearing toward Bert like an ensouled juggernaut—then turned suddenly and beat it back to second. Then all the glories of Heine Zimmerman's art flashed across Niehoff's brain and he darted after Eddie Collins. Boys, of course, you know what happened.

George Putman, secretary of the Seals was there with a plethora of agonized alibis after the game. An Angel official feeling that George was ripe for a trade, offered to give Pete Lapan to him for Agnew with a bonus. "What did you say about bone and Lapan," queried Putman as he shot his right cupped hand behind his ear, and the deal fell through. The score:

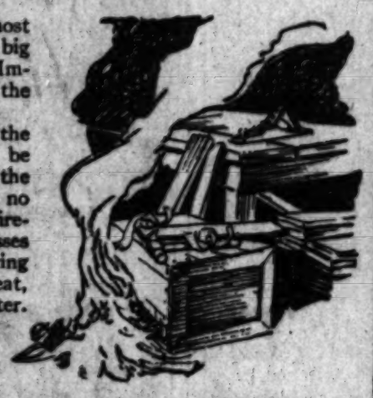
When the First Small Flame Curls Upward—



THE undetected fire almost inevitably grows into a big and destructive blaze. Immediate detection of fire is the surest corollary of safety.

It is most important that the organized skill of firemen be brought without delay to the scene of danger. There is no effective substitute for a fireman in minimizing fire losses and the accompanying damages due to heat, smoke and water.

Fire Detection Service provides an infallible vigilance over premises protected by its circuits, establishing immediate notification of the fire department at the earliest outbreak of fire. This service utilizes the accuracy and constant responsiveness of precision electrical apparatus supplemented by human judgment.

Trained A. D. T. operatives on duty night and day in central stations receive and relay every danger signal, and hold every part of the F. D. S. circuits under continuous electrical supervision.

No part of the F. D. S. electrical equipment can become inoperative without turning in a trouble alarm.

Make Your Dollars Do Double Duty.

DOES your purse pay for tradition—or for calory values?

The calory, or unit-food value, is the measuring rod of nourishment.

Medical authorities say that the average person needs 3,000 calories per day. Children around ten years of age need 1,800 calories per day.

Consider the difference in cost of the following:

Round Steak costs 41 cents per thousand calories.

Fruited Cereals cost 5 cents per thousand calories.

Again, Fruited Wheat or Fruited Oats save sugar bills—because the natural fruit sugar provides nearly all the sweetening.

CAMPAIGNS FOR SCHOOL BONDS.

Survey Committee Chairman Backs Issue Strongly.

"Give the Kiddies a Chance," His Appeal to Voters.

Commerce Chamber Puts New Workers in the Field.

Declaring that the proposed school bond issue should receive the unanimous support of the voters of Los Angeles next Tuesday, Sylvester L. Weaver, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce and chairman of the Citizens' School Survey Committee, yesterday announced his intention of campaigning actively until the election. His decision, he says, is being duplicated by many other citizens who have been brought to realize the calamitous conditions that will result unless proper provision is made for housing the ever-increasing number of public school children.

"To my mind it is inconceivable that anyone should oppose this bond issue on any grounds," said Mr. Weaver last night. "Whatever else we do, we must give the kiddies a chance and they are not getting it now. The Los Angeles public school system always has been a source of pride to every resident. We have a magnificent corps of teachers who have done such excellent work that there is practically a unanimous sentiment that they should be better paid. The public schools, better than any other institution, serve to reflect our democracy and American ideals. We cannot make them too good, but we may easily allow them to become bad.

"The cold facts are that at this moment we are not giving our children a square deal. My own youngsters are among thousands who get only half-day sessions at school, because of the crowded conditions."

It is pointed out by those working for the bonds that the deplorable conditions now existing are due largely to the war, as a bond issue was needed in 1917 and was planned for then, to take care of the increasing housing requirements. The strict war regulations regarding building, however, delayed the calling of a bond election until the present. According to the national Chamber of Commerce, the school building program the country over is behind $2,000,000,000.

When the issue was proposed, it was found that the increased cost of building rendered it necessary to make the amount larger than at first intended. It was also figured that Los Angeles has not stopped growing by any means, but that its school children are increasing in number at the rate of more than 1000 a month and probably will continue at this or a faster rate for an indefinite period.

The last bond issue for acquiring school property was authorized in May, 1914, and was spent at once, leaving no surplus for future needs, so that for six years lack of funds has handicapped the Board of Education in making provision for school children.

An auxiliary committee was named yesterday by President McFie of the Chamber of Commerce to cooperate with the publicity committee in working for the school bonds. John C. Austin is chairman and other members of the committee are Norman MacBeth, Theodore Martin, Paul Burks, H. B. Potter, H. M. Burgwald, Walter Simons, F. C. Moseley, Martin Honholz, Robert F. Bostwick, F. R. Rietshaw, Ira W. Byrne, H. D. Ivey, W. H. Daum, Ned Golding, Martin Nauner, C. S. Hutson, W. A. Barker, A. C. Denman, Jr., and John Kemp.

"WAITING LISTS" IF SCHOOL BONDS FAIL.

DIRE ALTERNATIVE TO HALF-DAY SESSIONS SEEN AS CONGESTION GROWS.

"Waiting lists" of school children who cannot be admitted to instruction because of overcrowding are seen by school officials here as an imminent probability unless the $9,500,000 bond issue to be voted on Tuesday is approved by the city's people. Superintendent of Schools Dorsey declared yesterday that periodic exclusion of many pupils is the "dire condition that confronts the school authorities if they attempt to give more than half-day sessions" in the absence of improvements that money from the bonds will make possible.

The reason is an astounding increase in the city's population. During the last year, according to the school census, the number of people in Los Angeles increased by 13 per cent. During the war years, 1914-1919, the school registration here jumped from 70,000 to 95,000 and in the school year 1919-1920 it increased 10,000—a total gain of 25,000.

For all this increase no new building has been provided.

The proposition to be voted on Tuesday provides for an expenditure of $6,000,000 for elementary schools and $3,500,000 for high schools. A large building program is the principal item.

BUDGET ESTIMATE OF ENGINEER CUT DEEP.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE SLASHES OUT FAT SUM FOR VACUUM CLEANING OF STREETS.

The Budget Committee of the City Council yesterday lopped $321,717 from the estimate of next year's expenses in the City Engineer's department. The items cut out include a request for $50,000 for vacuum cleaning of the streets under contract.

Councilman Fleming fought particularly hard to have this item eliminated, contending that the city is now cleaning its streets satisfactorily by flushing and by hand sweeping.

The Budget Committee finished yesterday its first complete survey of the estimates for all city departments. It has trimmed $2,296,487 out of the total sum requested, but has yet to cut out items totaling $226,049 in order to bring authorized expenses within next year's income. Total elimination of city markets and of the Social Service Commission, for the sake of economy, is now contemplated.

STARS GLEAM AT BENEFIT.

BY GRACE KINGSLEY.

A whole big stage full of noted stars attracted a full capacity house at Philharmonic Auditorium last night, the occasion being the opening of a three nights' run of Augustus Thomas's famous melodrama, "Arizona," given as benefit for the American Legion, Hollywood Post. Great were the delight and noise of the big audience as there stepped out on the stage one after another of those famous screen people known for the most part only in the silence of picture houses. Scores of picture stars were in the audience, too. A procession of flowers like those handed to members of a graduating class followed the close of the first act.

Looking as natural as a drink of water, Roscoe Arbuckle astonished even those who know him best by the ease and cleverness with which he put over all his lines, both comedy and drama, in the role of Dr. Fenlon; he never missed a tick. Clara Kimball Young's voice was naturally a matter of curiosity, and it proved a beautiful one, looking and eerie sort of feeling due to hearing her fit spoken lines to gestures we know so well. She played Estrella Bonham with all the fine sincerity and intensity we are accustomed to associate with her on the screen.

I'm sure Dustin Farnum never looked handsomer in his life, nor played a romantic role more fascinatingly than his Lieut. Denton. It was good to hear his splendid voice once more, too.

Dear Bill Desmond, beloved matinee idol only a few seasons ago here, was once more gazed upon in the flesh by his fair worshipers, and s'death he cut a gallant figure as Tony Mostano.

Charlie Murray, hero of a hundred bloodless battles for sweet charity's sake, was so camouflaged behind a mustache, a uniform and a German accent as Capt. Kellar that the audience didn't know him at first, but when recognition dawned he was applauded to the echo, and everybody laughed at what he said thereafter, whether he meant to be funny or not.

Sessue Hayakawa deserves huge credit for hiding his fine talents in the thankless role of the Chinese servant. We're used to Clyde Fillmore on the stage, only we usually see him in heroic roles, but he made a very satisfactorily villainous Capt. Hodgman. One of the biggest hands accorded anybody went to sweet Bessie Barrisnale as "Bonita," and she certainly made us regret that it is all too seldom we have opportunity to view her vivacious cleverness on the stage.

Monte Blue was awfully nice to look at as Lieut. Young, and didn't have much more to say than he does in films. Jack Holt likewise was silent but impressively handsome as Lieut. Halleck. Theodore Roberts was unctuously at home in the role of Henry Canby, and revelled in his chuckling retorts to his wife, played in finely finished character fashion by Sylvia Ashton. Ruth Renick was pretty, sincere and appealing as Lena. Howard Hickman was effective and subtly dramatic in the role of Col. Bonham. Brenda Fowler was consistently smart looking and acting as the school-teacher, and no soldiers surely were ever braver and handsomer than Eddie Sutherland, Ted Duncan and Edward McWade.

And, oh, how the gallery did come back last night! Surely never was virtue more volubly approved nor wickedness more hissingly hated than at the performance.

Says 'Tisn't So Again.

Many of the world's troubles started with a chance word. Here is a story of a whole flock of trouble that started with about a dollar's worth of words that were wired up from San Diego Memorial Day by Wallace MacDonald and Doris May, who doubtless by this time have realized that silence really is golden where telephone and telegraph are concerned.

Rumors having been rife that Miss May and Mr. MacDonald were engaged to wed, when this column received simultaneous telegrams from them to the effect that each was at Santa Ana, California's Gretna Green, at lunch, and that each was week-ending at Coronado Beach, a very natural conclusion was arrived at that they were wed, especially after a message on the telephone from Coronado Hotel stated that "Mr. and Mrs. Wallace MacDonald were registered at the hotel, but both were out." Probably there was a slip-up in transmitting the message, but at any rate that's how the matter stood.

Now, though Miss May and Mr. MacDonald did week-end at Coronado Beach Hotel, they were quite correctly chaperoned by Mrs. Garrett, herself, and further by Master Garrett, brother of Doris May, whose real name, you know, is Helen Garrett. So now you know how it all happened. And t heystate "absotively" and posolutely" that they are not married.

"Great Lover" Commences.

The filming of Leo Dietrichstein's play, "The Great Lover," was commenced at the Goldwyn studio Wednesday under direction of Frank Lloyd. A remarkably strong cast has been selected. John Sainpolis has the title part, and is supported by Sylvia Breamer, Alice Hollister, Lionel Belmore, Mme. Rose Dion, Richard Tucker, John Davidson and Joan Corey.

He Didn't Mean It.

Here's the story Dave Warfield told on Antonio Moreno the other day at a luncheon, with Mr. Moreno blushing hard all the time. But it happened several years ago, when Tony first came to this country, while the Spanish actor was playing in New York and had not yet achieved complete control of the English language. One day, it seems, Mr. Warfield accosted the young Spaniard outside the Lambs' Club.

"Why the excitement, Tony?" he inquired.

"Too bad, Dave," said Tony rapturously. "The most gorgeously beautiful woman in the world just passed. A regular Venus!"

"Blonde or brunette?" inquired Warfield.

Tony fumbled in his English vocabulary for a moment and then replied: "Médiocre!"

Charles Ray Back.

Charles Ray, with his leading woman, Ann May, returned yesterday from Del Monte, where the final scenes of "Peaceful Valley" were filmed under the direction of Jerome Storm.

Buster Keaton's Lead.

Buster Keaton, Metro comedy star, has a new leading lady. She is Sybil Sealey, formerly with Mack Sennett's beauty forces and before that a member of a vaudeville swimming act. Miss Sealey is a petite lady, but is credited with a record of having saved the lives of five different persons who ventured beyond their depth while swimming at various beaches where she happened also to be enjoying a dip.

Fish Story 999.

H. B. Warner and his wife, known professionally as Rita Stanwood, are fishing at Catalina. Not only are they fishing, but they are catching. Anyway Mrs. Warner is. She won the silver button by landing a 33½-pound albicore, the largest of the 1920 season.

Tom Terriss Departs.

Tom Terriss, who has been directing the Vitagraph special production, "Trumpet Island," by Gouverneur Morris, has left Los Angeles for New York, where he will make the final aerial scenes over the Hudson River.

It is rumored that Vitagraph is considering sending Terriss to Europe to film a picture.

Big Willie Trains.

Among the picture luminaries who are training for the Olympic tryouts at Pasadena, is William Lion West one of the best known of the screen's athletes. He is training with shot, hammer and discus.

"FRIVOLITIES" SOON.

REVUE IS SCHEDULED FOR AN EARLY VISIT.

By Edwin Schallert.

No sooner has the flare of the "Passing Show" died down on electric lane than announcement is made of the approach of another high-power revue. It is to play at the Mason the week of the 14th inst.

This revue is the "Frivolities of 1920," and is the first of a series of topical entertainments, which G. M. Anderson, one time "Broncho Billy" of the screen announces will henceforth be an annual event to aid in frustrating the designing Puritan and alleviating the pervasive draught.

"Frivolities" is in nineteen scenes and two acts, and is said to have all those w.k. attractions that intoxicate the eye, even if they do not cause a riot in the equilibrium of the beholder. A large cast of special entertainers will appear, surrounded by an influential frivol chorus of pulchritudinous young ladies.

In Summery Garb.

Summer has officially dawned at the Orpheum, for the draperies of cretonne have been put up over the doors, and the usherettes and ushers have donned their uniform of white. The new uniforms are severely plain, it is said, the color being the only slight feature.

Betting on Wallie.

Wallace Reid has a real role in the production of "Sick-a-Bed" that is to open at the Egan Little Theater Monday night, and is said to be doing capital work. Reid hardly had a fair chance to manifest his ability in "The Rotters," which recently was presented at the theater. The coming attraction is a speedy farce of the broader type, and Wallie is said to avail himself of every opportunity to keep the fun in high.

Enid Bennett's Sister.

Majorie Bennett, the ingenue of the Mabel Wilber Opera Company, which will open a ten weeks' season the 14th inst. at Philharmonic Auditorium, is no less a person than the sister of Enid Bennett of film fame. And that isn't all, because Miss Marjorie has quite a bit of fame of her own. She began her career as a light opera star in Australia, and on coming to the United States joined her sister and portrayed several parts before the camera.

Tabloid Music Show.

A miniature musical comedy is to constitute the prologue presented by the Kinema Theater next week in connection with the showing of Marshall Neilan's production, "Don't Ever Marry." The prologue is an original travesty and will be enacted by a cast of ten. The lyrics were written by Hazel Madeline Lindoft, with a musical arrangement by Nicola Donatelli.

Cressy Coming Back.

Will Cressy, the sketchist supreme, will return to the Orpheum next week in one of his own home-brewed dramatic playets. He will, as usual, play the leading role. There have been fifty-seven (and then some) varieties of Cressy sketch already on the Orpheum. Since his last appearance here the character impersonator has played a large engagement on foreign soil as a part of the war entertainment program.

In Final Week.

"That Something," the picture study of the conditions for success, is to close its run at the Victory Theater Saturday night. This is the fifth week of the showing. "Terror Island" will be the attraction following.

Singer on Program.

James Kessel, the tnor, has been engaged to sing on the program Lyons and Moran's first five-reeler "Nothing but the Truth" next week at the Superba.

Bennie With U.

Little Bennie Alexander has been engaged by Universal to play the part of Harry Carey as a 7-year-old youngster in the western star's current vehicle, "Fightin' Job," written by H. H. Van Loan and directed by Reeves Mason.

'Neath the Scepter of Fantasy.

In Passing Show of Playland.

Marie Dunn, who has the leading feminine role in Jack Pickford's "Double-Dyed Deceiver," coming to California; Virginia Faire in "The Path She Chose," at the Superba, and Kathleen Clifford, featured in "Sick-a-Bed," to be presented as a stage attraction next week at the Egan Little Theater.

CEMENT :: LAWN :: PAINTED :: GREEN.

No More Watering, Mowing, Weeding Nor Gopher-Hunting!

This is the Cement "Lawn," Painted Grass Green, of Mrs. A. C. Woodward, At 5129 Almaden Drive. Note the shrubbery and flowers growing up through circular apertures in the concrete.

HAIL! Ye tired business men of Los Angeles, who hop the evening car for home; hark to this and rejoice!

The waterless, mowerless, weedless, ropherless lawn has made its appearance here. Roll up the old garden hose, wrap up the old knee-worn overalls and shelve them in the attic. Call over the back yard fence to your borrowing neighbor, and tell him he can have the lawn mower for keeps. The day of the leaking hose, weeding tool, hard-running lawn mower is past. Stand upon your front porches with friend wife and take your last look at that fraying, sun-faded, weed-strewn patch of grass that you have spent so many wearying, back-breaking hours upon in an effort to make it look like an everlasting green lawn, and then go inside and phone for the cement man.

Out in Highland Park, in front of a bungalow overlooking York Valley, is a lawn that ain't a lawn, but looks like a lawn, and, the owner says, is a "whole lot better than a lawn." It is made of cement and is painted a grass green, extending from a wide cement porch of natural color to a terrace above the sidewalk. On all sides it is flanked by clusters of flowers and on one side running to the rear are fruit trees. More flowers are blooming in small circular beds at difference places on the "lawn." Mrs. A. C. Woodward of 5129 Almaden Drive, where the "lawn" is built, is the originator and the owner. She enthusiastically contends that it saves her time, worry and money, and is beneficial to her health and pleasure.

Describing the "lawn's" history, as she went on with her sewing in the little bungalow at the rear, she said, "Well, it's funny about that lawn of mine. You know many truths are said in a jest. One day some time ago, after I had looked high and low for a man to come and take care of my lawns, I have several of them, you know, I mean the old kind, and I couldn't find anybody, one of my tenants laughed at me and said 'Why don't you make one of cement and paint it green?' And that's just what I did do.

"Now I don't have bother getting a man at all. This lawn never needs any water, and it doesn't have to be cut or weeded. It is so dry and nice that we can always take our chairs out in the evening and rock there without getting our feet wet. It needs painting only about once a year, and when you're across the street you couldn't tell the difference. I certainly am proud of it and I recommend it for all those who are going to build homes in Los Angeles, especially young married couples where the husband has to work in the city. When a man has to come home from work and fuss around an old lawn, it makes him cranky, and that makes his wife cranky, and then everybody's cranky. I'll never use anything else."

Mrs. Woodward said the approximate cost of the cement lawn was $65. After the first expenditure, there is no more outlay except for painting once in a while. All one has to do is to sweep it off. Put up a few lanterns and the young folks can dance to their hearts' content, or father can move his old rocker out front, smoke his corn-cob and keep his slippers dry.

"OTHER WOMAN" WEIGHED MORE.

Husband Came Home Thought Wife Thin.

Jokes in Alienation Suit Makes Crowd Titter.

Defendant Denies Having Won Married Woman's Love.

Mrs. A. Howland, an elderly member of a Santa Monica Baptist church, who is suing H. C. Harper in McCormick's court for $25,000 damages for alienating the affections of Mrs. Luella M. Howland, and the latter was Mr. Howland's wife, yesterday heard his former wife relate an incident which caused many witnesses and court spectators to smile.

Mrs. Howland went back a number of years in her life to a time when her former husband returned from a trip.

"I sat on his lap," she said, "and remarked: 'My, Lucila, how thin you have grown.' I told him I had lost weight. I learned later that I had been holding a 176-pound man in his lap," she added.

Mrs. Howland and Mr. Harper, the latter avowed, were in the real estate business together. Mr. Howland objected to Mr. Harper taking lunch to lunch nearly every day. Mrs. Howland said he told her he did not care to have her in business, but wanted her to make a home for him. He told Mr. Harper he did not want his wife in the office with him.

Mrs. Howland said she could not help it if she wanted to be in the real estate business; that if I could not manage it, she could not," said Mr. Howland.

Mr. Howland's relationship with Mrs. Howland's love and affection from her husband, that this was alienated before he knew Mr. Howland won a divorce from Mrs. Crail's court some time ago.

CAUGHT IN CHICAGO.

Held Here for Bond Fraud Awaits Extradition.

J. W. Haight, accused jointly with W. E. McLaren of defrauding A. B. Jones, J. M. Klingersmith and C. C. Rogers out of $4000 in Liberty bonds, was arrested yesterday at Venice, according to information received by Constable Thomas. McLaren was recently arrested in this city and will appear for a hearing before a justice court.

The county grand jury may be empaneled today to take up an indictment of the same charges. Haight is held pending action for extradition to this State.

HELD TO ANSWER FOR MURDER OF PITTMAN.

Al Coral, accused of the murder of C. Pittman, was held to answer by Justice Brown. Testimony was addressed by Dep. Dist.-Atty. Strickland that Casala attacked Pittman on Washington Boulevard near the defendant's ranch, striking him several times and causing death. Bail was fixed at $5000 and was furnished by neighbors of the defendant.

DOES BULL TERRIER RECOGNIZE MASTER?

JUDGE MUST DECIDE COURT BATTLE OVER RIGHT TO CLAIM DOG.

Whether a white bull terrier dog indicated in a test in court yesterday that he knew his own master and obeyed his commands, thus establishing ownership, will be up to Justice Brown to decide when the case is called again today.

The test came in hearing of a suit in claim and delivery instituted by Jordon Rebenton, a negro, against Mollie Taylor, a negress, the latter of 1510 East Ninth street, seeking recovery of a dog he calls Son, which, he says, he lost last September. The defendant testified that the dog was brought to her by a man and that she nursed it through an illness. The plaintiff, represented by L. D. Blair, asserts that the dog is worth $50, but the defendant filed a counter-claim for $150 for board and keep from January 1, last, as a lien against the dog. She said the dog came to her in August, last, and was not the one lost by the plaintiff.

To prove his ownership Rebenton stamped his foot, saying, "Lie down, Son," and the dog crouched and put his head between his paws, a trick Rebenton said he taught him as a puppy. A dog trainer tried the same test, but had to use a strap to enforce his order. The case was continued until today for further evidence.

TO CLEAR WAY FOR COLISEUM WORK.

FRIENDLY SUITS WOULD FIX TITLE TO PROPOSED PARK SITE.

City Attorney Burnell yesterday began preparation of an application to be filed in the Appellate or Supreme court asking for a writ of mandamus to compel Mayor Snyder to execute on behalf of the city a contract with the Community Development Association providing for the building, operation and control of a million-dollar Los Angeles memorial coliseum at Exposition Park.

Chairman Dodge of the Board of Supervisors likewise refused to execute the contract on behalf of the county, both refusals being friendly actions to secure from the courts a ruling establishing the legality of the measure. County Counsel Hill will represent the Board of Supervisors in their application to compel Chairman Dodge to execute the contract, and Henry W. O'Melveny will represent the Mayor and Chairman Dodge in the court proceedings.

The purpose of the court action, specifically, is to clear title to the land on which the stadium is to be built, ownership of which now rests in the Sixth District Agricultural Association, a semi-public corporation organized years ago to conduct county fairs at what is now Exposition Park.

WILL SELL ROSES TO HELP POOR CHILDREN.

JUVENILE PROTECTIVE BODY TO CAMPAIGN TOMORROW TO MEET EXPENSES.

"Buy a rose. What is it worth to you to help a child?"

With this appeal and with baskets of posies to offer for sale, the women of the Juvenile Protective Association will invade the downtown districts of the city tomorrow afternoon and evening, as a climax to their campaign for funds with which to carry on the organization's work.

An effort will be made to raise $5000, necessary to complete the association's budget for the year.

The Juvenile Protective Association was organized eleven years ago for the purpose of protecting childhood from delinquency, aiding the handicapped, guarding helpless children against neglect, cruelty and hurtful environment and fitting boys and girls to become good citizens.

This is the first time the association has appealed to the public for funds, as it has depended heretofore on voluntary private contributions. The present call for money has been made necessary by the large number of cases that have arisen during the last six months. There are now 175 complaints on the books of the association, involving mistreated children, neglected children and youngsters in immoral homes.

Although not officially connected with any city or county body, the association handles cases for the county charities, the compulsory education department of the school administration, the juvenile court and other local governmental organizations.

LOCAL Y.M.C.A. JOYOUS VICTOR.

Celebrates Its Triumph Won in Five-City Campaign for New Members.

With a dinner and entertainment at 715 South Hope street last night the Y.M.C.A. celebrated its victory in a five-city membership campaign. Los Angeles won by 8500 points over New York, San Francisco, Brooklyn and Minneapolis. The local Y.M.C.A. secured 1750 new members in three months, making its total approximately 6000. R. H. Schotz, a local business man, was leading individual winner. He secured 124 new members and will be rewarded with a trip East during which he will be the guest of the associations in the four other cities.

FIRED AS LAZY; WANT PENSIONS.

Two Suspended Policemen Say They Broke Their Health for the City.

Suspended by Chief of Police Home last winter on charges of inefficiency and neglect of duty, Bert Cowan and James D. McNamara, former detective sergeants, are now asking for pensions from the department. In applications filed with the police pension board they set up the plea that they are suffering from physical disabilities incurred while working on the police force.

Police Commissioner Wilson is investigating the applications.

CHILD IS RUN DOWN.

Dashes in Front of Automobile; may Not Survive Injuries.

Charles Lappert, 5 years of age, of 1471 Griffith avenue, was probably fatally injured late yesterday afternoon when he was struck down by an automobile driven by W. L. Shark of 3423 Paloma street. The accident took place almost in front of the child's home. At the Receiving Hospital the little boy was treated for a fracture of the skull, a broken left leg and possible internal injuries.

According to Mr. Shark the child darted out from behind a street car and attempted to run across the street in front of his machine. Efforts on the driver's part to bring his machine to a stop failed and the boy was hurled against the curbing. The police are investigating.

CHANGES IN LASKY PRODUCTION STAFF.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, June 3.—Important changes in the production end of the Famous Players-Lasky Company, effected by Jesse L. Lasky, first vice-president, before starting for Europe Saturday, were announced today.

Mr. Lasky appointed Walter Wagner production manager and he will have charge of all producing activities during the absence of Mr. Lasky in Europe.

Mr. Wagner, who is one of the youngest theatrical producers, joined the organization only two months ago as special representative of the output department.

Robert E. MacAlarney, scenario editor for two years, has been given enlarged powers and great duties, which will necessitate the amplification of his department. Miss Maude Miller, who has been with the department, has been appointed Mr. MacAlarney's assistant.

Victor Smith succeeds J. N. Naulty as studio manager. Among his first big tasks will be removal of studio activities and organization from the Fifty-sixth-street studio, Manhattan, and other studios in New York and New Jersey, to the big new studio in Long Island City.

Roswell Dague will be production editor for both studios, succeeding Gardner Hunting.

TRUSTEES CAN'T PAY.

William Ellison and W. H. Labb, trustees of the Ocean Park Pier Company, a defunct corporation, filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. The debts of the concern are given as $94,457.14, of which $70,363.82 is unsecured. The remainder $24,093.32 consists of notes and bills that ought to have been paid by others, according to the petitioners. The assets amount to $185,975, an unliquidated claim now pending in the local State court against the Fraser Million-dollar Pier Company, covering the value of buildings, machinery, electrical equipment, plumbing, lumber, water mains, etc.

PUBLIC HEARING TO SIFT GARBAGE ROW.

PRO AND CON OF REDUCTION COMPANY CONTRACT WITH CITY WILL BE HEARD.

As a result of protests against renewing for five years the city's contract with the Pacific Reduction Company for the disposal of garbage, a public hearing on the matter is to be held by the City Council.

The company now pays the city 51 cents a ton for all garbage delivered to the plant. But the collection and delivery, President Handley of the Board of Public Works told the Finance Committee of the City Council yesterday, cost the city $3.63 a ton. The present contract will expire in 1923, but the company desires to have it renewed now for five years in order, it says, to justify it in adding to the plant improvements to cost $100,000. Some of the Councilmen believe the city should receive more than 51 cents a ton for the garbage. Already one informal offer has been received from a Toledo, O., company to pay $1 a ton for the refuse under a ten-year contract.

Among the protests received by the Council is one from the Public Service Commissioners, who urge that if the contract with the Pacific Reduction Company is renewed the provision giving free water to the corporation at the rate of 400 feet per ton of garbage be eliminated and that the company be compelled to pay for its water at regular rates. The commissioners say that under the present contract the city has given $119,000 worth of free water to the company.

President Handley of the Board of Public Works appeared before the Finance Committee of the Council yesterday and said:

"The board has recommended that the contract be renewed, because it is the only way the city will get 51 cents a ton for the garbage during the next five years. Whether or not this contract is renewed, our present system of collecting garbage is the best in the United States. We have ordinances prohibiting the private collection of garbage.

"The Cafe and Restaurant Keepers' Protective Association has protested against renewing this contract and desires to collect garbage and feed it to hogs in the country. This method was tried and proved a failure."

Mayor Snyder said yesterday: "The contract should be carefully examined before it is renewed. It seems to me the only question is whether or not the city is receiving enough for the garbage. I believe the company should pay for its water. The system of collection and disposal is excellent. I have not received a single complaint since I became Mayor. The company might, if desired by the Council, be brought in with its books to show how much profit it makes out of the grease, fertilizer, meat, vegetable and bone meal it manufactures from city garbage."

President Handley explained to the Councilmen that under the contract the city may purchase the plant at any time. It cost $750,000, according to a communication filed with the City Council yesterday.

COMEDIAN GOING EAST.

George Ovay, who was featured in many one-reel comedies for David H. Horsley and others, has been approached by an eastern distributing company, with a view to his organizing his own company to produce a series of one and two-reel comedies, it is announced. The George Ovay pictures have proven popular in foreign countries as well as in the United States. Mr. Ovay plans to leave for New York within the next few days to decide on the offer.

Cut This Out and Take it with You.

A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. ## U-BOAT PRISONER TELLS EXPERIENCE

Petty Officer Richard Cannon of Ill-Fated U.S.S. Neptune Gives Story of His Perilous Adventure and Remarkable Restoration.

Richard Cannon, Chief Petty Officer of the U.S.S. Neptune, whose dramatic story at sea by a German U-boat and subsequent experiences on the submarine and in a German hospital thrilled the entire country, is still another world witness to test the remarkable restorative powers of Tanlac and to give strong endorsement. Mr. Cannon's adventures were so harrowing that his constitution was completely shattered, but after months of Tanlac he has now regained the good health that enabled him to relate his adventures alive and kicking the same strapping two hundred pound fighter that embarked as chief oiler. But let him tell his own story:

"When the Neptune was torpedoed off the Irish coast," said Mr. Cannon, who lives at 707 E. LaFayette, Los Angeles, Cal. "I had my right leg and arm broken by the explosion, and came to my senses I found myself on board a submarine bound for Germany. I was kept in a German hospital for five months. You can imagine what I must have suffered when I tell you that I lost in weight from two hundred and thirty-five to a hundred and thirty-one pounds. When I was repatriated and finally got my discharge in February, 1919, I was little better than a living skeleton. I had no appetite and my digestive system was so upset that what little I did eat always gave me severe pains in the pit of my stomach. Before I joined the service I never knew what nerves were, but after what I went through my nerves were so shattered that I couldn't keep still a minute, and the slightest thing upset me. For six months I continued in this condition, unable to pick up strength, and so weak that any attempt at work tired me out completely. I began to think that I should never be a well and strong man again.

"But the way Tanlac overcame my troubles and built me up was nothing short of marvelous. It gave me such an appetite that I wanted to eat all the while, and I sure did make up for lost time. I had no more bother with indigestion and from then on I picked up strength and put on weight until now I tip the beam at two hundred and four pounds and am as well and strong as I ever was before I joined the service. My nerves are as steady as a die and I'm like my old self again. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine and I think every suffering person ought to try it."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Stores. A special Tanlac representative will be at their 5th and Broadway store from 3 to 5 p.m. daily this week.—[Advertisement.

Is the United States Panic-Proof? Business News of the Day.

BY CHAPIN HALL.

Confidence that the currency and banking system of the United States has made the country panic-proof under wise financial leadership is expressed by the National Bank of Commerce of New York in an article bearing the title, "The Normal Business Cycle," in the June number of its magazine, Commerce Monthly. The Federal reserve system, the bank says, has been devised to make panics impossible in the future, and there is abundant reason to expect that we shall not see again in this country such demoralization and chaos in the money market as the years 1893 and 1907 witnessed, an opinion which finds considerable support among Los Angeles financiers.

"No currency and banking system can avoid the recurrence of crises in the sense of liquidation periods, or periods of readjustment, but we have strong grounds for confidence that, under wise financial leadership, our currency and banking system has made us panic-proof," the bank states.

Periods of reaction and liquidation, unless too violent and prolonged, are wholesome rather than harmful. It is explained that such crises are merely phases of the general rythmic movement in business. It differentiates, however, between crises and panics, defining a crisis as "an affair of industry generally," and a panic as "an affair of the money market." It declares that sound bank policy can and does prevent crises from degenerating into panics.

The recent proposal for stabilising the dollar by withdrawing gold coins from circulation and substituting for them gold certificates redeemable in a varying amount of gold has many defects, the article says. It points out that had such a method been in operation in 1892 and in 1907 it would have led to foreign drains on our gold.

The most important proposal that has yet been made for the mitigation of the extremes of the business cycle," the bank says, "is that the various grades of government, Federal State and municipal, together with large corporations like the railroads, should adopt a buying policy designed to throw as many of their purchases as possible into the period of depression and to withdraw from the market in considerable measure at the height of the period of prosperity."

Small Allotment.

Local participants in the recent issue of Union Pacific Railroad trust certificates have received notice from the syndicate managers of the issue that subscribers will receive only one bond, regardless of the number ordered. Bond brokers also report that the $50,000,000 government of Belgium bond issue is being very rapidly absorbed.

Around the World.

An around the world trade excursion financed by exporters, and which has for its object the introducing of American-made goods, will start from New York in October. Los Angeles and San Francisco exporters are much interested in the project, and it is expected that this city will have a carefully-selected representation. The trip will take at least a year. Application has been made through the United States Shipping Board for a large American steamship, which will be equipped as a floating sales and sampleroom. The return trip will be made by way of the Pacific Coast.

Stock Selling Permits.

Commissioner of Corporations H. C. Bellows has given authority to the following Los Angeles companies to sell and issue capital stock:

Electrotherm Company, 12,234 shares at par, $1, for cash, and 6686 shares at par, taking promissory notes therefor.

Dairymen's Feed and Supply Company, all of its capital stock, $100,000, par value, $100. Promissory notes may be taken for not to exceed 75 per cent of the par value.

Globe Securities Company, sixty-four shares to its incorporators, and to issue to Frank Burt one share of common stock for each ten shares sold; 2000 common and 500 preferred to be sold to the public at par to net 80 per cent of the selling price. The company proposes to deal in mortgages and loans on automobiles.

Home-Grown Cabbage.

The Germain Seed and Plant Company announces free distribution today at the Sixth and Main street store of the company of 10,000 heads of cabbage fresh from the Germain cabbage farm.

Los Angeles Stocks.

The market yesterday continued slow and narrow, but the developments of the next few weeks are likely to have a stimulating effect and many think that the bottom has about been touched for the present.

With the rail situation becoming clearer; the adjournment of Congress billed for tomorrow and the nominating conventions soon over it looks as though a wider market may soon develop. At the present time the market is largely professional in character. Trading yesterday was irregular and the fluctuations in many instances were without analytical value. The renewed strength of Goodyear, preferred, is gratifying to Los Angeles holders. Southern California Edison gained another point and sold up to 185. Oil leaders were fractionally higher than Wednesday's close except Union, which was a trifle lower. Mines were quiet and comparatively inactive. Telluride sold from 73 down to 72½ cents. There was considerable inquiry for Gold Dust, which moved up from an opening of 24 cents to closing sales at 29 with few offerings at less than 30. Government's failed to show strength and most of issues were at slightly lower levels than on the preceding day.

Willys Corporation Statement.

Through the Los Angeles offices of E. H. Rollins & Sons the earning statement of the Willys Corporation, whose stock recently met with an extensive sale in Southern California, has been released. The statement includes the four months ended April 30, last, during which time the company earned more than $6,000,000 before depreciation and Federal taxes, leaving profits, after special charges and taxes, of about $3,600,000. Dividends on both classes of common and preferred stock for the year call for about $3,100,000. During the four-month period, therefor, the earnings of the company meet the entire dividend requirements of the year, with a safety margin of 15 per cent.

Concerning Pan-American.

The announcement made yesterday that the meeting of the directors of the Pan-American had been deferred until tomorrow, made possible the extension of theorizing respecting the rumored forthcoming stock dividend. Failure of the bonus bill to pass before Congress adjourns would be encouraging because it includes a 10 per cent tax on stock dividends. It would not surprise the wiseacres if action is still further deferred. In any event there will be no formal announcement before the close of the New York market because of the difference of time between Los Angles and the metropolis.

Bank Deposits Grow.

Thirty-seven national banks in the United States showed gross deposits in excess of $50,000,000 on the latest call of the Comptroller of the Currency. Twenty-five of these banks showed an increase over the pre-

LATEST NEWS OF FOOD PRICES.

Potatoes in Fresh Price Rise; New Crop Will Bring Relief Late This Month.

During the past week the wholesale price of new potatoes has advanced about 50 cents per lug box of thirty-five pounds, and retail prices are beginning to reflect the higher prices. Local dealers predict that new potatoes will not be any cheaper until the latter part of June. About 10,000 acres are planted to potatoes in the territory adjacent to Los Angeles, and according to present indications the yield will be high.

The advancing prices are explained by local dealers by the fact that the bulk of the early yield has already been marketed and that supplies available for local consumption are at the present time decreasing. The general movement of the crop will begin after the middle of June, when lower prices may be expected. It is also pointed out that new potatoes are at a premium in the eastern markets, and that shippers are paying high prices for them in the local market in order to ship them to outside points.

TOMATO PRICES DROP UNDER HEAVY SUPPLY.

IMPERIAL VALLEY OFFERINGS SLUMP 75 CENTS PER CRATE; BERRIES ARE WEAKER.

Although the majority of fruits and vegetables remained firm and unchanged on the local produce market yesterday, a weaker tone developed for some of the lines on account of heavy offerings. Receipts by rail were very liberal and covered a wide variety of products. Country arrivals, however, were again moderate, and the offerings of the farmers were cleaned up during the early hours of the session. The receipts of Imperial Valley tomatoes amounted yesterday to about seven carloads, with five carloads on track, and although tomatoes were in fairly good supply the quantities on hand were rather less than the market would absorb, with the result that selling showed sharply. Best stock was moving at $1.50 to $1.75 per crate, as compared with $2.25 to $2.50 of the preceding day.

Summer squash was also weaker. Supplies of this commodity were moderate, but the demand was light, and the majority of sales were made at a decline averaging 25 cents per crate. Strawberries dropped $1 per crate, while blackberries, which were in very liberal supply, were moving at a decline averaging 50 cents per crate. Cherries again weakened about 1 cent per pound, the range of prices yesterday being 14 to 15 cents per pound. A few sales of extra fancy stock were made as high as 16 cents per pound, however.

Other lines were firm or higher. New potatoes continued in active demand at the high price level reached during the early part of the preceding day, best stock merging readily at $2.50 per lug box. New beans, of which there were no arrivals, ruled 1 to 2 cents per pound higher, according to the quality and condition of the offerings.

Bond Market

BY C. F. SEIDEL,

Manager Bond Department, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.

C. F. SEIDEL.

During the war the War Industries Board made a study of the cities of the United States to find where war contracts could be placed. In every instance power was the necessary requirement for the placing of contracts of a size which in some instances turned a village into a city and a city into a metropolis. Where power was lacking there municipal growth ceased.

If power is lacking in California or in any city of California during the next decade the growth of that city must automatically cease. Therefore, on the future of the Southern California Edison Company depends the future of Southern California, as this is the concern to which we must look for power.

* * * * * * * * *

Already the Southern California Edison Company supplies more than 150 cities and towns and covers the country from Visalia almost to San Diego, and [illegible] Santa Barbara to San Bernardino, an area of more than 55,000 square miles and a population of over 1,000,000, of whom more than [illegible] are direct consumers.

* * * * * * * * *

The subsidiaries the Southern California Edison Company has installed capacity of 156,920 horsepower in seventeen hydro-electric [illegible] and 148,310 horsepower in eight steam power plants—a total of [illegible] horsepower. All these are interconnected by more than 1500 miles of high-tension transmission lines and 8000 miles of distributing [illegible]. The first steam plant operated by the company had a capacity [illegible] horsepower. The capacity of the latest steam plant is 65,000. The first hydro-electric plant had a capacity of 500 kilowatts. The latest [illegible] the two latest—32,000 kilowatts each. The first long-distance transmission line was eight miles long and was operated at 2300 volts. The latest [illegible] is 240 miles long and is operated at 150,000 volts. The original company had a capitalization of $500,000 and the present $100,000,000.

* * * * * * * * *

The company's present strength and standing loom forth like Gibraltar. Both the gross and net earnings of the Southern California Edison Company have more than quadrupled during the past thirteen years, and [illegible] the company's net earnings are more than twice the annual mortgage bond interest charge.

* * * * * * * * *

It is a recognized economic fact that any concern must be permitted to increase its capacity to meet increased demand. The maintenance of adequate supply of electric energy means not only the prosperity of any organization depending upon it for power in the vast territory served, but individual prosperity, through uninterrupted commerce and [illegible] employment, as well as comfort in the home.

* * * * * * * * *

It is therefore only natural that the California Railroad Commission granted the company a temporary increase in rates, effective from April 1, 1920, to January 30, 1921, by which the additional power from the new hydro-electric developments will be available. The Railroad Commission's engineers estimate the additional revenue to the company during the calendar year 1920 will amount to $2,106,600.

* * * * * * * * *

The Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank therefore has no hesitancy in offering $6,000,000 Southern California Edison Company's General and Refunding Mortgage 25 year 6 per cent Gold Bonds, "Series of 1919," dated July 1, 1917, and due February 1, 1944. These bonds are redeemable at 105 and interest on any interest payment date up to and including February 1, 1942, and at 102 and interest on any interest date thereafter. Interest is payable on February 1 and August 1 in New York, Chicago or Los Angeles. The issue consists of coupon bonds of $1000, $500 and $100 denominations. They have attractive tax exemption features and are legal for savings banks in California. The price of these bonds, the issue of which was authorized by the California Railroad Commission, [illegible]% and interest. Their yield is 7 per cent.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

NEW YORK, June 3.—The trend of today's sluggish stock market session was irregularly upward, although there were no obvious changes in general conditions affecting intrinsic values.

Shorts again deemed it advisable to limit their commitments in view of the easier tone of demand loans. Call money was abundantly offered at 6 per cent, as compared with Tuesday's high rate of 10, but time money continued extremely scarce, most loans being restricted to mid-year maturity.

A reactionary tone prevailed in foreign exchange, the London rate forfeiting most of yesterday's latent strength. The Bank of England statement attracted attention because of the large increase of gold holdings and a sharp reduction of liability reserves.

In the steel trade there was rumors of price cutting for fall and winter delivery, but this was neutralized by an extension of the recent inquiry for railroad equipment and refined copper, the latter from foreign sources.

Apart from the fluctuation of selected issues still under professional guidance, rails were the only features of note. Encouraging crop reports exerted further beneficial effect upon shares of western and southwestern roads.

Steels and affiliated equipments were most prominent with intermittent interest in motor, oil, food, tobacco and shipping issues. Extreme gains of one to three points were materially shaded or entirely effaced, however, in the moderate selling at the close. Sales amounted to 428,000 shares.

Any tendency toward betterment in the bond market was checked by further persistent pressure upon Liberty issues. Gross recessions in that group extended from quarter to almost 1 1-4 per cent, with rallies at the end. The general domestic and foreign bond list was hesitant at slight changes. Total sales, par value, aggregated $13,800,000.

Old United States bonds were unchanged on call.

COMPROMISE MEANS A DOUBLE BENEFIT.

PERMIT FOR FILM STUDIO ALSO ASSURES EXTENSION OF WEST FIRST STREET.

The Public Welfare Committee of the Council yesterday outlined a compromise plan which will probably be adopted whereby the Cosmosart Picture Company is to be permitted to build a $300,000 motion-picture studio in the district bounded by First, Temple, Virgil and Juanita streets.

The company, under the plan, is to assist the city in extending West First street through its property so that this street will be an eighty-foot thoroughfare running from Commonwealth avenue to Virgil and into Temple streets.

Though there were several protests made against the company being permitted to build a studio, the concern presented a map which was checked and verified by the City Engineer, showing that more than 90 per cent of the property owners adjacent to the tract favored the building of the studio.

DEFENDS LAND CLAIM.

Hero's Widow Made Mistake of Not Getting Good Advice.

Harriet W. Willard, widow of John A. Willard, who served four years with the Tenth Maine Regiment during the War of the Rebellion, and was breveted for heroism at the Battle of Cedar Mountain, is defending her homestead rights to a quarter section of land near Hesperia, before Register Groves and Receiver Mitchell of the local Land Office. The contestant is Ira C. Lambert of this city, who originally located Willard on the property in question.

The assertion that she had not complied with the public land law rests on her failure to act following the death of her husband, who left her with but little except the pension awarded him by the government. She might have secured patent long ago to the land, but had no advice and did not inform the local land officials as to the status of her affairs on the death of Willard. She would have been able to make final proof on her husband's military service, but before he had gone on his five months' leave of absence during which he died the Willards had improved ten acres of the holdings.

PRICE QUIZ IS SHORT.

Miscellaneous Matters will Take up Rest of Jury's Time this Week.

But a half day on the job was spent yesterday by the Federal grand jury investigating the local high cost of living, adjournment being taken at noon until this afternoon.

A number of special agents of the Department of Justice were before the body and submitted the results of their recent survey of the situation in Los Angeles. These reports were based upon a number of investigations pursued locally involving Los Angeles dealers in every variety of merchandise, with tables of cost, profits and sales, and a complete exposition of the merchandising business.

It is announced that the session this afternoon will be devoted to a further quiz on prices, with other miscellaneous business to be brought before the grand jury. The statement was made that on account of the comprehensive character of these surveys, considerable time will be devoted to their consideration and that the local merchants will not be asked to come before the grand jury before the coming week.

MANY WOMEN APPLY.

Sixty-one Seek Jobs in Local Postoffice via Quiz Route.

Showing the women's appreciation of the ruling of the Federal Civil Service Board that they were eligible to take the examination for postoffice clerks and carriers, sixty-one of the sex took part in the examination closing before Secretary Tynan yesterday. There were 142 who took the quiz, so one-third were women.

The class was so large that it was necessary to devote four days to the examination. Those who pass the test will be immediately employed in the Los Angeles postoffice, where the shortage of help both as to carriers and clerks is most acute.

GET RECOGNITION.

Harbor Warehouse is to be Licensed by Government.

Municipal warehouse No. 1, at Los Angeles Harbor, is to be licensed by the government in common with other port warehouses on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Receipts from the local warehouse will, under this license, be recognised throughout the country.

The Board of Harbor Commissioners yesterday, after hearing H. K. Holman of the United States Department of Agriculture, decided to take out the license. President Gordon of the commission will take Mr. Holman for an inspection trip over the harbor tomorrow.

GRASS FIRES COSTLY.

Fire Chief Authorized to Employ More Firemen for Summer Months.

Chief Scott, at fire department headquarters at 317 South Hill street, wants twenty-five able-bodied, efficient young men between the ages of 21 to 35 years to act as emergency firemen during the next two months and probably for four months, their wages to be $120 a month. Ex-service men in particular are invited to apply for these jobs. The Finance Committee of the Council yesterday authorized the employment of the emergency firemen to combat the grass fire menace which, Chief Scott said, is causing from fifty to sixty fire alarms daily, resulting in an expense to the department of $5000 a day. The emergency firemen will aid in the work of serving notices on property owners to clean the grass from their vacant lots and to do other fire-prevention work.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]
REDLANDS, June 3. — I. Cushman Gray, for many years in the City Clerk's office here, now with the American Legation at The Hague, Netherlands, has written of the reception given William Phillips, the new Minister to the Netherlands, in April when he took up his work there.

For the first time since the war a Minister was received with all the pomp and ceremony of before the war. Officials in full uniforms went to the home of Mr. Phillips and escorted him to the palace where he was received by the Queen. Then he was escorted with ceremony, back to his home.

Mr. Gray says that economic conditions in the Netherlands are improving rapidly.

POLITICAL PLOT, IS BURGER PLEA.

Commissioner Accused by Boy Denies Misconduct.

Dodge Tells of Grand Jury Offer Not to Indict.

Avers Supervisors Refused to Force Resignation.

On the theory that the indictment of Charles R. Burger was an attempt to get rid of him politically, the defense yesterday, during his trial of Mr. Burger on a contributing charge, introduced an affidavit by Chairman Dodge of the Supervisors, prepared at the time the grand jury was considering the indictment. Mr. Dodge identified the document which recites a conference the grand jury asked with the Supervisors the result of which was a suggestion that Mr. Burger resign as civil service commissioner and thereby escape indictment. Believing in the integrity of Mr. Burger, the Supervisors declined, after an interview with him, to force his resignation.

Mr. Burger took the stand just before Judge Houser adjourned court. He is 56 years old, has been in California about sixteen years and has resided at 275 West California street, Pasadena, about fourteen years. He stated he has been engaged in humanitarian work for years, taking an interest in young and old men who have fallen under the ban of the law. During the past four years, he said, he has assisted probably 250 youths and men.

Until last July he was International Chancellor of the Order of Good Templars and is now head of the order in California.

He emphatically denied that he misconducted himself with William Russell, a youth, at the time the latter was taken to the West California street home after his release from the County Jail.

"I never entertained an impure thought nor committed an immoral act while in his company at any time or under any circumstances," he said.

A large number of prominent men testified in Mr. Burger's behalf, declaring that his reputation in the community is good. These witnesses included Judge Taft, Police Judge Denham of Pasadena; W. H. Hubbard, W. H. Reeves, Pasadena City Commissioner; Rev. Walter C. Loomis and Chairman Dodge. Probation officers told of Mr. Burger's upright standing as a civil service commissioner. The case will go to the jury today.

EVEN THE JUDGE GETS CONFUSED.

Liquor Case Involving Tia Juana Race Man Develops Unusual Arguments.

J. P. Atkins, of the Carnegie Apartments, San Diego, who is the controlling manager of the Tia Juana race track, was before U. S. District Judge Trippet yesterday to answer an indictment charging him with violation of the customs law in having illegally imported twenty quarts of whisky from Mexico.

A demurrer to the indictment was argued by Attorney George Shreves of San Diego, who asserted that under the Volstead Act it is illegal to import whisky from a foreign country at all, that therefore there could be no penalty for failure to pay the duty.

It was argued by the prosecution that whisky could be legally imported under certain restrictions and regulations, but the argument became so confused that the court postponed the case until next Monday.

The illegal bringing of liquor into the United States under the customs laws is a felony; under the Volstead law it is a misdemeanor. This was the reason for the demurrer.

WOMAN ROUGH RIDER IS ASKING DIVORCE.

Edmund R. Gibson, film director, is charged with desertion in a suit filed yesterday by Helen Rose Gibson, rough rider and motion-picture actress. The Gibsons were married September 46, 1915, in Pendleton, Or. They separated March 4, 1919.

DEFERS "PEG" LETTER CASE.

Judge Taft yesterday continued for decision until the 12th inst. the divorce suit of Mrs. Nettie Puckett against Charles Puckett. It was this suit in which the "Peg" letters were offered for identification only.

Safety—

SAFETY is one of the greatest words in the English language. The babe is given birth and grows to strong maturity; governments are born and endure; even the world and her sister planets swing on through space only because the great natural laws that make for safety operate unhindered.

Just as the dissipation of the individual impairs his health and safety, so does the promise of income beyond a given point argue against the actual safety of the principal itself.
